An Ordinance to condemn and open Wright alley, Hamner alley and Burgar alley.

Whereas application has been made for the condemnation and opening of Wright alley, from Eden street to Canal street, and Hamner alley, from Eden street to Canal street, and Burgar alley, from Wright alley to Hamner alley, as contemplated to be opened between McElderry street and Jefferson street, and notice having been given of said application, as required by the Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, chapter 226, passed December session, 1838, entitled, "An Act to vest certain powers in the cor=poration of the city of Baltimore in relation to streets," and believing that the public convenience will be promoted thereby; therefore,

Section 1.— Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that the Commissioners for opening streets in the city of Baltimore be and they are hereby authorized and required, to condemn and open Hamner alley, beginning for the north side thereof on the east side of Canal street, at the distance of one hundred feet south of McElderry street, at the southwest corner of a two story brick house, and running thence easterly parallel with McElderry street, to the west side of Eden street, to the southeast corner of a two and a half story brick house, the south side of said alley to be ten feet distant from said north side, and running from the northwest corner of a two story brick house on Canal street to the north-east corner of a two and a half story brick house on Eden street; also, Wright alley, beginning for the south side thereof