will doubtless not be insensible to their claims."

And whereas, the Supreme Court of the United States decided, at its last session that the will of Mr. McDonogh should be sustained, and consequently that the city of Baltimore is entitled to its beneficiary interest under the same; therefore be it Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That, as party in interest in said John McDonogh's estate, and in view of the appointment, service, and qualification, as executors of said Benj. C. Howard and Brantz Mayer, they do hereby assent to the passage, by the Louisiana Tribunal which still has jurisdiction of the administration of John McDonogh's estate, of such an order or orders as said Tribunal may think just, allowing said Benjamin C. Howard and Brantz Mayer such compensation as the said Court may deem fair and equitable.
