PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

PHILADELPHIA, BALTIMORE & WASHINGTON RAILROAD COMPANY.

—NOTICE—

To Shippers of Perishable Freight Located on the Line of the Delaware Division, P., B. & W. R. R.

In pursuance of the policy inaugurated last season, the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington R. R. Co. will, so far as it may have equipment available for that purpose, furnish to shippers of perishable freight on the Delaware Division dry refrigerator cars during the season of 1907.

The icing of these dry refrigerator cars at initial point is to be performed by the shipper, and at his expense, and the Railroad Company will upon the written request of the shipper, and at the regular charge therefor, to be paid by the latter, re-ice the cars enroute at any of Company's regular icing stations.

Requests for these cars must be made by shippers upon the agent at shipping station a reasonable time in advance of their use, and shippers will understand that the icing of the cars at initial point must be done by them in a thorough and efficient manner, so as to carry the cars in proper condition to the first icing station, and that the railroad company will not be responsible for the refrigeration of the fruit or vegetable transported in such cars, other than to the extent of re-icing the same as directed or when directed, as hereinbefore stated.

By reason of the fact that the Railroad Company will furnish dry refrigerator cars as above, it is doubtful whether the private car lines will undertake to furnish refrigeration in individual cars, and this subject is brought to the attention of shippers at this early date with a view of giving them ample time to provide for an ice supply to be used in connection with the dry refrigerator cars next season.

It should, however, be understood that, in case any shipper shall make arrangements with the private refrigerator lines for the use of the equipment of such lines, the Railroad Company will handle such equipment over its lines in the same manner as it will handle its own equipment.

CHAS. E. KINGSTON, Division Freight Agent. E. F. BROOKS, Gen'l Supt.

GEORGE M. E. GLENN.

Peninsula Horticultural Society.

The 20th annual meeting of the Peninsula Horticultural Society, representing Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, convened at Dover on Tuesday. The report of the treasurer, Wesley Webb, showed a balance in hand at the close of last year of $791.52, which, with the appropriation of $500 each from Maryland and Delaware, made a total of $1,791.52. The expenses during the year amounted to $917.49, leaving a balance of $874.03.

Mr. Jas. S. Harris, of Kent county, was made chairman of the committee on exhibits. Previous to the afternoon session on Tuesday there was an exhibit of apples, pears and corn, which was one of the most elaborate ever shown by the society.

USEFUL HINTS BY SPEARKERS.

For Apples—Spray trees in order to get good wholesome fruit.

Roman Beauty, Green Golden and Johnson recommended as best winter keeping apples.

Plant trees in fall rather than in spring.

Trees should be well set and do as little pruning as possible.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY MEETING.

Raising of small fruits can be made as profitable as some of the larger things raised on the farm.

The keiffer pear is destined to become one of the most profitable crops grown.

Spraying has accomplished much good during 1905 and 1906.

The meetings have been very largely attended and much profitable discussion resulted. The sessions closed on Thursday evening.

W. F. Allen, of Salisbury, was elected president, and Salisbury was chosen the next metting place.

Wedding Bells.

BRADLEY—BECK.

Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding at high noon on Wednesday, the contracting parties being Miss Sara Elizabeth Beck, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Beck, and Mr. J. Arthur Bradley, son of Mr. James S. Bradley, of Chestertown. The church was decorated with Christmas evergreen and holly, and altar candles shed soft light which added much to the pretty scene. Promptly at the appointed hour, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Mary Roberts, sister of the bride, the bridal party entered the church in the following order: the ushers, Messrs. Thomas W. Perkins, Thomas Massey, Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., S. Scott Beck, of Chestertown, Mr. Peverly, of Middletown, and Mr. Nayler, of Baltimore, wearing frock coats, gray trousers, white vests, steel scarfs and gloves, and carrying high hats; the maid of honor, Miss Isabelle Beck, sister of the bride, attired in a beautiful princesse gown of white lace over white silk, with a picture hat, with large plumes, and carrying pink carnations; the flower girl, little Miss Ellen Beck, niece of the bride, daintly dressed in white and carrying a basket of red roses, and the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, State's Attorney Wm. W. Beck, by whom she was given in marriage, attired in a superb gown of white crepe de chine, with tulle veil and diamond ornaments. She carried a huge bouquet of bride roses. The bride was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. Frank B. Hines. In the presence of a large and brilliant audience the happy couple were pronounced man and wife by the rector, Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin. Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother on Maple avenue at which besides the bridal party, only the immediate families and a few intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley left on the afternoon train for a honeymoon tour of the South. They will be at home in their handsomely furnished apartments in the residence on Front street owned by Mrs. Mary Brown, after Jan. 25th. They were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, Miss Alva Patterson, of Baltimore; Miss Harvey, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Sarah Penning, of Havre de Grace, Mrs. Arianna Davis, Mrs. Joseph W. Thompson and daughters, Miss Jesephine, and Mrs. Warbutton, of Philadelphia, and Miss Florence Beck, of St. Louis. The bride's going-away gown was black broadcloth with white lingetie waist.

ATKINSON—NEAL.

On Wednesday, Dec. 26, at 7.30 o'clock, in the parlor of Calvary M. E. parsonage, Sudlersville, Mr. C. H. Atkinson, and Miss Sarah Anna Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Britton E. Neal, of near Millington, were united in holy wedlock by the pastor, Rev. W. O. Bennett.

ROBINSON—HUNTER.

Miss Zada A. Hunter, a former teacher of Unicorn Mills, near Millington, and Mr. Lacy A. Robinson were married on Thursday afternoon at St. Paul's P. E. Church, Hillsboro. They will reside near Ridgely, Caroline county, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Rev. Ira Hicks on the Weather.

Rev. Ira R. Hicks' storm and weather forecasts for this month call for a regular storm period from the 3rd to the 8th, with rain, sleet and snow, for the 4th, 5th and 6th, to culminate on the latter date, to be followed by a full grown cold wave, which will extend dangerously far into the South and East, progressing from the Northwest lasting until the 12th. A reactionary storm period is then due, when he predicts high winter gales, rains in the South and snowstorms, blizzards and blockades, northward, which he thinks must almost necessarily be followed within a period of six or seven days by seismic disturbances. Another storm period will then develop from the 16th to the 20th, followed by gales and a cold wave touching most parts by the 20th and 21st. This will be followed by a reactionary storm period extending to the 24th, followed by cold weather until the 26th. Another regular storm period is then laid down to extend from the 29th to the 31st having its center on the 28th. On the 29th the moon will be full and in eclipse. Mr. Hicks says to be on the lookout for blizzards, blockades and a cold wave during the last five days of the month.

*†*The residence on High street formerly occupied by Mr. John C. Davis and family is being improved by an appropriate coat of paint.

A TERRIBLE MISTAKE.

Miss Cora Hynson, Formerly of this Town but Recently of Baltimore, Took Fatal Drug Through Mistake.

Because of a mistake in swallowing oxalic acid for phosphate of soda, Miss Cora Hynson, formerly of Chestertown, but more recently forelady at the Marburg branch of the American Tobacco Company, died in agony from its effects at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. Harry Barron, 417 North Carrollton avenue, Baltimore, at 5 P. M., on Saturday last. When Miss Hynson arose she complained of feeling slightly ill. Thinking that the phosphate of soda would relieve her, as she had been in the habit of taking it for indigestion, she entered the dining room to get it. In the cupboard were two boxes, one containing the soda and the other oxalic acid. Except for a written label on the top the boxes were exactly alike. She reached for one, and pouring some of the stuff into a tumbler half full of hot water swallowed it. Instantly she realized her mistake. Hearing the agonizing screams of her daughter, Mrs. Mary F. Hynson, the mother, who was upstairs, rushed to her daughter's aid. Dr. Saxton, who was summoned, applied the stomach pump. Although suffering intense agony, Miss Hynson was conscious until she died. It was at first thought that Miss Hynson would recover, but as the afternoon wore on she began to grow steadily worse. Just before death came she spoke to her mother, who was by her side saying, "Look, mother, my fingers are becoming black. I am dying." Miss Hynson bought the ozalic acid sometime ago with which to clean hats. The news of the sad death caused a great shock to her many friends here, where she lived and grew to womanhood. Her mother has the great sympathy of the entire community, whose life has been filled with sudden and sad bereavement, whose loved ones have been snatched from her without scarely a moment's warning. The remains were brought to Chestertown on Tuesday evening on the steamer Ford, and conveyed to the Methodist Episcopal Church, by Undertaker John N. Dodd, where funeral services were conducted on Wednesday morning by Rev. W. L. White. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. M. A. Toulson, Wm. H. Lambert, Chas. L. Dodd, Fred G. Usilton, W. U. Lusby and Owen B. Crow. Besides her mother the deceased is survived by one sister Mrs. Tomacy B. Barron, with whom she made her home in Baltimore.

A Fine Showing.

The stockholders of the Second National Bank of Chestertown held a meeting on Tuesday and elected the following directors for the ensuing year: James A. Pearce, Hope H. Barroll, Wilbur W. Hubbard, Harrison W. Vickers, Adam F. Huey, Garrett Foxwell, T. B. Durding, D. Thomas Hurlock and W. B. Copper. The directors at their meeting on Wednesday declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent. ($1500), clear of taxes, and carried $5000 to the surplus fund. The undivided profit account of this bank in July last was $9599.25. The bank has made, clear of all expenses, during the past six months $5564.52. By declaring a dividend of $1500 and taking $1000 from the undivided profit account, they were enabled to carry $5000 to the surplus fund, and leave an undivided profit account of $8663.81. The bank now has a surplus fund of $30,000, and the above handsome showing is the best the bank has ever made. This bank has none of the county funds on deposit now, and yet we are told that their deposits are in excess of any statement they have ever made at this season.

Bombarded Preacher's Home With Eggs.

The Wilmington Every Evening of Wednesday contained the following:

"The bombarding of a minister's house with eggs, both fresh and ancient, because of a rebuke administered by the pastor to two unruly men who were inclined to disturb public worship is creating some excitement at Milton.

Rev. Ralph T. Coursey, pastor of the M. E. Church there, reprimanded two young men who were among his congregation, Monday evening, while a revival was in progress. The young men left the church evidently much embarrassed by the public rebuke.

"Little attention was paid to the matter until late in the evening, when the pastor and his family were at home, they were amazed at the egg bombardment.

"An investigation is being made and trouble will likely follow if the guilty parties are detected.

OBITUARY.

MR. HART B. HOLTON.

Mr. Hart B. Holton, wellknown horseman, formerly member of Congress from the Fifth District and once a candidate for Governor, on the Republican ticket, died at 6.25 A. M. on Friday last at his country home in Baltimore county. Mr. Holton had been in poor health for some time past and in the early part of December he became critically ill. The deceased was born near Elkton, Cecil county in 1835. He was one of the best known horsemen in the country.

MRS. H. P. MERRITT.

Mrs. H. P. Merritt widow of the late Rev. J. B. Merritt, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Archer Hepbron, 146 N. Collington ave., Baltimore, on Thursday evening of this week of a complication of diseases, aged 74 years. Remains will be brought by train to Kennedyville on Monday morning and interment will take place at Shrewsbury at 11 o'clock, Rev. T. S. Holt, of Still Pond, officiating. Undrtaker Wm. H. Krusen will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. CATHARINE E. BROWN.

Mrs. Catherine E. Brown, widow of the late Dr. A. J. Brown, and sister of the late James P. and Barney DeCorse, of Kent county, died at the home of her son, Dr. A. J. Brown, in Waverly, Baltimore county, on Monday, in the 83rd year of her age. The deceased was a lovely character, and her life was spent in helping others. She was very well-known in Kent, and was an aunt of Mrs. Thomas D. France, and related to Messrs. James. T. and James P. Decorse, of Kent. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Wm. A. Leach, a son, Dr. A. J. Brown, and several grandchildren.

MRS. MARY E. KINZER.

Mrs. Mary E. Kinzer, beloved wife of Rev. J. D. Kinzer, a former president of the Maryland Annual Conference M. P. Church, died at 9 o'clock on Wednesday at her home 1524 E. Biddle street, Baltimore, after a long illness. Mrs. Kinzer was before marriage a Miss Sparks, of this county, and was a woman of beautiful character. She was known throughout the Maryland Conference for her sweet disposition and active work in the church, and wherever she lived she was popular and much loved by the community. Funeral services will be held from her late residence this afternoon. Interment at Westminster.

MR. JAMES B. RICAUD.

Mr. James B. Ricaud, a wellknown former resident of Worton, Kent county, died at the Church Home and Infirmary, Baltimore, after an illness of three weeks, aged 55 years. The deceased was a native of Kent county but for the past 26 years had made his home in Baltimore. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Annie E. S. Ricaud, and three sisters—Mrs. R. M. Francis, Mrs. Frederick B. Gemmill and Mrs. Robert W. Owens. Funeral services were conducted on Monday evening at the home in Baltimore, by Rev. John G. Murray, of St. Michael and All Angels' Church, assisted by Rev. D. P. Allison. The remains were brought to Tolchester on Tuesday morning and conveyed to St. Paul's cemetery for interment. The services were conducted at the grave by the rector, Rev. S. N. S. Gray. Undertaker John N. Dodd.

DR. JAMES C. DIRICKSON.

Dr. James C. Dirickson, a prominent resident of Worcester county and wellknown in Kent, died at his home in Berlin last Friday morning. In the beginning of his professional life Dr. Dirickson was with the Walker expidition at Nicaragua, having been detained as a surgeon as he passed through the peninsula. He was appointed by President Buchanan as consul to the Navigator Island, where he remained several years. He was a physician of much prominence. In 1865 he married Miss Eliza Blackston Cummings, by whom he has a surviving daughter. He was an ardent democrat, ard was an elector at Clevelands first election. Dr. Dirickson's wife owns the farm near Kennedyville tenanted by Mr. Jesse H. Copper, which the deceased managed. He had frequently visited Kent county, as the guest of Mr. Copper.

MRS. ALICE NAOMIE WARREN.

Mrs. Alice Naomie Warren, wife of Mr. F. Burton Warren, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kendall, of Fairlee, died on Tuesday morning. The deceased was an exemplary christian, and a consistent member of Salem M. E. Church, having united therewith when 12 years of age. She was popular with a large circle of friends, and her sad death, being only 21 years of age, is much regretted by those who loved her and knew her well. She is survived by her husband and little son, 14 months old. Funeral services were held from the residence of her parents, in Fairlee, on Thurday morning at eleven o'clock, conducted by her former pastor, Rev. W. C. Poole, of Church Hill, assited by Rev. W. E. Habbart, of Kenton, and her present pastor, Rev. J. K. Easley. Interment in St. Paul's cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Wm. G. Smythe, Dr. Frank Smith, T B. Kilbourn, Mahlon P. Lee, Herman Bramble and T. H. M. Bramble. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of funeral arrangements.
