OBITUARY.

MRS. HARRIETT ELIZABETH CALEB.

Mrs. Harriett Elizabeth Caleb, one of Chestertown's oldest and most highly esteemed residents, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emory S. Wroth, at twelve o'clock last Friday evening, after a short illness, of pneumonia, aged 72 years. The deceased was of a very retiring disposition, and seldom left her home, yet to those who knew her intimately, she was a woman of very lovable character and a friend to every one. She was a woman of the greatest sympathy, and a mother of the fondest devotion, and her entire life was given up to the welfare and happiness of her family. Her later years were spent in the companionship and love of her surviving daughter, Mrs. Wroth, and the home of the daughter was the castle of the mother, wherein she ministered in sweetest love to every want of her for whom she lived and toiled. No task was too irksome for the mother if it would but assist in making the home of her daughter happy and bright; no act of love was ever wanting to make life's pathway smoothe and cheerful. She was mother in the truest and sweetest sense. She will be missed, oh! so sadly, but what though the chair be vacant, what though the cedars on yonder hill sing a soft requiem, and the forgetmenots will cast a sweet perfume over the sacred dust, Mother, blessed name, still lives in the deeds of love and the patient toil of the years that are agone. The bereaved daughter has the sympathy of the entire community in the loss which she has sustained. Funeral services were held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Wroth, on Front street, on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield. Interment was in Chester cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. S. Carroll, John H. Simpers, Fred G. Usilton, Charles L. Dodd, Clinton W. Wroth and Thos. G. Wroth. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. CHALES C. ANDERSON.

Mrs. Charles C. Anderson, daughter of the late Jacob Boston, of Baltimore, and a cousin of Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, of this town, died at the residence of her nephew, Mr. Ernest M. Anderson, 1536 Harlem avenue, Baltimore, on Saturday. "Cousin Mol," as she was familiarly known to her relatives and many friends, spent the greater part of her life in St. Louis, but recently she and her husband removed to Baltimore. Many years ago she visited Mrs. Vannort here, and during those visits, she made many friends who remember her as being a woman of most lovable character and possessed of a sweet disposition. Funeral services were held from the above residence on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, with interment at Mount Airy, Md. On account of sickness, Mrs. Vannort was unable to attend the funeral.

MRS. MARY BURKE EMORY.

Mrs. Mary Burke Emory, wife of Mr. Blanchard Emory, of Queenstown, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ogle Tilghman Davidson, in Queenstown, on Sunday of the grip, after a short illness, aged 76 years. Besides her husband, Mrs. Emory is survived by nine children: Mr. Frederic Emory, of near Queenstown, Mr. Blanchard Emory, of Centreville, Mr. Henry Hollyday Emory, of Connecticut, Mr. Edmond H. Emory, of Chicago, Mrs. Ogle Tilghman Davidson, of Queenstown, Mrs. George Davidson, Jr., of near Annapolis, Mr. William Cook Emory, of New York, and Mrs. Alice G. Rasin, of Queenstown.

WILLIAM E. BECK.

Mr. William E. Beck, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Lynch's, died on Friday night of pneumonia, in the 80th year of his age. Funeral services were held from his late residence on Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, pastor of St. James and Lynch's M. P. Churches. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. E. C. Bowers, Harry Casey, Samuel Cornelius, Thos. A Parsons, Harry Jewell and Robert Rash. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. POLLY URIE.

Mrs. Polly Urie died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Webb, in Baltimore, last Thursday night, from old age. The remains were brought to Chestertown via train and thence to Rock Hall. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Warren Burr officiated. This is the second death in the family in less than a week. Mrs. Webb's son, Kenney, was buried last Monday week.

MR. CHARLES E. TOLSON.

Mr. Charles E. Tolson, aged about 65 years, died on Monday at his home in Stevensville, Kent Island. Mr. Tolson was a member of one of the most prominent families of Kent Island. He was one of the three vestrymen of the Episcopal Church of that town. He is survived by a widow, two sons, and a daughter.

MRS. JAMES ROSS.

Mrs. James Ross, aged 70 years, died at her home near Galena, on Saturday, after a long illness. She is survived by a son and daughter.

Election of Delegate.

At a meeting of the qualified members of Christ M. P. Church on Thursday evening, Mr. James W. Lambert was elected delegate and Mr. J. D. Bacchus alternate to the approaching session of the Maryland Annual Conference which meets in Rhode Island Avenue M. P. Church, Washington, D. C., the first Wednesday in April. The meeting was harmonious and there was no political squabble for the honors. In this connection it is but in justice to the church and Mr. Sheridan to say that Mr. Sheridan's friends in the church made no effort whatever to secure votes for Mr. Thos. D. Bowers as a delegate to conference favorable to Mr. Sheridan for president of the conference, nor did Mr. Thos. D. Bowers authorize any one to say that he favored this or that minister for president. This statement was made for the purpose which was accomplished at the meeting on Thursday evening. Col. Wm. J. Vannort was prominently mentioned for delegate and there are many in the church who think that he should have been elected delegate. Col. Vannort is one of the oldest and most influential members in the church, and since Mr. Lambert and Mr. Bacchus had served as delegate only recently, and Mr. Lambert absolutely refuses to go, it was thought by some of the older ones that Col. Vannort was the proper person to go. But Col. Vannort would not pledge himself to any one for president, and he was promptly turned down.

ADOPT CODE OF HONOR.

Students of Washington College Take a Decided Stand Against Unfair Methods.

At a mass-meeting of the students of Washington College last week it was decided to adopt an honor system. The students signed a pledge to refrain from the use of any unfair means during their connection with the college and to use their influence to prevent the use of unfair means on the part of others.

This pledge was presented to the faculty, who accepted it. The pledge will be suitably engrossed and signed, so as to be preserved among the records of the college.

As a proper accompaniment of this action on the part of the students the faculty has decided that hereafter no one will be received as a student of this college, unless he pledges himself to uphold the honor system of the college and refrain from the use of any unfair means in recitations, tests and examinations.

Struck By Train.

The Philadelphia Record of Friday published the following account of an accident which befell Mr. James F. Vansant, formerly of Millington, this county, and who removed to Philadelphia after his marriage to Miss Sue Lambert, of Chestertown, about three years ago. The Record says:

"A milk wagon of the York Stock Farm was struck by a train at the Mt. Pleasant avenue crossing of the Reading Railway yesterday morning, and the driver, James Vansant, of No. 24 Pleasant street, was seriously injured, sustaining concussion of the brain, besides injuries to his back and a lacerated ear. All but the rear wheels of the wagon had cleared the track when the engine struck it. The wagon was completely demolished and the milk scattered over the street."

Ice Going—Boats Running.

The Steamer Gratitude, of the Md. Del. & Va. Company, reached her wharf here on Tuesday after an ice blockade of about two weeks. The river seems to be clearing of ice now, and it is not likely that there will be any more serious interruption to navigation. A letter from Supt. G. E. Noland, of Tolchester, says: "For four long weeks Tolchester has been ice bound. The first boat to make its appearance was a small sail boat today, 19th. The ice is about gone and we are looking for a steamboat to resume her trips next Saturday, February 23rd." That means today. The Gratitude encountered heavy ice off Hail's Point, but otherwise made the trip without difficulty.

CHURCH NOTES.

The Book Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Presiding Elder A. S. Mowbray, of Wilmington, is a member, has selected Baltimore, Md., as the place for holding the next quadrennial General Conference, which will convene in May, 1908. This decision was reached by committee at a meeting which was held in New York.

It has been 20 years since the General Conference met in the East. In 1904 the meeting was held in Los Angeles, Cal., and four years before that in Chicago.

The principal meetings of the Conference in Baltimore will probably be held at the Lyric Theatre, but there will be many other meetings to be held in the various churches. The homes of the people will be thrown open to receive the visitors, and it is expected that families of many denominations besides the Methodists will participate in the entertaining. The Conference sessions will very probably begin on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in May, 1908, and will continue about a month. It is expected that it will attract 50,000 visitors to Baltimore, in addition to the 800 accredited delegates.

A Literary-Musicial will be held in Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee on Wednesday evening next, Feb. 27 at 7.45 o'clock. The program will include male quartettes, mixed quartettes, solos, etc. The leading feature of the evening will be the presence of Miss Irene Fulton, a celebrated elocutionist, of Wilmington, Del., whose choice selections never fail to please. Don't miss hearing her.

Chestertown M. E. Church.—Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday school at 2.15 P. M. Epworth League meeting at 6.45 P. M. All are cordially invited.

Fairlee W. C. T. U. purposes to hold a Francis Willard Memorial meeting in Salem Church on next Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock, Feb. 24. Rev. J. K. Easley will give an address and sing for us on that occasion.—Fairlee Press Supt.

Statistics regarding the Roman Catholic Diocese of Wilmington have just been compiled and show some interesting figures. According to this record there are in this diocese 30,000 Catholics, one bishop, 42 clergymen, 46 churches, 2 colleges and academies, 12 parishes with schools, 2,972 children attending these schools, 3 orphan asylums, 256 orphans and 4 charitable institutions.

Divine Service may be expected in St. Clements Church, Massey, and in the Chapel of the Holy Cross, Millington, on Sunday, March 3rd, being the 3rd Sunday in Lent. At Massey 10.30 A. M. and in Millington 3 o'clock P. M.

Rev. Leonard Smith will preach at Christ Methodist Protestant Church at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. All the usual services will be held at the stated hours.

Wedding Bells.

DYOTT—WICKHAM.

Mr. Thomas Dyott, son of Mrs. Delma Draper, of Baltimore, and nephew of Mr. M. A. Toulson, of Chestertown, was married to Miss Anna A. Wickham, of Baltimore, on Saturday at noon by Rev. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman. The bride wore a pearl crepe de chine gown over white taffeta and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor Wickham, sister of the bride, and Miss Juliet Lief, wore lavender over white and carried violets. Mr. W. Carey Wonderly was best man. After the ceremony a luncheon was served, at which covers were laid for twelve. Mr. and Mrs. Dyott left for a trip south. Upon their return they will reside at 3306 W. North avenue, Walbrook.

FRIEL—HOBBY.

Mr. John A. Friel, a popular resident of Centreville, and a brother of Mrs. Harry L. Boyd and Mrs. John H. O. Stokes, of this county, was married to Miss Ada Hobby, of Queen Annes, on Thursday evening of last week, in Philadelphia. Both the bride and groom are very popular in Queen Annes county.

Md. Oratorical Association.

The 9th annual contest of the Maryland Oratorical Association will be held April 26th, at Western Maryland College. All the colleges in the association, St. John's, Washington, Md. Agricultural and Western Md. College, are making strenuous efforts to wrest the honor of first prize, won last year by Western Maryland. Washington College will have a formidable representative who will exert his best efforts to capture first prize. A meeting of the officials of the association was held last Saturday morning at the Rennert, Baltimore, for the purpose of making arrangements for the contest and selecting the judges. Washington College was successful through its representative, Prof. E. J. Clark, in securing the coveted "last place" on the programme for its speaker.
