LOCAL MATTERS.

"Pennsy" Raises Wages.—At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, held on Wednesday, an increase of 10 per cent. in the wages of all permanent employes of the company now receiving less than $200 a month was ordered. The increase takes effect December 1, 1906, and applies to all lines of the company both east and west of Pittsburg.

Given Carbolic Acid Through Mistake.—Mr. James Hicks, of Galena, who has been suffering with an injured hand for some weeks, which injury threatened blood poison, was given carbolic acid through mistake on Sunday. Two bottles, one containing tincture of iron, and the other carbolic acid, were siting upon the bureau, and the acid was taken instead of the iron. Nineteen drops were given, and the young man has since suffered a great deal of pain. He was taken to a Baltimore Hospital on Wednesday, where he is receiving special treatment.

An Important Decision.—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the decision of Judge Burke in the case Charles C. Carmine against John W. Bowen, sustaining the right of Mr. Bowen to return to the farm which he had rented from Mr. Carmine and harvest crops which he had sown. The decision is an important one to farmers. The decision of the Court of Appeals finally disposes of the case. No case in recent years has attracted as much general attention in Baltimore county, as the question involved was a new one and affected in a large measure, the great body of tenant farmers throught the county.

Novel Plan to Lift Mortgage.—The members of Rock Hall M. E. Church have decided upon a novel way of raising the church debt. To-morrow (Sunday) has been chosen as the day upon which the entire congregation shall meet, report to the people present what the best day's revenue of the year was, and then donate that day's receipts. If all the friends and members of the church, it is claimed, live up to this agreement, the debt will be entirely wiped out. The people of this church are noted for their liberality, and they have a pastor, Bro. Burr, who knows how to raise money, and we venture the assertion that the debt will be raised in full.

Centreville Electric Light Company.—The incorporation of the Centreville Light, Heat and Power Company filed their charter with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne county last Saturday. The incorporators named are:—Wm. J. Peall, Mahlon Foster, of Wilmington, Del.; W. T. Wright, J. F. Rolph and P. T. Forman, of Centreville. The officers of the new company are: W. T. Peall, president; Walter T. Wright, vice-president; J. F. Rolph, secretary; and P. T. Forman, treasurer. It is said work on the plant will begin at once, and that the contracts for poles, crossarms and braces have been given out. Mr. Peall is in Wilmington superintending the shipment of supplies and securing the necessary labor for the erection of the plant.

Delightful Social Event.

One of the most delightful social events of the season was given by Miss Marguerite Skipper to a jolly party of her friends at her beautiful home, "Primrose Manor" on the Chester river. The hostess was daintly attired in white, and received her guests in the drawing room. Those present were: Misses Susie Dunbracco, Edith Dunbracco, Elizabeth Russell, Jessie Anthony, Estella Anthony, Fanny Anthony and Anna Smith; Messsrs. Rumsey Anthony, Earle Thomas, Carl Bordley, Arthur Skipper, Murrell Dunbracco, Townsend Anthony, David Connelly and George Phifer.

The party then had a treat to some good music and singing, and of course the girls and boys had to have a little "spin" around; after having a most delightful evening, the guests were ushered out to refreshments, which consisted of the choice dainties of the season. The room was gorgeously decorated with trimmings suspended from the arches, etc. The closing event of the evening was a romp on the lawn in the "moon-light," the girls and boys having a grand time. The happy and jolly party was then all packed in a wagon and driven to their respective homes, leaving "Primrose Manor" with all around good-byes to the charming hostess, and singing the old songs: "I won't get home 'till morning," etc. The party was accompanied home by the hostess, ending a most successful evening.

Misses Maud and Rose Duyer gave a delightful Hallowe'en party at their cozy home on Queen street. Misses Nettie Sutton, Maud Duyer, Avis Dodd and Inez Russell as "ghosts," received the guests. Refreshmeats were served from pumpkin "dishes." It was a jolly company and everyone enjoyed the evening's fun.

W. C. T U. Lectures.

Mrs. Helen L. Bullock, of the National W. C. T. U. Lecture Bureau, will speak at the following places:—Still Pond M. E. Church, Thursday evening, Nov. 15th; Kennedyville M. P. Church, Friday evening, Nov. 16th; Chestertown M. E. Church, Sunday, Nov. 18th, 10.30 A. M. Subject, "From Darkness to Dawn." Christ M. P. Church, Nov. 18th, 7.30 P. M. Subject, "Sowing and Reaping."

Mrs. Bullock comes with the highest recommendation from both pulpit and press as well as from the National W. C. T. U. W. T. Henry, D. D., pastor of First Baptist Church, Elmira, N. Y., her native town, says: "Her consecrated spirit will be felt wherever she goes. I most heartily commend her to all pastors and Christian Workers." N. Y. Tribune says: "Mrs. Bullock has lectured in every State in the union, never failing to interest her hearers." A press note from a Charleston, S. C., paper reads thus: "The subject of Mrs. Bullock's discourse was 'Sowing and Reaping,' which she handled with much skill and eloquence." While the president of the National W. C. T. U., Frances Willard, said: "I never heard a word of discount on her in any particular. She was a prize organizer in the competition of 1895, carrying off both prizes."

These lectures afford the public a rare intellectual treat, and the unions employing Mrs. Bullock ask that she be greeted with full houses.

OBITUARY.

WILLARD MELVIN.

Mr. Willard Melvin died at his home near Washington College, on Saturday evening last, after a lingering illness, of paralysis, aged 68 years. Mr. Melvin was born on the Melvin homestead in Morgnec, and was educated in the schools of his native county. In early life he identified himself with the Methodist Protestant Church in Kennedyville, of which for a long number of years his father was the leading member. Throughout his long life, his interest in the church never diminished, and until the fatal disease laid hold upon him he was in his place in the sanctuary at every service. After his removal to Chestertown, he became a member of Christ Methodist Protestant Church, where he was always a power for good in the early days of the church's history.

In public life, Mr. Melvin maintained that strict integrity which marked his church life, and he was a unique type of the kind of men which are all too few to-day. He was the same in the world of men, as he was in the church of God, and everywhere the verdict of his fellowmen was, "He was a good man." The deceased did not possess the faculty for financial success, though he lived in comfort, and by his lovable disposition and exemplary thought, he made his home an ideal one. But what he lacked in ability to amass a fortune, was more than equalled by his great sympathy and large heart. No man was ever more willing to assist in illness or to lighten the burdens of his fellowmen, than was Willard Milvin, and truly in more than one instance he was a father to the fatherless, and brightened many a sick room by his voice and smile.

The deceased had held several public offices, and in all he discharged his duties faithfully and well. But it was in the church that his usefulness was most felt. Blest with a sweet voice and gifted in prayer, his songs and his prayers in many instances have been the means of leading others to a better life, and we can ascribe to him no more fitting memorial than to say "Servant of God, well done."

He is survived by a widow, who was before marriage Miss Ellen Stam. He also leaves many other relatives in the county, among whom are his brothers, County School Superintendent, Milton Melvin, W. Fletcher Melvin, and two sisters, Mrs. W. S. Culp, of Chestertown, and Mrs. D. B. Stewart, of Baltimore.

Funeral services were held in Christ Methodist Protestant Church on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were Profs. J. R. Micou, J. S. W. Jones and E. J. Clarke, of Washington College, and Marion deK. Smith, Esq., Fred G. Usilton and J. D. Bacchus. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

ETHEL A. MEEKINS.

Ethel A., the eleven months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Meekins died at their home in Worton on Saturday evening of bronchitis. Funeral and interment took place at Union on Monday afternoon. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of arrangements.

The eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Cohen, of Sandy Bottom, died on Saturday. The remains were taken to Baltimore for burial.

TO THE VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY.

As a candidate for the Democartic nomination to the State Senate of Maryland in 1907, I desire as large a Democratic majority as possible for the Hon. Tohmas A. Smith for Congerss in 1906.

I have predicted that Kent will give Mr. Smith five hundred majority, but against such a candidate as Wm. H. Jackson, Mr. Smith should get a thousand majority at least.

I am prepared to debate before an audience composed of the backbone and voting strength of the Republican party, the colored people of Kent county, the proposition that since the death of Abraham Lincoln to the present day, the Republican party has never made a single sincere effort to protect or foster the interests of the colored race, but has all these years relied on the faithful support of the colored voters to keep that party in power and the Republican party has used and abused the franchire privilege and power resulting therefrom to pass laws of special privilege that have resulted in monstrosities like the Carnegie and Rockefeller accumulations of unearned wealth at the expense of the real producers of this nation's wealth.

This challenge to debate is especially directed to Mr. Wm. H. Jackson personally or to any Republican leader in Kent county from the party's most successful leader, the Hon. John David Urie, down.

Very respectfully,

CECIL R. ATKINSON,
