LOCAL MATTERS.

Buys Home Back.—Mrs. Annie P. Hayes on Tuesday purchased of Mr. Charles H. Jefferson, of Queen Annes county, the beautiful College avenue property which she sold him a few months ago. Mr. Jefferson, it seems, after purchasing the property, with the intention of moving his family to Chestertown the first of next year, concluded to remain on his farm in Queen Annes, and Mrs. Hayes, as the time drew near for her to leave the home she has occupied so long, realizing how hard it was to part with it, made Mr. Jefferson an offer for the property which he accepted.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Young Man While Experimenting With an Autelyne Gas Lamp is Fatally Injured.

A terrible and fatal accident occured on Friday evening at six o'clock at the tin shop of Mr. Charles Walter, in Still Pond, when his son, Louden Walter, was fatally injured by the explosion of an autelyne gas lamp, while attempting to light the shop. Just what caused the lamp to explode is not known but it is presumed that there was too much pressure. A piece of the lamp was blown through the roof of the building and another piece struck the unfortunate young man in the head tearing away a part of the face, and fracturing his skull. Drs. Maxwell, Kelly and Atwell were summoned and rendered medical aid. The young man lingered until three o'clock Saturday morning when he died. Mr. Charles Walter, father of the young man, was standing near at the time of the accident, but he was not injured. He was greatly shocked at the terrible accident. The accident cast a gloom over the entire town, where young Louden was popular with both young and old. Funeral services were held in Still Pond M. E. Church last Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. T. S. Holt. A great concourse of sympathizing friends were present. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

TRIBUTE TO LOUDEN WALTER.

"In the midst of life we are in death." Never were truer words spoken, when Our Father claimed as his own, Louden Walter, the beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter a bright promising boy at the age of eighteen. Louden had a nice position in the Baltimore & Ohio office, but resigned to help his father in the plumbing business in Still Pond. He showed such an interest in his work his father took him in partnership just a short while before he was called away. At a time when life seemed brightest he must leave it all. The idol of a mother and father's heart called in a moment of time leaving darkness in a home where he was the sunshine. What can we say in a time like this; words are powerless to express our feelings or bring comfort to the bereaved. Louden was a member of church, a good boy and God took him to be with him where there is no sorrow, no dissappointment, no death. Their loss is his gain. Jesus is the only healer of sorrow, and so we commend his loved ones to him who has promised to bind up the broken heart. Funeral services were held at his home Monday afternoon and every one tried to show their sympathy by attending. The pall-bearers were the young men of his Sunday School class. Dr. J. B. Mills, of the M. P. Conference, a former pastor, and Bro. Holt conducted the services, which were beautiful and impressive. Surrounded by sorrowing friends he was laid to rest in Still Pond cemetery.

A FRIEND.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. J. L. Smyth is at the city Hospital, Baltimore, for special treatment. She underwent a successful operation last Saturday, and she is now improving rapidly, we are glad to state. Owing to the condition of Mrs. Smyth's health, her husband, Prof. J. L. Smyth, has rented his home on High street to Mr. Rickards and family, with whom Prof. Smyth and family will board.

Mrs. Wallace Maslin has returned from a protracted visit to her son, Mr. Snowden Maslin, in Rock Hall.

Mrs. D. B. McMenamin and little sons have been visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore this week.

Quite a number of Chestertown folks attended the wedding of Miss Bessie Coale to Mr. Rudolph Tull in Baltimore last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Murch, of Philadelphia, were visitors in Chestertown last week. They were former residents of Chestertown and their many friends here were glad to see them again.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parris were given a splendid reception by the good people of Wesley Chapel upon their return to the parsonage last Friday evening from their wedding trip. Mrs. Parris was before marriage Miss Beck, of Norristown.

Mrs. Gaffney and little daughter, of the south, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burchinal at Hotel Imperial this week.

Mr. Harry Barnes, of Wilmington, Del., spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes, on High street.

Mr. Holt Eliason, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Eliason, near town.

We are glad to state that Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, who has been suffering with fever for some days, is very much improved.

WOULD STOP USE OF MONEY.

Congressman Smith's Proposition to Mr. William H. Jackson.

No Money to be Used in Wicomico County for the Purchase of Votes.

Apropos to the ever-live question of money used in political campaigns for other than legitimate campaign expenses, Congressman Thomas A. Smith, Democratic candidate for re-election from the First district, last night took a stand in alignment with the editorial in THE SUN Wednesday.

Incidentally, Mr. Smith "put it up to" his opponent, Mr. William H. Jackson, to extend to all counties the agreement existing in Wicomico county not to use money to corrupt voters.

A dispatch from Denton Wednesday says that Mr. Jackson declined to make a statement of his views or intentions.

In a dispatch from Wicomico reporting this agreement it was asked why, if bribery could be prevented in Wicomico, it could not be extended to all counties of the district.

Mr. Smith, who was at the Renert Weduesday night, in an interview deplored the use of money for corrupt purposes and declared himself as not only willing, but eager to "enter into any kind of an agreement with Mr. Jackson whereby no money shall be spent in the district except for legitimate campaign expenses."

"Why cannot each—Mr. Jackson and myself—pledge himself that he will not accept the office unless he is honestly elected without bribery?' If bribery can be prevented in Wicomico, it can be prevented in each of the other counties of the district. Will Mr. Smith and Mr. Jackson take advantage of the opportunity which presents itself to do a great public service?

"I should have proposed long ago to Mr. Jackson that no money be spent in the district other than for legitimate purposes of the campaign—I should have done this but for two reasons.

"First, that the platform of the convention which nominated me vigorously denounced the use of money to debauch the voters of our district, and I supposed that such an announcement was sufficient notice to the people of the district as to my position on that question.

"Second, being myself a man of moderate means, while Mr. Jackson is a wealthy man, I feared some overcritical persons might have misconstrued my motive.

"I agree that what is proper for Wicomico county is proper for every county in the district. I cannot understand why the agreement should not have been entered into in Wicomico county without some effort to extend it to all the counties of the district.

"Is it possible that Mr. Jackson willingly enters into agreement in his own county, where he may think his money cannot be spent to advantage, and intends to send his money to my county and other counties of the district, where he may think it can be used to better advantage?

"I think the people of Maryland, and particularly of the First Congressional District, which under ordinary circumstances is a Democratic district, understand that Mr. Jackson was nominated because of the amount of money he was able and might contribute to the campaign fund.

"I declare myself ready and willing to enter into any agreement with Mr. Jackson whereby no money shall be spent in any county in the district except for legitimate expenses of the campaign. This is only reaffirming the declaration of the platform upon which I was nominated."

THINK OF IT!

This Pretty Matron Had Headache and Backache, and Her Condition Was Serious.

PE-RU-NA CURED.

MRS. M. BRICKNER.

99 Eleventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

"A short time ago I found my condition very serious. I had headaches, pains in the back, and frequent dizzy spells which grew worse every month. I tried two remedies before Peruna, and was discouraged when I took the first dose, but my courage soon returned. In less than two months my health was restored."—Mrs. M. Brickner.

The reason of so many failures to cure cases similar to the above is the fact that diseases peculiar to the female sex are not commonly recognized as being caused by catarrh.

FEMALE TROUBLE NOT RECOGNIZED AS CATARRH.

Catarrh of one organ is exactly the same as catarrh of any other organ. What will cure catarrh of the head will also cure catarrh of the pelvic organs. Peruna cures these cases simply because it cures the catarrh.

If you have catarrh write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.
