OBITUARY.

REV. CHRISTOPHER T. DENROCHE.

Rev. Christopher T. Denroche, the beloved ex-rector of St. Paul's and I. U. parishes, died at the Harrison Memorial Home of the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia, on Sunday evening, aged 72 years. Mr. Denroche had been in poor health for some months, and recently resigned the charge above mentioned to accept lighter work in the parish of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Chesapeake City. His health gradually became more impaired, until he was compelled to relinquish his work at Chesapeake City, and endeavored to find relief in the hospital. The deceased was a native of Canada, and was educated in London, England. He had filled charges in Porto Rico, and in Texas, but about 15 years ago he accepted the rectorship of St. Paul's and I. U. parishes, succeeding the Rev. Mr. Munford. To those who lived under his ministry he endeared himself in the bonds of sweetest affection. He visited the sick, assisted the poor, and was a man whose heart and purse were always open to the needs of the distressed. A more genial disposition, it has seldom been our pleasure to know, and a more scholarly gentleman and real friend never lived than Rev. C. T. Denroche. During his rectorship in this county he became identified with all of its interests, and was instrumental in the inception of many enterprises that enhanced the social and religious life of this community. He was dearly loved by his parishoners, being a man of great sympathy and devotion to the interests of those who lived under his ministry. It was with much regret that his friends learned of the necessity for him to sever his relations with his former parish, and when the news of his death reached the county, it cast a gloom in many households where he had so frequently visited and ministered. Mr. Denroche occupied a conspicuous place in the councils of his church. Possessed of a profound knowledge of the scriptures and thoroughly alive to all the needs of the church, his ministry at St. Paul's and I. U. was productive of great good, and his learning in the councils of the church was admired and of much usefulness. At the time of his death he was dean of the Northern Convocation, and he had held other positions of honor among his fellow clergymen.

He is survived by one son and three daughters. His remains were brought to Chestertown on Monday where they lay in state in Emmanuel P. E. Church parish house whence they were conveyed to St. Paul's for interment on Wednesday morning. Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin, of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. S. N. S. Gray, the deceased's successor at St. Paul's, and Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, of Port Deposit. Thus where the dead clergyman had labored so faithfully for many years were his remains laid to rest beside his wife, where the lindens and cedars will sing a sweet requiem for the soul that is surely at peace in the Heaven of rest. Members of the vestry of St. Paul's and I. U. acted as pall bearers. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. MILLIE MINTA COPPER.

Mrs. Millie Minta Copper, widow of the late Joshua Copper, died at the home of her son, Mr. Jesse H. Copper, near Kennedyville, on Wednesday evening, of general debility, aged 86 years. The deceased was one of our oldest and most highly respected residents. Being of a somewhat retiring disposition, she made her home her castle, and yet those who knew her intimately, loved her for her many noble and beautiful traits of character. For a long number of years, she, with her husband, superintended the affairs at the county Almshouse, but since the death of her husband, she had made her home with her son. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Startt, of Baltimore, Mrs. Crew, of Sparrows Point, Mrs. James H. Weer, of Kennedyville, Miss Ellen Copper, and three sons, ex-County Treasurer, Jesse H. Copper, W. Bradford Copper, Cashier of the Second National Bank, of Chestertown, and Mr. Samuel Copper, a prominent merchant, of Savannah, Ga. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at two o'clock from her son's residence, near Kennedyville, conducted by Rev. W. L. White, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church. Interment was made in Chester Cemetery. The pall bearers were her three sons and three grandsons. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

WILLIAM PENNINGTON.

Mr. William Pennington, a well-known citizen of this county, and brother of Mr. J. Thomas Pennington, of Galena, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Coppage, in Rock Hall, on Sunday, of general debility, aged about 77 years. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning and interment was made in Shrewsbury cemetery.

Mr. Frank Watts died at his home in Cecil county this week. The deceased was a brother of Prof. Rowland Watts, and was formerly a student of Washington College.

CHURCH NOTES.

Mr. Geo. Y. Tibbitts, National Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., spent Sunday in Chestertown, and delivered splendid addresses in the Chestertown M. E. and Christ M. P. Churches. Mr. Tibbitts is a power for good in the association that is doing so much for the uplifting of young men.

Rev. W. M. Dauerty preached at Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, last Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock.

A fine musical programme of Christmas carols and anthems by the choir was rendered in the M. E. Church last Sunday evening under the direction of Dr. A. Sagar Hall.

Rev. William Hammond, a prominent minister of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, and well-known in Cecil and Kent counties, is critically ill at the home of his son in Wilmington, and grave fears are entertained for his recovery.

Rev. E. H. Dashiell, pastor of North East M. E. Church, and well-known throughout the peninsula, is dangerously ill with pneumonia at his home in that town.

Christmas carols will be sung by Christ M. P. Sunday school to-morrow (Sunday) evening. The annual Christmas treat will be held in the lecture room of the church on Tuesday evening.

Christ. Meth. Prot. Church. Testimony Meeting at 9.30 A. M. Public Worship at 10.30 A. M. "A Christmas Afterthought; a New Year Forethought." At 7.30 P. M. The Christmas Choral Service of the Children.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the Christmas treat and entertainment at St. James M. P. Church was postponed from Thursday evening to Monday evening next, Dec. 31.

Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, held its annual Christmas treat and entertainment in the Parish House on Thursday evening. The Chestertown M. E. Sunday School held its treat the same evening.

Wedding Bells.

ANTHONY—MEREDITH.

A pretty wedding took place on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll F. Leverage, near Church Hill, when Miss Gertrude Belle Meredith, daughter of ex-sheriff and Mrs. James E. Meredith, became the bride of Mr. Mark Elmer Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anthony, near Chester bridge. The home was decorated with holly and evergreen. From an arch suspended double hearts, beneath which the ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Poole, of Church Hill. Miss Grace Anthony Jester played the wedding march from Lohengrin. Miss Nora Adelia Cosden, of Centreville, was maid of honor, and Mr. Rumsey Edwin Anthony, was best man. The bride wore brown silk with Persian trimmings and carried holly. The maid of honor wore steel gray cloth with applique trimmings. After the wedding a reception was served. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony will reside near Chestertown.

MALLALIEU—SHEPPARD.

Miss Adaline Elizabeth Sheppard, daughter of Mrs. Emma Sheppard, of Crumpton, was married at the home of the bride, Crumpton, on Wednesday to Mr. William T. Mallalieu, of Millington. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard Adams, of Pocomoke City, an uncle of the bride. During the ceremony Miss Ethel Clements, of Crumpton, rendered "O, Promise Me." The bride's gown was of white silk, a la princesse, trimmed with lace. Mr. and Mrs. Mallalieu left on the afternoon train after a wedding breakfast for a northern tour. They will be at home after January 10, at Millington, where the groom is engaged in business.

EASTER—WILLIS.

Miss Emily Harrison, daughter of Mrs. E. S. Willis, of St. Michaels, and a relative of Mr. Thomas J. Willis, of Kent county, was married at 6.30 P. M. on Christmas day to Mr. Arthur K. Easter. The ceremony was performed in Christ Church, St. Michaels, where the bride was organist for a number of years. The bride is well-known in Chestertown and Kent county.

WILLIAMS—NICKERSON.

Mr. George S. Williams and Miss Clara J. Nickerson, both of Cecil county, were married on Christmas evening at 6.30 o'clock at the M. E. parsonage by the pastor, Rev. W. L. White. The couple drove to town from Worton, where the bride had been visiting friends. They will reside in Cecilton, Cecil county.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Features of the next Commencement—Senior Orations—The New Administration Building.

Dr. James W. Cain, president of Washington College, in his address to the student body at the close of the exercises last Friday morning stated that it is proposed to celebrate the 125th anniversary of the founding of Washington College during commencement week in June next. It will be remembered, and Dr. Cain so stated in his address, that Rev. Dr. Smith, the founder of Washington College, was also the founder of the University of Pennsylvania, and Dr. Cain stated that he had assurances from Provost Harrison, the present head of the Unniversity that he will be present on the occasion of the anniversary. Dr. Cain said that it is proposed to invite a representative from every college in the State that is older than Washington College, and there are not more than six in the entire United States. Other distinguished educators and men will be invited and the anniversary, which will take place in the new administration building, will be one of the most elaborate features of the commencement exercises.

Owing to the fact that the Collegiate Senior Class is so large this year, a committee of the faculty composed of Prof. E. J. Clarke, Dr. Gault and Prof. Neilson was appointed to select four students to deliver the Orations before the students last Friday morning. The four men selected by the committee in the order of merit were:—Messrs. Davis, Goslee, Morris and Long. The Senior Class this year numbers ten. They are as follows with the subject of their theses.

Davis, Street, Md. Christianity, the Conservative Element.

Morris, Princess Anne, Peace, America's Mission.

Brittingham, Christianity's Influence.

Goslee, Salisbury, Md., Reflective View of Civilization.

Wheatley, Chestertown, Politicial Awakening.

Truitt, Wealth, the danger of our Nation.

Gill, Washington, D. C., The Burden of the South.

Nicholson, Chestertown, America and the Negro.

Long, Allen, Md., A plea for Temperance.

Sutton, Worton, Md., The uses of Wealth.

Work upon the new administration building is progressing rapidly. The roof is ready for slating, and as soon as the radiators are adjusted the plasterers will be able to begin plastering. Contractors Culp will have the building ready for the June Commencement.

Dr. Gault spent the Christmas recess at his home in Ohio. Profs. Seronde and Mahoney were also at home during Christmas.

Prof. Seronde, professor of modern languages at Washington College, who is spending his Christmas vacation at his home in Connecticut, will represent the college at the All-American Collegiate Athletic Congress to be held in New York during the holidays. This meeting is the result of the agitation in foot ball reform started last year. The game will again be discussed and the effect of the new rules will be thoroughly ventilated. Washington College was asked to send a representative, and she was fortunate in having a member in the vicinity of the meeting place. Prof. Seronde is somewhat of an athlete himself, being a prominent candidate for the track team when at Yale, so he will ably represent W. C. at the great inter-collegiate meet.

The following are the officers of Chestertown Council 177, Jr. O. U. A. M.: Councilor, S. J. Hicker; vice-councilor, J. A. Kennard; recording secretary, J. A. Russell; assistant recording secretary, G. V. Byron; financial secretary, George H. Burk; treasurer, John W. Hirons; warden, John W. Barnes; conductor, Romie Harris; inside sentinel, Graham Nelson; outside sentinel. J. L. Hendrix; Jr. P. C., G. W. Chambers; chaplain, Perkins Rolph; rep. to State Council, S. J. Coleman; alternate, W. A. Burk; trustees, W. F. Malir, A. L. Pope, W. H. Lambert, J. W. Barnes, S. J. Coleman.
