LOCAL MATTERS.

Found Quantity of Money.—Mail driver W. U. Scoone found between $20 and $50 recently while on his route between Chestertown and Rock Hall. Mr. Scoone has been making an effort to find the owner, but at last reports had failed to do so.

The Transcript Appreciated.—An esteemed subscriber in renewing his subscription to the TRANSCRIPT says: "Enclosed find check for subscription to your paper. Same has given me a great deal of home news." There are many more just like this valued subscriber.

Feed the Birds.—It is such weather as we have had during the past week when we should make an effort to feed the partridges and other game that suffer so much from snow. The snow and heavy rains killed many of the partridges last year, and if an effort is not made to feed them during the winter, the partridge will become partially extinct in Kent county.

The Chestertown Laundry.—New machinery for the Chestertown Steam Laundry arrived this week, and is now being placed. The company, of which Col. Wm. J. Vannort is president, will have everything in readiness, to begin operations in about ten days. Competent labor will be employed, and the rate for entire washes will be such as will induce families of the town and county to patronize it. Delivery wagons will be placed on county routes in Kent and Queen Annes county during the summer and everything will be done by the company to supply a long felt need in the town. Let every body rally to the support of the enterprise, and encourage the public spiritedness of the company.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*Who had the fastest horse this week?

*†*Tuesday is pancake day. Have a big one?

*†*Next Thursday is St. Valentine's day. Put a plug in your door bells for that evening.

*†*The improvised jail is rapidly filling up, and if the quarantine at the old jail is not lifted shortly, it will have to be enlarged.

*†*The new opera house at Centreville was formerly opened to the public last week. It is a monument to the skill of contractors W. S. & A. M. Culp.

*†*The galvanized iron awning in front of Mr. Thos. G. Wroth's large shoe store collapsed under the heavy weight of snow on Tuesday morning.

*†*Bailiff Hudson was out bright and early on Tuesday morning with a snow plow cleaning the side walks and crossings, much to the satisfaction of pedestrians.

*†*One of our town boys walked clear across the river to Queen Annes shore. This is the first time it has been done this year. He was on the ice last Thursday morning.

*†*Sandy Bottom, Piney Neck, and St. Paul's schools have been open during the week, and the school authorities hope to be able to open Edesville school next week.

*†*The ground hog is said to have seen his shadow on Saturday. He made his appearance at 12 o'clock just as the sun peeped out from the clouds, and judging from the weather since, we are in for it for five weeks more of winter. That ground pig is almost as bad as old man Hicks.

*†*In M. A. Toulson's store window there is on exhibition several water color paintings, the work of Mr. Carl Bordley, and Misses Anna Smyth and Florence Beck, pupils of the Manual Training Department of the Chestertown High School. The pictures show rare artistic talent.

*†*It is truly laughable to hear the remarks made by colored people as they stand on the corners watching the flyers. One old fellow said on Tuesday as he watched a horse that was working badly: "G'on dar, don't act so much like a hobby horse." Another one said: "Git yo' hoofs together, and stop squirmin' all over de track."

*†*Owing to the fog and ice the Gratitude was unable to cross the bay on Saturday. She did not leave Baltimore until twenty minutes after four, owing to an accident to her propeller. She proceeded as far as Fort Carroll when she was compelled to return with her passengers to the city. She left Baltimore on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, made all her landings and reached Chestertown about 2.30 P. M.

*†*The Still Pond Farmers Club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, Kennedyville, last Thursday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. L Redmile, Mrs. E. B. Pennington, Misses Lizzie and Louisa Pennington, Miss Laura Hague, Mr. Walter Harris and Mr. Crawford. At five o'clock the meeting adjourned to meet the last Thursday in February at the home of Capt. and Mrs. D. Hill.

Wedding Bells.

DODD—LUSBY.

The home of Mr. Walter U. Lusby was the scene of a quiet though very pretty wedding on Wednesday morning at 7.30 o'clock, when Miss Emily Gertrude, daughter of the late Josiah Lusby, became the bride of Mr. Charles L. Dodd, clerk to the Board of County Commissioners. Promptly at the appointed hour, to the strains of Lohengin's wedding march, skillfully played by Miss Clara Usilton, the bride and groom entered the parlor, where they were united in the bonds of holy wedlock by Rev. John S. Bowers, pastor of Clarke Memorial Church, Baltimore, a cousin of the groom. Little Miss Emily Lusby, daintily attired in white, attended the bride as flower girl. The bride wore a becoming grey traveling suit, with hat and gloves to match. She carried a white prayer book. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Dodd left via train for a short wedding tour. They will be at home to their friends in their cosy home on High street, which has recently been repainted and furnished, after February 15th. They were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents, among them a silver service from the board of which the groom is clerk.

MOFFETT—REED.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Georgia Reed, on Wednesday at 12.30 o'clock, when her accomplished daughter, Miss Cora, become the bride of Mr. Robert Moffett, coroner for Kent county. The spaciuos parlor was beautifully decorated with evergreen and ferns, and was lighted by pretty shaded lamps. Promptly at the appointed hour, to the strains of Lohengin's wedding march, skillfully played by Miss Nellie McWhorter, the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Mr. Horace Reed, by whom she was given in marriage. She was preceded by the groom and his best man, Mr. S. T. Moffett, a brother, and little Miss Elizabeth Reed, daintily dressed in white, as flower girl. The bride was attired in a beautiful costume of white crepe de chine over silk, with chiffon and lace trimmings. She carried a white prayer book. In the presence of only the immediate families and near friends, the happy couple were pronounced man and wife by Rev. W. L. White, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Moffett left on the afternoon train for a short wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside on High street. They were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. The bride's going away gown was black velvet with hat and gloves to match.

HENDRICKSON—MANN.

Lynch's M. P. Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday at 2 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Susie Elizabeth, the popular daughter of Mr. Samuel Mann, of near Lynch's, and Mr. Percy V. Hendrickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson, of near town. The church was beautifully trimmed with holly and evergreen by friends of the bride. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of Lohengin's wedding march, skillfully rendered by Miss Lizzie Hepbron, the ushers, Messrs. Sam'l and Leonard Mann, brothers of the bride, Dr. M. Earle Usilton, of Philadelphia, and Harry F. Jefferson, of Chestertown, wearing black sack coat suits with white vests, entered the church followed by the bride and groom. The bride was attired in a becoming tailor made traveling costume of blue broadcloth with hat and gloves to match.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, pastor of the church. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson were driven to Lynch's Station where they took the afternoon train for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside on Tolchester farm, where the groom is a prosperous farmer. They were the recipients of numerous and valuable presents.

NEWSOME—GALLAGHER.

Miss Elizabeth Gertrude Gallagher, of Baltimore, was married to Mr. Clarence Theodore Newsome, of Betterton, on Saturday at noon, at the rectory of St. Mark's Catholic Church, Baltimore, by Rev. C. E. Wheeler. Mr. and Mrs. Newsome left shortly after the ceremony for a trip North. On their return they will make their home at Betterton, where the groom is engaged in business. They will be at home to their friends after April 1.

BRITTON—WARNER.

Mr. William Britton, formerly of Millington, but for some months past of Burlington, N. J., and Miss Olive Warner, of Rock Hall, were quietly married at the home of the bride Thursday of last week. They will reside at Burlington, where Mr. Britton holds a position as carpenter.

*†*Quite a number of Chestertown and and Rock Hall passengers were detained in Baltimore on Saturday by the failure of the Gratitude to cross the bay. Capt. Taylor acted very wisely, as he always does, in not coming over, for the fog was exceedingly dense.

Do You Want Help.

The way now seems to be plain for the farmers and housewives of this county to obtain the help they need. Governor Warfield has requested the State Bureau of Immigration to promptly take advantage of the decision of Secretary Straus of the Department of Commerce and Labor in the South Carolina case, and the officials of the Bureau have right willingly complied. Under this decision the State can import laborers, which an individual connot do.

Secretary August F. Trappe of the Bureau of Immigration says:

"We have already begun work and will shortly send an agent abroad to secure the first party of immigrants. What is important for us to know now is just how many persons are wanted, what they are expected to do and what they will be paid. For instance, John Jones writes us that he wants a man for general farm work and will give him $15 a month and board, and Samuel Smith sends us word that he will take a man and wife with their family, giving the man $25 a month, house rent, firewood, garden and cow pasture. Now, if several hundred farmers will promptly send us smiliar letters we will know just what to do, how many people to bring over and what kind. We cannot bring more than there are places for, because the State must guarantee to take care of them unless they get employment.

"Mr. Louis T. Weis, United States Commissioner of Immigration at Baltimore, informs us that the contract labor law does not apply to women who come as domestics, therefore applications can be made direct for a woman to do general housework for Mrs. Brown, Smith or Jones at specified wages. We will arrange to supply such help as far as possible."

To Prevent Assault on Women

The Delaware House of Representatives Tuesday, by a vote of 26 to 8 passed the bill presented by Representative Holcomb, Democrat, of New Castle, providing and describing that all persons convicted thereafter of assault upon women with intent to ravish them, shall, within thirty days after the commission of the crime, suffer the surgical operation prescribed by the ancients. The operation shall be performed by three competent physicians appointed by the court. Beside the above penalty, the offender is to be imprisoned for a period of 20 years. A number of phyicians were called in to participate in the debate upon the bill, and while there was spirited opposition to it on the ground of the renewal of a procedure and punishment bordering on barbarity, the bill passed by the large majority recorded. It will now come into the senate where it will be more generally discussed.

A CAROLINA LEGISLATOR.

Hon. Wm. G. Hunter Uses Pe-ru-na As a Family Medicine.

WHEN a man of undoubted reputation comes out squarely in public print, giving unqualified endorsement to a household remedy there must be something genuine to account for it.

Hon. W. G. Hunter, of North Carolina, well-known in Washington and throughout the Southern States, says of Peruna that he regards it as the greatest family medicine ever discovered.

He does not hesitate to say that Peruna invigorates and gives fresh strength to mind and body.

Such testimonials as this ought to make Peruna popular.

No advertising known to the arts of man, no commercial management could ever raise Peruna to such a high standard of appreciation as the frank and unqualified statements of such men.

PE-RU-NA
A Reliable Remedy For Colds.

Peruna is an ideal household remedy. It wards off colds and relieves catarrh in all its forms and phases.

By ridding the system of catarrh, it cleanses the body of those conditions which invite chronic diseases.

Cold Affected Head, Throat and Lungs.

Mr. Matthew O'Hare, 145 William St., Fall River, Mass., writes:

"About four years ago I consulted a physician to get relief from a cold which had stopped up my head and also settled on my lungs, resulting in catarrh and also throat difficulties.

"He gave me some medicine, but four months faithful use of the same did me no good. I then tried other doctors, but it was just the same.

"So I decided to try Peruna and after using two bottles my lungs began to heal, I did not cough nearly so much and slept better.

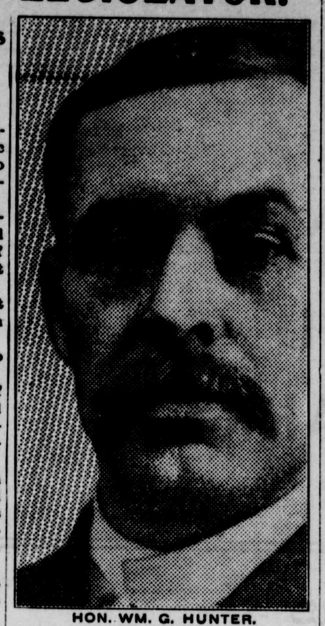

"In six months the cough, catarrh and throat difficulties were all cured.

"I was pleased with the result and wish to write you of it. Seven bottles of Peruna cured me."

A. L. Hewitt, J. P., West Berlin, Vt., writes: "I am happy to be able to write you this letter in relation to what your Peruna has done for my family.

"When I brought the first bottle home, I found my wife and daughter both sick—my wife with indigestion and my daughter with a severe cold. They were both cured.

"I am willing to state that Peruna, taken in the beginning, will cure the worst cold in 24 to 36 hours."

HON. WM. G. HUNTER.

Cough, Colds, Catarrh Relieved By Pe-ru-na.

Hon. Wm. G. Hunter, ex-member North Carolina Legislature, writes from the Census Office Building, Washington, D. C., concerning Peruna:

"The greatest family medicine ever discovered, in my opinion, which comes from experience as well as observation, is Peruna. The most common affliction to humankind is a bad cold. Peruna drives it out of doors, wards off catarrh, invigorates and gives fresh strength to mind and body. I give Peruna my unqualified endorsement."

Mr. G. W. Taylor, Clendenin, W. Va., writes:

"I think that Peruna is the greatest tonic that was ever put on the market. For several years my eyes bothered me so much. The pain was so severe sometimes I would think they would surely burst out of my head.

"I tried Peruna and Manalin and am to-day a well man. am sure I should have died had it not been for Dr. Hartman's wonderful medicine, Peruna."

Such testimony as the above has given Peruna a high standard in the estimation of the public.
