the proceedings of said Commissioners shall have been returned to the Register of the city it shall be the duty of said Commissioners to cause the same to be removed, and to draw upon the Re=gister for the expenses so incurred, which shall be by him paid; and the Mayor shall forthwith cause a suit to be instituted, against the person or persons by whose default the said obstruction has been suffered to remain, and the proceeds, when recovered, shall be paid to the Register for the use of the city.

Sec. 21. And be it enacted and ordained, that each Commissioner and the Clerk appointed and acting according to the provisions of this ordinance, shall be entitled to two dollars and fifty cents per day, for every day he shall be necessarily employed in performing the duties required of him in virtue of his appointment and of this ordinance, and the compensation of the Clerk shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the compensa=tion of a Commissioner; Provided, however, that the compensation of each Commiss=ioner and Clerk shall not exceed the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars in any one year, for work done and performed by them respectively, in that year, nor be rateably more than said sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum, as afore=said, for each or any part of a year; and the Register is hereby authorized and requi=red, whenever one-third of the amount of assessment for opening, closing, or widening any street, lane or alley, as aforesaid, shall have been by him received, to pay to the Commissioners, the Clerk, and other persons by them employed, the several sums of money due to them respectively, under the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 22. And be it enacted and ordained, that the said Commissioners shall make it a part of their return to the Register, to state the number of days made by them and their Clerk, respectively, on each street, lane or alley, in each year.

Sec. 23. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Commissioners for opening streets