Sec. 13. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall be the duty of the Register to ascertain the amounts of all claims that may be made against the corporation, and which it is necessary should be ascertained as part of the duties of the late levy Court, which by the Act of 1826, chapter 217, were devolved on the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and report the same to the City Council in the second week of its annual session.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Register is authorized to draw on the State Treasurer for all monies accruing to the city by virtue of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the payment to the City of Baltimore of the Auction duties collected in said city, for the purposes of deepening and improving the Channel of the Chesapeake Bay and Patapsco river, below Fort Mc. Henry," passed at January session, 1853, chapter 266, and he shall on or before the first day of February, in each and every year, furnish to the Comptroller of the Treasury, a fair and distinct account of the disbursements in relation to the deepening and improvement of said channel.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Register shall keep his office in the same house with the Mayor, and shall attend there every day (Sundays excepted,) from nine O'clock in the morning to three in the afternoon unless prevented by sickness, or other unavoidable cause.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Register of the city shall annually furnish to the State Library three copies, and to the Library Company of the Baltimore bar, three copies of the City ordinances for that year.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Register shall receive for his services, the compensation of two thousand dollars per annum; and the
