Two grades.

3.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That the Commissioners be, and they are hereby authorized, in case they may deem it necessary, to establish two grades of Public Schools in such proportions as they in their opinions may deem best to subserve the public interest.

Books.

4.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That it shall be the duty of the Commissioners to furnish all necessary books and stationery for the pupils of the several schools, to be paid for from the Public School funds, and each pupil admitted to the school shall pay in advance a sum not exceeding one dollar per quarter, and the same advance payment for each quarter shall be required during their continuance in school, unless exempted therefrom by the Board of Commissioners.

Tuition one dollar per quarter.

Drafts on the Register.

5.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That the draft of the President of the Board of Commissioners countersigned by the Mayor, shall be sufficient authority for the Register of the City to pay any sum in the treasury that may be standing at the credit of the Public School fund.

Register to draw for money.

6.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That the Register of the City shall draw on the Treasurer of the Western Shore of Maryland, from the Commissioners of Finance and from the Collector of the City, such sum or sums as may be in their hands for the support of Public Schools, and place them to the credit of the Public School fund.

Commissioners to build or rent.

7.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That the Commissioners may, at their discretion, whenever they shall deem it expedient for the benefit of the schools, and have sufficient funds in hand, either build or rent suitable apartments for the accommodation of said schools.

Repeal.

8.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That so much of the ordinances and supplement passed, as is inconsistent with the provisions of this supplement be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Approved February 25th, 1830.

No. 11.

An ordinance to open and extend Lexington street.

Lexington street opened.

Whereas, William H. Freeman and others, proprietors of two-thirds of the property intended to be taken for the opening of Lexington street, have applied to have the said street opened; therefore,

1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That Basil S. Elder, George Keyser, John W. Berry, James Blair and George Bartlett be, and they are hereby, appointed assessors of damages incurred by reason of opening said street, under the provisions of the act entitled "An Act relating to the City of Baltimore;" provided the said William H. Freeman and others shall pay to the Register of the City the damages ascertained as aforesaid, together with the expenses incurred by carrying into effect this ordinance, then and in that case shall the Register pay or tender to the persons entitled thereto, the damages ascertained as aforesaid.

2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That whenever the said damages shall have been tendered or paid to the person or persons entitled thereto, it shall be the duty of the City Commissioners to proceed to open said street, from Cove street to the city line, westward, and remove the obstructions therefrom, and the same shall forever after be a public street and highway.

Approved March 5th, 1830.
