be obtained, before an appeal shall be prosecuted upon any such suit, which approbation shall be in writing and filed in the cause.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted and ordained, That the Register be and he is hereby authorized to pay to any officer of the city any sum of money for costs incurred, and paid by such officer in any suit for a breach of any ordinance, when required by the Mayor.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted and ordained, That the Mayor be and he is hereby authorized to make any officer of the city an allowance, by way of compensation, for his trouble in enforcing the ordinances of the city, out of any fines or penalties which may be hereafter recovered and received, and the Register is hereby directed to pay the said allowance out of the said fines and penalties, and the Mayor shall annually lay before the City Council a statement of the amount so allowed by him to the several officers of the city.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted and ordained, That in all cases where money due or payable to the corporation, has been or shall be received by a Justice of the Peace or other officer, who shall neglect or refuse to pay over such money to the proper officer of the city, the Mayor shall take speedy measures to recover the same, and also make a representation of such conduct to the Grand Jury, or to the proper authority under which such officer may hold his appointment.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted and ordained, That in all cases of information, before any Justice of the Peace, for violations of any ordinance, where there shall be a judgment of non pros or non suit, the informer, and not this corporation, shall be liable for the costs of the prosecution.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted and ordained, That whenever any judgment which may be rendered by any Justice of the Peace, for any fine or penalty incurred by the violation of any ordinance, shall be superseded, it shall be the duty of the Jus-
