No. 12.

An ordinance to authorize the opening and paving of Half-Moon alley.

Half-Moon alley opened and paved.

1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Mayor be, and he is hereby, authorized to receive from the proprietors of property or ground over which Half-Moon alley passes, from the crook or elbow in said alley to Forrest street, a deed for the said ground, to be approved of by the Counsel for the City, vesting in the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore a good and sufficient title to the same for a public highway forever.

2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That when the said deed or conveyance shall be executed and recorded, that it shall be the duty of the City Commissioners, with the approbation of the Mayor, to have said alley paved fifteen feet wide, agreeable to the plat submitted, and to draw on the Register for such sum as may be necessary to defray the expense thereof, not exceeding one hundred and twelve dollars and fifty cents, to be paid out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

Approved March 5th, 1830.

No. 13.

An ordinance to provide for certain expenses of the year eighteen hundred and twenty-nine.

Tax for certain expenses of 1829.

1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the sum of twenty five cents on every hundred dollars worth of assessable property within the City of Baltimore, and in like proportion for any greater or less amount be, and the same is hereby, levied and imposed for the payment of expenses of Baltimore County Court and Orphans' Court, sitting on city business, for removals of causes, payment of coroners, expenses of collections for the year eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, for payment of the additional services of the Register of the City, under the ordinance relative thereto, approved April 6th, 1829, and of the expenses incurred in collecting said tax, and the said tax shall be collected and paid in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State and the ordinances of the city.

2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That the Collector of the City shall receive a compensation of three per cent. for collecting the tax aforesaid.

Approved March 9th, 1830.

No. 14.

A supplement to an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to appoint superintendents of streets and pumps, and to enforce useful regulations."

Persons not to throw bales, &c. from warehouse doors.

Skids and sliding boards to be secured with hooks.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the passage of this ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any person to throw any bale or other bulky article of merchandise from the second or higher story door of any store or warehouse used for the deposit of goods, wares and merchandise, into the street, or to use or cause to be used in or upon any street, lane, or alley, wharf, or place of public resort within the City of Baltimore, any sliding board or skid, for the purpose of receiving or delivering merchandise, without having the same well secured and fastened with at least two iron hooks, so as to prevent the same from slipping, and every person who shall offend in manner aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of twenty dollars, one