An ordinance supplementary to an ordinance No. 23, to regulate the Public Wharves in the City of Baltimore.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to land on McElderry's or Dugan's wharves, or at the head of McElderry's dock, fronting on Pratt street, any Fire Wood or Lumber, without the permission in writing of the Harbor Master from the District first had and obtained, under a penalty of twenty dollars ($20) for every load or part of a load of fire wood or lumber so landed.

Section 2. And be it enacted and ordained, that at no time shall more than one-third of the width of said wharves be occupied or used for the deposite of said fire wood or lumber, under a penalty of fifty cents (50) per cord on the wood, and one dollar ($1) per thousand feet on the lumber; and it shall not be lawful for fire wood or lumber to remain on said wharves more than twenty four hours from the time of landing, under a penalty of fifty cents per cord on the wood and one dollar per thousand feet on the lumber for the first offence, and a similar penalty for each subsequent day on which said wood or lumber shall remain on said wharves.

Section 3. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall be the duty of the Harbor Master to collect all the aforesaid penalties to be received in the usual manner; the penalty under the first
