An Ordinance to regulate the office of City Surveyor.

Whereas, by an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at January session, 1852, entitled "an Act to carry into effect the tenth section of the seventh Article of the Constitution, so far as relates to the Surveyor of the City of Baltimore," it is provided that the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, are authorized and required to prescribe, by ordinance, the duties and compensation of the City Surveyor, elected or appointed, pursuant to the tenth section of the seventh Article of the Constitution — therefore,

Sec. 1. Be it enacted and ordained, by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That, before entering upon the duties prescribed by this ordinance, the City Surveyor shall take the following oath or affirmation, before the Mayor of the City of Baltimore: — "I, A. B. do solemnly swear or affirm that I will, to the utmost of my ability, faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of City Surveyor, whenever called thereto, agreeably to the ordinance to regulate the office of City Surveyor."

Sec. 2. And be it enacted and ordained, That whenever the City Commissioner shall, in pursuance of the several duties required to be performed by him, under the provisions of the several ordinances of the City of Baltimore, entitled "an Ordinance to appoint a City Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner, and to prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation", and also an ordinance entitled "an Ordinance establishing a system for grading, paving, and re-paving the streets, lanes and alleys of the City of Baltimore," or of any other ordinance which may hereafter be passed, regulating the duties of said City Commissioner, require the services of a Surveyor, it shall be the duty of the said
