LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. Legg a Director.—J. H. C. Legg, Esq., of Centreville, has been elected a director of the Queen Anne's National Bank to succeed the late Louis L. Beatty.

Small Pox in Sandy Bottom.—A case of small pox and several cases of chicken pox have developed in Sandy Bottom. County Health Officer H. G. Simpers has diagnosed the case as has also State medical authorities. The case has been quarantened, and precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of the decease.

Increase in Box Rent.—On and after Jan. 1, 1907, by order of the Postoffice Department the rents for boxes in the Chestertown postoffice will be as follows:--Call boxes, 35c; Small locks, 60c; Medium locks, 75c; large locks, $1.00. This is quite an increase over the old rates. Box rents will be collected at the beginning of each quarter for the entire quarter.

Tolchester's Winter Schedule.—In another column in this paper will be found the winter schedule of the Tolchester Steamboat Company, which goes into effect after December 25th. Tuesday, boat leaves Tolchester at 3 P. M. Same day boat leaves Baltimore at 7 A. M. Saturday schedule, boat leaves Tolchester at 9 A. M. and 4.30 P. M. Read the change carefully.

Machinery Sold.—Mr. William Alvord, of Brooklyn, Md. has purchased the machinery and fixtures of the Overall plant and they have been removed to their distination. The committee in charge of the settlement of the affairs of the Company has about completed its work, and a distribution of the remaining funds among the Stockholders will be made shortly. There is a rare opportunity here for an overall plant. The building is ready, labor is plentiful, and there is every inducement for the right sort of man to make the factory a success. Who will be the man?

Dr. Lewis Returns.—Rev. Dr. Thos. H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, returned from his European tour about ten days ago. We regret to state that Dr. Lewis was not as much improved in health upon his return as his many friends hoped he would be, and, accompanied by his wife, he left last week for a trip to Jamaica. It has been reported that Dr. Lewis is being strongly mentioned as a candidate for the presidency of the Maryland Conference. We know it to be a fact that Dr. Lewis has positively refused to allow the use of his name in this connection, and will probably remain in Jamaica until the summer.

Wheat Stacks and Threshing Rig Destroyed.—The wheat stacks in one of the fields on Mr. Thomas Godwin's farm near Kennedyville, together with Mr. John H. Clendaniel's thresher and engine, were destroyed by fire on Saturday morning. Mr. Godwin had just finished threshing one field and had removed the rig to the other yard and gotten it set, when one of the wheat stacks was discovered on fire. Mr. Godwin lost about 500 bushels of wheat which was insured. Mr. Clendaniel's loss is heavy, and having met with so many accidents to his rig, he has the sympathy of his many friends in this another loss. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Bishop Charles C. McCabe died at the New York Hospital on Wednesday, as the result of a stroke of apoplexy which he sustained last Saturday. The deceased was one of the most prominent methodist divines in the country; was gifted in speech as well as in voice, and was a most ardent church worker. He presided at the last session of the Wilmington Conference in Smyrna, Del., and also presided at the session of the Delaware, colored, M. E. Conference which met in Janes M. E. Church here last spring. He will be a great loss to the church.

With Our Advertisers.

John Bartley, the carpet, wall paper and furniture man, has many articles of value that will make most excellent gifts for Christmas. Anything can be found there from a brass tack to a handsome suit of furniture or carpet, and it will pay you to inspect his stock.

Go to the Jewelery sale at the Levine store room. They are selling gold filled and silver watches and gold set rings at actual cost, less 5 per cent. We do this to save money and offer you an opportunity to make money. Davis & Smith Prop. see our add. in this paper.

Davis & Smith are not in the Jewelery Business, but they are selling it just the same. They are selling at COST PRICE the Levine stock. Go see them and pay cash and get a cash rebate of 5c on the dollar.

*†*Dressed turkeys are quoted at 20 cents per pound in the city markets. Butter and eggs have taken a slump, and there are still hopes for a few slices of Christmas cake.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*The thermometer registered 16° at eight o'clock on Wednesday morning. This is the coldest day of the year so far.

*†*Mr. Samuel S. Minner has secured a lucrative position with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and left for Newark last week.

*†*The schools of the town and county closed for the Christmas Holidays yesterday. They will reopen on Wednesday January 2, 1907.

*†*Dr. G. Allen Jarman and family have removed to the residence on High Street formerly occupied by Mrs. Alphonso Rasin.

*†*The Transcript office will be closed from Saturday afternoon to Wednesday morning, in order that the force may enjoy the Christmas Holidays.

*†*Wild ducks and geese are reported plentiful in the bay and river near Rock Hall. Several Chestertown gunners have bagged a number of wild fowl during the past week.

*†*Frank P. Anthony, of Queenstown, caught a peeler crab in Queenstown harbor one day last week. Something most unusual in these parts for this season of the year.

†'Twas the day after Christmas and all through the house, there wasn't a place to sit down; for look where you would, both husband and spouse, were moving from all parts of town.

*†*Somebody must have stuffed the Bentztown Bard full of pie, or else he is saving his crust for Christmas mincemeat. Come over, Old Bardy, on de Sho' and you'll see pie and mint julep too.

*†*Peanut growers have given notice that the price of this necessity will be higher next year. This means much smaller bags of peanuts for five cents and a probable general advance in all peanut products.

*†*Mr. Joseph Watson has removed to the J. W. Skirven farm near town, formerly occupied by Mr. Lewin U. Skirven. Mr. Frank Crow has removed from the Island to Miss Gertie Lusby's farm formerly tenanted by Mr. Watson.

*†*Our police force is to be highly commended for the determined effort it is making to break up petty thieving. There is too much of this kind of business going on, and the offenders will no doubt be handled severely when they are brought to justice.

*†*The Young men of the town will give their annual Christmas dance in Stam's Hall, on Thursday evening next, December 27th. Dancing at 8.30 P. M. The committee is Messrs. Eben F. Perkins, Harrison W. Vickers Jr., James G. Beck and Dr. Frank B. Hines.

*†*Capt. Ashley and Mate Akers made a raid on the tongers near Rock Hall last week which resulted in the arrest of sixteen for having unculled oysters on board. They were arraigned before magistrate Hersch and fined $11.00 and costs each.

*†*Patrons of the various rural routes throughout the County, should not overlook the mail man, who visits them daily, rain or shine, in making up their list of Christmas presents. Rememder them with a little token and help make theirs a happy and joyous Christmas.

*†*Contractor Walter T. Pippin, has completed the new School building at Edesville. The new school is thoroughly in keeping with Mr. Pippin's usual excellent workmanship, and is splendidly equipped througout. Capt. Columbus A. Leary has donated a splendid 250 pound bell for the school.

*†*The Baltimore Chesapeake Transportation Company, has just been incorporated to transact a general freighting and passenger business in the Chesapeake Bay and tributaries. The Company has purchased two steamboats in New York, which are being altered and fitted up for the service. Will the Company come tc Chestertown?

*†*Mr. J. Frank Crew, of Wilmington, and Mrs. A. S. Turner, of Worton, have erected a very handsome Red Swede Granite Monument to the memory of their mother in Still Pond Cemetery. The monument was purchased of Mr. A. L. Davidson, formerly of Chestertown, now of Wilmington. Mr. Kirby, successor to Mr. Davidson did the lettering and setting. Both are to be commended for their skill and workmanship.

*†*Joseph Brown, whose many thefts were reported in last week's TRANSCRIPT, was given a hearing before magistrate Hicks on Saturday evening. Harrison W. Vickers, Jr. Esq., who appeared for Brown, made a strong plea for the release of the accused, but the magistrate held Brown for court, owing to the preponderance of evidence. Officer Hudson, who was largely instrumental in the arrest of Brown, states that he is determined to keep a close watch on all such offenders and bring them to speedy justice.

*†*The Still Pond Farmers Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill last Thursday. Among those present were:—Mr. and Mrs. James S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Rasin, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Jones, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Harper, Mrs. Harry Price, Mr. H. J. Hill, Mrs. D. W. Hill, Messrs. Harry Jones, Louis Price, J. E. Jarrell and L. J. Usilton. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. T. Shafer in January.

*†*Messrs. Stavely & Bowers the wellknown Contractors and Builders of Lynch, have had a most successful year. They have been compelled to turn away many contracts, and state that their contracts for the coming year are large and promising. Success to you, gentlemen.

Mr. Price Stanley a popular young man of our town, and Miss Lizzie Jewell, of near Tolchester, were married last Thursday. They will reside in Delaware city, where the groom has a position. Congratulations.

Mrs. W. D. Pennington, who has been quite sick at her home near here, is, we are glad to state, improving.

In Memoriam.

What grief and pain she suffered here,
None of us will ever know,
For Jesus took her home with Him
Where no tears will ever flow.

Her weary hands are folded,
Her toil on earth is done;
Her troubles are all ended,
Her heavenly crown is won.
Gone but not forgotten.

BY MRS. ADOLPHUS DAVIS.

Miss Mattie E. Cain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cain, of Kennedyville, died last Monday evening, Dec. 10th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Holden, near Millington, aged 19 years. The deceased was one of the most popular and attractive young ladies of Kent. She was a particularly bright and promising young lady, and had a host of friends who mourn her loss. To know her was to love her. The lovable character and the many good traits of the deceased were beautifully alluded to by her many friends while sick. The remains were intered in Kennedyville cemetery. Undertaker John L. Smith, of Millington had charge of the funeral arrangements.

CAIN.—In loving but sad remembrance of our dear beloved Mattie.

She is safe at home with Jesus now,
The Friend she loved so well;
The glories of the land unseen,
No mortal tongue can tell.

With friends and loved ones gone before,
She walks the streets of gold,
Until we meet in heaven above.
We will bear the grief untold.

Once our home was bright and happy;
Oh, how sad and drear to-day,
For our dear and loving Mattie
Has forever passed away.

BY MR. AND MRS. HOLDEN.

Farewell, farewell, Mattie, dear,
We spent two sad and lonely days,
You left us with an aching heart
The day that you and we did part.

She's gone, but was so young and fair;
Her slumbers sweet, but knows no care;
Her heart was true, her life was young,
Yet not our will, but God's be done.

BY MOTHER AND SISTERS.

NOW for the final scramble

We have been living in an atmosphere of Christmas for some weeks. The interest in our display has been unusual, because we have an unusual display.

ABOUT 20,000 PEAH TREES

TO BE DISPOSED OF.

The buds were selected from the best strains of each variety, which were sent out from the Nicholson nurseries 25 to 30 years ago, and many of these orchards were more healthy and vigorous the past season than quite a few orchards 5 and 6 years old. These trees have been inspected by authority from the State Entomologist, Prof. Symons, and found entirely free from any root disease, San Jose Scale, or other insects. Orders will be promptly attended to.
