AT THE BOOK

School days are here, and so are we, with all the necessary things calculated to instill pride into the boy who must daily respond to the sound of the bell on the hill, and just here at a time when buying is made easy by our reduced prices on all summer goods. We have added to the life of this sale by putting into it a lot of Boys' Knee Pants Suits. By calling early you can get a fairly good selection in patterns, and the price we ask you to pay will be small enough to tempt you into buying for next summer's use, if not in immediate need.

We sell the best 10c fast black hose for boys that you can find anywhere.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

CIRCUIT COURT.

SATURDAY.

The case of Hester V. Stoops vs. L. Bates Russell, was argued before a jury and occupied nearly the entire morning session. The case was given to the jury at twelve o'clock and they were out at the hour of adjournment.

The case of State vs. Lewis Davis, for larceny was tried before court. Verdict not guilty, Wm. W. Beck for State, and S. Scott Beck for denfense. This was the latter's first case in court, and he handled it admirably. The grand jury finished its labors and submitted the following report:

REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

To the Honorable, the Circurt Court for Kent County, Md.:—The grand jury of the State of Maryland for the body of Kent county beg leave through their foreman to respectfully report to the honorable judges of said court that they have been in session six days. During that time they have examined 105 witnesses, 6 constables and 1 bailiff, made 22 presentments and found 20 true bills. We have visited the jail and premises in a body and found them neat and clean and the prisoners comfortably provided for. We would recommend, however, that the cells with brick floors be covered with cement, and that two of the cell rooms up stairs be provided with closets. Also call attention to Preston Brown's mental condition and recommend that he be provided for elsewhere.

We would respectfully recommend an enlargement of the court house in order to give accommodation to lady witnesses, better security of the records, for accommodation of witnesses called before the grand jury, for use of auditing committee and the election supervisors.

We also respectfully recommend that a light be kept at each end of the draw of Chester bridge, also draw of Sassafras bridge connecting Georgetown and Fredericktown for the protection of the traveling public.

It has been recommended to the grand jury that they request the court to call attention of farmers to an existing law requiring the burial of dead animals, particularly of hogs dying of the cholera.

It is with deep regret that we recall the death of our late judge, Wm. R. Martin, who, by his gentle and always kind treatment to his jurors endeared him to our citizens. We also extend thanks to the court and officers of the court for their kind attention.

GEORGE BECK, Foreman.

MONDAY.

Court convened at 10 o'clock with Chief Judge Pearce upon the bench. Associate Judges Crothers and Adkins arrived from their homes on the morning train and took their places beside Judge Pearce. The jury in the Stoops-Russell cases brought in a sealed verdict. It was opened by the court and found to be in favor of Mrs. Stoops for $1400. Mr. Urie, one of the defence, filed a motion for a new trial.

The first case called was that of Henry Parr, administrator of Samuel Tood, vs. Henry J. Gray. Suit to recover on note. Case compromised by the defendant agreeing to pay $150. The original suit was for $200. Barroll for Parr, Hynson for Gray.

Case of Young, Smithfield & Co., of Philadelphia, vs. Clifton L. Jarrell, suit for payment of bill of goods, occupied the attention of the court and jury during the afternoon session.

TUESDAY.

Court convened at 9.30 A. M. with Judges Crothers and Adkins on the bench. The case of Young, Smithfield & Co. vs. Clifton L. Jarrell, continued from Monday was concluded and argued before the jury. It was given to the jury at 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon; at 4.30 the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff, Young, Smithfield & Co., for $391.18. Wickes for the company, Barroll for Jarrell.

Case No. 2—State vs. George W. Parks, for violation of the local option law. Court trial; verdict not guilty. Beck for State, Barroll for Parks.

WEDNESDAY.

Court convened at 9.30 A. M. with Judges Pearce, Crothers and Adkins on the bench.

J. D. Urie, counsel for defence, moved a withdrawal of motion for new trial in case of Hester V. Stoops vs. L. Bates Russell, and filed an amendment to same.

Case of Peoples vs. McClenahan Granite Company, removed from Cecil county, was called for trial. Settled on terms to be filed. The suit was for $20,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received by Peoples by a flying piece of granite while passing the quarry of the company at Port Deposit. The terms of settlement are reported to have been the payment of $4000 to Peoples.

A motion for a severance of the defendants filed last week in the case of Blake vs. the Diamond State Telephone and the Electric Light Companies was overruled on Monday and the case was set for trial on Thursday.

Case of State vs. Geo. W. Parks for violation of local option law was called. Jury trial, verdict not guilty. Beck for State, Barroll for defense.

State vs. Thomas Lamb, for violation of the local option law (7 cases). Plead guilty in one, sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and costs, and confinement in Maryland House of Correction for 9 months, or until fine and costs are paid. The other cases were stetted, with the proviso that if upon his return from the House of Correction his conduct should justify it, he can be tried on any one of them.

Case of State vs. John Washington, for larceny of a set of harness, was concluded and given to the jury. Verdict, not guilty. Beck for State; H. W. Vickers, Jr., for defense.

Case of State vs. Henry Mercer, for violation of the local option law, was tried before the court. Verdict not guilty. Hynson for Mercer, Beck for State.

THURSDAY.

The entire session on Thursday, including an evening session, was consumed by the case of David Blake vs. The Diamond State Telephone and Chestertown Electric Light Companies. After the plaintiff rested its case, the counsel for the electric light company, Marion deK. Smith, Esq., offered a prayer to remove his company as one of the defendants. The court granted the prayer, and the case went to the jury with the telephone company the sole defendant. After argument by the counsel in the evening, the case was given to the jury at 9 P. M. They brought in a verdict at 10.45 o'clock in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $1,950.

Court will probably continue several days next week.

The whole community is in entire accord with Chief Judge Pearce in the sentence he imposed upon Thomas Lamb for the violation of the Local Option Law. Not any more in the sentence however, than in what he said. It is a recognized fact that the law governing such cases is defective, and it would be a blessing to the local option communties if it could be repealed and so re-enacted as to provide severer penalties for the violation of the law. We wish we could publish every word Judge Pearce said, and it would be fortunate if every law abiding citizen could have heard it. Violations of the local option law should be stopped, and there is no court more ready and willing to stop such violations than the Circuit Court for Kent county. The misfortune is the defective law.

FRIDAY'S SESSION.

Court convenned at 9.30 A. M. with full bench present. Hope H. Barroll council for the Diamond State Telephone Company in the case of David Blake vs the same, filed a motion for an arrest of judgment in the case.

First case called was that of the Md. Death Benefit Association vs. Rock Hall Counsel Jr. O. U. A. M. Jury trial. Smith for Rock Hall Counsel, Barroll for Association. This was a case for the recovery of an assessment which the association claimed to be due them from the counsel.

To Get Out of Business.

At a meeting of the directors and stockholders of the Merchants' Manufacturing Company held last Wednesday evening, it was decided to liquidate the affairs of the company and sell the stock and fixtures. A committee of the stockholders. Messrs. Walter U. Lusby, Charles S. Smith and Clifton L. Jarrell, was appointed to determine the method of liquidation and to close up the affairs of the company as speedily as possible. Several good offers have been made for the stock and fixtures and there is a splendid opportunity here for the operation of an overall plant, with a sufficient amount of capital. It is no trouble to secure operators for the machines and the company regrets that they are not in a position to continue the business longer.

Wedding Announcements.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Alice Moore Lea, daughter of Gov. Preston Lea, of Delaware, to Mr. William Corbit Spruance, Jr., son of Judge Wm. C. Spruance, of the Delaware courts. The date for the wedding, which will be an elaborate affair, has not been made public.

Miss Jesse Macbeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Washington Woodall, of Crumpton, will be married on Tuesday next, to Mr. Sudler S. Weist.

The marriage of Miss Bessie Coale, of Baltimore, to Mr. Rudolph Tull, of Philadelphia, which was announced last week, will be solemnized this evening in First M. E. Church, Baltimore.

With Our Advertisers.

A. Cohen, the hustling Sandy Bottom merchant, has a change of advertisement in this issue which calls the attention of the public to bargains in the various departments of his large store. Mr. Cohen quotes prices that are hard to excel, and his bargains are exceptional. Better read it, it will pay you. He is paying 26 cents for eggs, and wants 500 dozen this week.

B. S. Sutton calls the attention of the farmers to his large stock, including boots and shoes, fodder yarn, meats, etc. He is paying 27 cents for eggs this week.

Wedding Bells.

TUCKER—JEFFERSON.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening at 7.30 at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jefferson, in Queen Annes county, near Chester bridge, when Miss Ruth Hester, their popular and attractive daughter, was married to Mr. Harry Tilden Tucker. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. T. Baynard, pastor of Union M. E. Church. The bride, dressed in white chiffon, trimmed with val lace and medallions, was attended by her sister, Miss Helen, as bridesmaid, gowned in blue mulle, trimmed with footing, and Elizabeth Roberts Hudson and Helen Marguerite Baxter, flower girls, daintily dressed in French mulle and carrying chrysanthemums. The bride carried a large bunch of bride roses, and was given away by her father, Mr. C. H. Jefferson. The wedding march was played by Miss Violet Evans, of Chestertown. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Story, Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hurlock, Mrs. S. R. Hurlock, Mrs. Jennie Byron, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Morris, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter, Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, Mr. and Mrs. R. Irving Walker, Mr. and Mrs. James Newnam, Rev. O. T. Baynard and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dewberry, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jefferson, W. T. Godwin and wife, L. Green and wife, W. G. Evans and wife, Geo. V. Hendrickson and wife, P. C. Jester and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks Tucker, Centreville; Wm. F. Green and wife, Centreville; Richard M. Cooper and wife, Chesterville; Jos. Jefferson and wife, Smyrna; Harry Shepperd and wife, Sassafras; J. P. Crossley and wife, Henry Stewart, C. L. Roe and wife, C. A. Hill and wife; Misses Mollie Hurlock, Nellie Walters, Grace Seward, Katie Catlin, Laura Tucker, Rose Story, Violet Evans, Mabel Jefferson, Hilda Spear, Pearl and Vena Hendrickson, Jane McRochester, Lillia Rochester, Alice Dewberry, Delma, and Katie Stewart, Hallie and Margaret Tucker, Fannie Green, Lena and Annie Story, Nellie Barwick; Messrs. Homer Hudson, Smyrna, Del.; William Maslin, Sudler Crossley, Rouse Story, J. T. Anthony, Ramsey Anthony, D. B. Ford, Herbert Freeman, Philadelphia; Charles Baxter, Gilbert Duberry, John P. Jefferson, Chesswell, Del.; Ralph Jefferson, Smyrna, Del.; Fred G. Usilton.

A grand reception was held, after which the bride and groom left for their future home near Rolph's wharf.

BROWNLEY—FENHAGEN.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at 6.30 o'clock, when Miss Alice Fenhagen, daughter of Mr. C. D. Fenhagen, was married to Mr. Wm. S. Brownley, of Baltimore. The ceremony took place at the Roland Park Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore, the pastor, Rev. Wilbur V. Mallalieu, assisted by Rev. Dr. W. L. McDowell, officiating. The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage, and was met at the chancel by the groom, attended by Mr. Charles Denny Fenhagen, Jr., as best man. She wore an exquisite costume of white crepe de chine, combined with point lace and chiffon, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The ushers were Messrs. Frank Donald Fenhagen, Maynard Healy, John Pope Baer and Edwin W. Brownley. Miss S. Elizabeth Stuart, of Chestertown, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of white embroidered mouseline and carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were Miss Edith Childs and Miss Isabelle Corner. Their costumes were of pink embroidered mousseline and they carried white chrysanthemums. After the ceremony a reception was held at 205 Roland avenue, Roland Park, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fenhagen. Mr. and Mrs. Brownley left for a wedding journey. They will reside in Roland Park. The groom is a brother of Mrs. Wm. R. Pippin, of Chestertown, who with her husband, attended the wedding.

CLEMENTS—BURCHINAL.

The many friends of Miss Burtie Burchinal and Mr. Merrick Clements will be surprised to learn of their marriage in Philadelphia, October 4th, 1906. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. F. Crouch, pastor of Mt. Airy M. E. Church, who was a friend of both the bride and groom's family in Delaware years ago. Mrs. James F. Vansant, an aunt of the bride, and Mr. W. Joseph Burchinal, her brother, were present at the ceremony. The secret was confided to near relatives, but was not made public on account of Mr. Clements' vacation having been granted for the 25th instant. The young couple left on the morning train Thursday for a ten days trip to Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Washington and New York and will be at home to their friends after Nov. 20th, at Hotel Imperial, where they have furnished a suite of rooms. The presents were many and handsome.

The bride's going away gown was blue brothcloth with hat and gloves to match. The bride was one of Kent's popular teachers while the groom is book-keeper in the Chestertown Bank of Maryland.

Rev. J. W. Parris, the popular pastor of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, and a prominent young lady of Norristown, N. J., were married on Thursday at the home of the bride, in Norristown, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, pastor of St. James M. P. Church. Rev. and Mrs. Parris left for a bridal tour after the ceremony. Upon their return to Kent they will occupy the parsonage at Wesley Chapel, which is being prepared for their reception.
