Joppa road assigned to owners of adjoining property.

2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That the Commissioners who are appointed to open Monument street, or a majority of them be, and they are hereby, authorized to enclose as private property that part of the old Joppa road mentioned and described in the first section of this ordinance, and to assign the part of the road so enclosed to such of the owners of the property adjoining the said part of the Joppa road, as the said Commissioners, or a majority of them shall consider to be entitled to the same, in consequence of any assignment of benefits made by the said Commissioners in opening Monument street.

Compensation to Commissioners.

3.—And be it enacted and ordained, That the said Commissioners, or such of them as shall act, shall be entitled to the same compensation for their services in carrying into effect this ordinance as is given them by the laws and ordinances in relation to the opening of Monument street; and that the said compensation and all proper expenses connected with the carrying into effect of this ordinance, and all deficiencies in the collections of the charges for the opening of Monument street, (certified by the Register of the City of Baltimore to be correct,) shall be paid by the owners of the property adjoining the said part of the Joppa road, to whom the same may be assigned, and in such proportion as the said Commissioners shall certify to the said Register.

Expenses and deficiencies paid.

Commissioners to make a return.

4.—And be it enacted and ordained, That the said Commissioners, or such of them as shall act, shall make out a return of their proceedings, describing by metes and bounds the part assigned to each owner of the property adjoining the part of the road hereby closed, which return it shall be the duty of the said Commissioners to have recorded among the land records of Baltimore County, at the expense of the persons to whom they may assign the said road.

To be recorded.

When to have effect.

5.—And be it enacted and ordained, That this ordinance, so far as relates to the shutting up of the Joppa road, shall be of no force or effect until the whole of the assessment and expenses for opening Monument street, and also the whole of the charges which may accrue in consequence of the passage of this ordinance shall have been paid to the Register, and until Monument street shall have been actually opened and in use agreeably to the several laws and ordinances passed in relation thereto.
