SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1906.

GOVERNOR WARFIELD has issued his proclamation designating Thursday next, November 29th, Thanksgiving Day.

THE more Uncle Bill Jackson says about that recent campaign joke of his the more ridiculous it becomes. He's in a hole and does not know how to crawl out.

THREE prominent citizens of Dorchester county have been indicted by the grand jury for that county now in session in Cambridge, for bribery in the recent election.

THE Baltimore Sun in an editorial on Tuesday indorsed Gov. Warfield for a renomination for Governor in 1907. The Baltimore Sun has the happy faculty of knowing a good thing when it sees it.

PLANS for raising $150,000 toward the erection of a new home for the Knights of Pythias in Baltimore were launched at a meeting in Baltimore Tuesday night. In addition to $150,000, which is to be raised among the membership exclusively, the proceeds from the sale of the present Castle, at Gay and Lexington streets, will be added. No site for the proposed new home has yet been discussed.

WHAT A PITY it is that there is no punishment for so heinous a crime as bribery in elections. So many people are now discussing the remedy for the evil, and not a few there are who see relief in the passage by the next Legislature of a stringent Corrupt Practices Act. What's the use of passing any more such laws? It would be far better to rigidly enforce the laws now on the statute books. It is not law we want, but the proper enforcement of law.

ACCORDING to the first official printed report on the membership of the 60th Congress, it shows a Republican majority of 58. The Republican membership is 222 and the Democratic membership is 164. The last House stood 247 Republicans and 136 Democrats. The Democratic gains are claimed as follows: Missouri, 6; Pennsylvania, 5; Illinois, 5; Ohio, 4; New Jersey, 4; Indiana: 3; New York, 2; Nebraska, 1; North Carolina, 1; Wisconsin, 1; Minnesota, 1, and Iowa, 1.

UNCLE BILL JACKSON'S denial of his use of money in the recent election is about as lame as his admission that money was used. We wonder if he thinks the people of the Eastern Shore are so foolish as to believe that the lieutenants he paid to perfect his grand organization and to help elect him with their distribution of "campaign literature" would contribute so much money as it required to elect him. Oh! no, Uncle Bill, you're in a hole, and don't know how to crawl out. Better get Secretary Bonaparte, the legalized boss, to help you out.

BRYAN is as good as elected, if Harry W. Walker, who has charge of the Bryan headquarters opened by the Commercial Travelers' Anti-Trust League, can be believed. Mr. Walker recently remarked in a casual, offhand manner: "We did not open Bryan headquarters in New York to work for the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the Presidency, because that would be quite unnecessary, seeing that Mr. Bryan's nomination and election are already assured. We opened headquarters for educational purposes simply—to explain Mr. Bryan's policies to the people, so that when he runs for President again his majority will be as large as possible."

The Sun in its New Building.

The Baltimore Sun last Friday occupied its handsome new building at the southwest corner of Baltimore and Charles streets. Since the great fire of 1904 the Sun has occupied temporary quarters at the southwest corner of Calvert and Saratoga streets.

The new building is three stories high and of striking architecture. It runs from Baltimore street to German, the counting-room and main entrance being on Baltimore street. Near the top of the building are two large clocks, one facing Baltimore and the other facing Charles street. Striking attachments will be installed to mark the hours, half and quarter hours.

The interior of the building is in keeping with the attractive exterior, and the equipment includes every mechanical device for the production of a modern daily.

MR. HURST spent $236,000 and more in the last campaign, but it was a small corruption fund compared to the size of Uncle Bill's bar'l, in view of the great difference in the number of voters affected. Mr. Hurst is now endeavoring to affect a complete organization of the Independence League all over the country in order to become a potent factor in national politics.

Attempt to Kill Pope Pius.

A bomb exploded by anarchists in St. Peter's Cathedral, in Rome, just at the conclusion of mass last Sunday caused a panic. The anarchists evidently intended to assassinate the Pope. No one was killed.

There is no doubt that anarchists intended an attempt upon the life of Pope Pius X.

The bomb had a long-time fuse and was hidden under scaffolding over the the tomb of Clement XIII, where it had been rumored the Pontiff would pray.

It was the first outrage of the kind ever perpetrated in the famous cathedral and causes widespread indignation.

Pontiff's first act upon being assured that no one had been killed or injured was to invoke mercy for the miscreant who committed the outrage.

Within an hour after the explosion the Pope, though pale and visibly affected, gave audience to more than 200 people.

No clue to the anarchists who fired the bomb has been discovered, so far as known.

Questions for School Officials.

The State Board of Education will meet in Annapolis on December 5th. A meeting of the County Superintendents of the State has also been called by state Superintendent M. B. Stephens to be held on the same date in the old Senate Chamber at Annapolis. The subjects to be discussed at the latter meeting are:

1. Institute Manual for 1907-08.
5. Possible combinations for Joint Institutes.
3. A new curriculum for rural schools.
4. A systematic plan for procuring Institute Instructors.
5. The 40th Annual Report of the State Board of Education.

On December 6th and 7th the Annual Meeting of the Association of School Commissioners and County Superintendents will convene at the Maryland State Normal School, Baltimore; the sessions begin at 10 A. M. each day. The topics to be discussd are the following:

1. What plan of Rural School Consolidation is Practicable? Paper by E. M. Noble, Denton.
2. Should the General Assembly Fix a Minimum Salary for First-class Elementary Teachers? Paper by H. R. Wallis, Annapolis.
3. To what extent should we introduce Agriculture in our Public Schools? Paper by Oscar B. Coblentz, Fredrick.
4. Shall the Public School Forces of Maryland lend their aid in Building the Proposed Auditorium at Ocean City? Paper by H. Crawford Bounds, Salisbury.
5. Sources of Public School Revenues in Maryland. Special Paper by Harry J. Hopkins, Annapolis.

People's Column.

☞The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT's columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT—Gentlemen:—We wish to state a few facts in regard to the roads and drainage through the village of Lynch's. The tyling are all stopped up, and the drainage between the tyles are filled up. The condition of the roads is low in the middle overflowing with water every rain we have. In the center of the villiage, from Thomas R. Toulson to the Miss Perkin's, ducks can swim from one side to the other 24 hours after it quits raining. Lynch's village is a fine place to raise ducks. This road is controlled by the county commissioners who have promised many times that the roads would be put in good condition, but up to the present time there has not been a shovel full of dirt thrown on this road. Are the citizens of Lynch's going to put up with this? "No!"

All we ask, the tyles and drainage between tyles cleaned out, and road put in fair condition as has been done at Worton, Melitota and Fairlee, the tyles have even been opened at Castletown which should have been. We don't enter this as a matter of complaint, but a matter of necessity. At the present rate of taxes you might suppose there might be a few dollars spent on this road. Ask Mr. J. B. Hosinger about the end of the same road now, and when he hauled tomatoes over it, would have to stop and strighten each basket after crossing the ditch. CITIZENS OF LYNCH'S.

DEAR SIRS—Do you not think the teachers in Kent county as a rule are underpaid? Every dollar they get above their present meagre pay would be of the greatest assistance to them. Is not our School Board able to advance our salaries a little? The indications are very pronounced that the Board desires to pay higher salaries. During the last three years they have advanced the salary of one of our teachers three different times. Why should one individual be singled out among us? Why not treat every one alike? Let the School Board give us a square deal. Is one so much more deserving than all the rest of us? The increase of this single teacher's salary if distributed among us all would give each of us nearly $10.00 more per annum. Gentleman of the School Board rise up to the emergency and make up your minds to give us a square deal.

FAIR PLAY.
