the possibility of his or her biting, and convey him or her to some place to be designated for that purpose by the Mayor.

Confined twenty-four hours.

2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That all dogs brought to such place by the City Bailiffs, or such person or persons as may be authorized by the Mayor, shall be confined for twenty-four hours, unless sooner claimed by the owner or owners thereof; and all dogs not claimed within twenty-four hours shall be put to death by such persons as the Mayor may appoint for that purpose.

Compensation.

3.—And be it enacted and ordained, That every City Bailiff, or other person authorized by the Mayor as aforesaid, who shall bring a dog to the place designated by the Mayor as above directed, shall, on delivery, receive one dollar for his trouble; and every person claiming a dog shall be required to pay the sum of five dollars before such dog shall be delivered to him or her, and if he or she refuse to pay the same, such dog shall be put to death at the end of the said twenty-four hours.

Mayor to issue proclamation.

4.—And be it enacted and ordained, That all dogs found going at large without being muzzled as aforesaid, from the first day of June until the first day of October in each and every year, shall be dealt with as hereinbefore directed; and that at all times after the said first day of October until the said first day of June in each and every year, it shall be lawful for the Mayor to issue his proclamation requiring the citizens to confine their dogs for such time as may be designated in the proclamation, and during such time all dogs going at large without being muzzled as aforesaid, shall be dealt with as hereinbefore directed.

Penalty for persons interfering.

5.—And be it enacted and ordained, That no person shall hinder or molest any person or persons who may be engaged in seizing, taking up, or conveying away any unmuzzled dog or dogs, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each offence, one half to the informer, the other for the use of the city.

Penalty for removing muzzle without consent of owner.

6.—And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons shall remove or take off from any animal of the dog kind, any muzzle, without the consent of the owner of such animal, such person or persons shall for each offence forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars, one half for the use of the informer, the other half for the use of the city.

Appropriation.

7.—And be it enacted and ordained, That the sum of one thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be deemed necessary by the Mayor, be, and is hereby, appropriated to carry this ordinance into effect, the same to be paid out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

Approved August 23d, 1831.

No. 2.

A supplement to the ordinance for the purposes therein mentioned.

Mayor authorized to borrow $12,000.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That for the purpose of meeting any deficiency which may occur in the city treasury, and for the purpose of paying the several appropriations made by any ordinance or resolution passed at the last annual session of the City Council, or which may be passed at the present extra session, or any other lawful claims against the city, the Mayor shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to borrow and obtain upon hypothecation of any real or other property belonging to the city, a sum not exceeding twelve thousand dollars, on the best terms which he may find practicable, reimbursable and payable on the first day of July, eighteen hundred
