SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1906.

THERE will be no further surveying this winter by the working force of the Shellfish Comission. They have gone into winter quarters.

IN THE DEATH of Gen. L. Victor J. Baughman, Frederick county, and the State of Maryland, has lost a good citizen and an able lawyer and the Democratic party one of its foremost leaders. He has been prominent and influential in state affairs for many years and was at the time of his death an aspirant for gubernatorial honors.

What President Roosevelt Recommends.

President Roosevelt, in his annual message to Congress, recommends:

A graduated tax on inheritances, so as to reduce "swollen fortunes" and a graduated income tax.

Further extension of Federal power, so that the national Government may supervise all interstate corporation and their business.

A law to limit hours of work of rail road employes.

Compulsory arbitration of serious disputes between employers and employes, so as to prevent strikes.

That Japanese be put on the same basis as other foreingners and given the right of naturalization as American citizens.

Law to prohibit corporations from contributing to campaign funds.

That entire control over divorce and marrige laws be given the Federal Government.

Currency reform, though he does not commit himself to the bankers' plan.

Extension of employes' liability laws.

American citizenship for Portor Ricans.

Building of one battleship a year to maintain the navy at its present strength.

Free trade with the Philippines.

Drastic laws to prevent child labor.

That the Government be given right of appeal in criminal cases, as it "has now definitely begun a policy of restoring to the criminal law in those trust and interstate commerce cases where such a course offers a reasonable chance of success."

That courts be prohibited from setting aside judgments and granting new trials on technicalities where there has been no miscarriage of justice.

CHURCH NOTES.

The supper and festival given in Stam's Hall last Wednesday evening by the ladies of Christ M. P. Church was a grand success both socially and financially. The supper consisted of roast turkey, duck, roast pig, chicken, chicken salad, oysters in all styles, Maryland biscuits, Smithfield hams, pickles, jellies, etc. It was beautifully served.
