Comptroller, as hereinbefore directed; and in said new general account the Comptroll=er is to charge the City Collector with all the taxes levied for the current year, as hereinbefore directed to be charged to the City Collector

Sec. 36. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall be the duty of the City Com=missioner, whenever he shall have contracted for the paving or re=paving of any of the streets, lanes or alleys of the city, under and by virtue of any ordinance of the Mayor and City Council, and have assessed the cost of the same, to return, in writing, to the Comptroller the amount of said assessment, with the name of the street, lane or alley so assessed, and it shall also be the duty of said Commissioner, to return in writing to the Comptroller the amount of assessment of all new pumps which he may from time to time have made and sunk in the city; and it shall be the duty of the Comptroller thereupon to charge the City Collector with the amount of said as=sessment of paving, re=paving and pump taxes, in an account to be opened by him for that purpose; and it shall be the further duty of said Comptroller to credit said Collector on said accounts for all money and payments he may re=ceive, from time to time, from said Collector, on account of said paving, re=paving pump taxes and assessments.

Sec. 37. And be it enacted and ordained, that if the Collector shall pay into the City Treasury monthly, all fees and commissions allowed by Acts of Assembly for collecting State Taxes, he shall receive, as a compensation for the duties that now are or hereafter may be required of him by the Laws of the State or ordinan=ces of the city, the yearly salary of two thousand dollars, and shall have full power and authority to appoint and remove at pleasure, eight assistant Collectors, at a salary of seven hundred dollars each, one Cashier at a salary of twelve hun=
