Section 4. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Mayor and City Commissioner shall, and are hereby directed, that in contracting for the machine scows and low boat heretofore named in this Ordinance, to give the preference to the mechanics of the city of Baltimore

Section 5. And be it enacted and ordained, that the City Commissioner, by and with the consent of the Mayor, be and he is hereby authorised and directed to draw on the Register for the sum of Twenty-nine Thousand six hundred dollars ($29,600.00); to be taken out of the proceeds of the sale of the old City yard, as far as it will apply; and in case said proceeds shall not be in a form to be rendered immediately available, then the Register of the City, with the approbation of the Mayor, to use the credit of the city, in the shape of notes or otherwise, to be predicated upon the instalments for the sale of said property as they may fall due, and maturing at the same time; and the balance out of the annual appropriations for the harbor for 1857, or so much as may be acquired to carry out the provisions of this ordinance, as follows, viz: ten thousand two hundred and fifty dollars ($10,250.00) for steam dredging machine; six thousand six hundred dollars ($6,600.00) for six dumping scows, and twelve thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($12,750.00) for steam low boat

Section 6. And be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that the City Commissioner be and he is hereby authorized and directed to advertise in two or more of the daily papers having the largest circulation in the city of Baltimore, for two weeks for proposals to construct the machine scows and low boat as provide for