titled, "an ordinance to provide for the valuation and assessment of property in the city of Baltimore," approved May the 12th, 1834, and of the supplement thereto; and the said direct tax shall be collected and paid in the manner prescribed by the acts of Assembly and ordinances of the city.

Approved, March 17, 1841. SAMUEL BRADY, Mayor.

No. 22.

An Ordinance to prevent the filling of barrels, hogsheads, or other water casks, from the pumps attached to the reservoir at Fell's Point market.

Barrels and Casks not to be filled with water at the Fell's Point reservoir.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to fill or cause to be filled with water drawn from the reservoir situated between the market houses, Fell's Point, any barrel, hogshead, or other water casks whatsoever for shipping purposes, under a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each and every offence.

Approved, March 17, 1841. SAMUEL BRADY, Mayor.

No. 23.

An Ordinance to provide for the payment of the interest of loans obtained by the city for the purpose of prosecuting the works of internal improvements.

Internal Improvement tax.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That for the payment of the interest on loans obtained by the city for the purpose of prosecuting the works of internal improvements, for the year eighteen hundred and forty-one, a tax of forty cents shall be and is hereby levied and imposed on every hundred dollars worth of property within the city of Baltimore, and in like proportion for any greater or less sum as said property shall have been assessed, and the said tax shall be laid and collected in the same manner as is now provided with, in respect to other taxes, by the acts of Assembly and ordinances of the Corporation.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the tax thus levied and collected shall be applied to the payment of the interest on loans obtained by the city for the purpose of prosecuting the works of internal improvements.

Approved, March 17, 1841. SAMUEL BRADY, Mayor.

No. 24.

An Ordinance making appropriations for the year eighteen hundred forty-one.

Appropriations for the year 1841.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the following sums be and they are hereby appropriated for the year 1841.

To the Commissioners of Finance for the payment of the interest on the stock debt of the City, exclusive of loans obtained for the purpose of internal improvements, forty-three thousand, two hundred and ninety-two dollars and fifty cents, and a further sum to make the same equivalent to coin, $1,728 68.

For interest on temporary loans, eight thousand, five hundred dollars.

For watching and lighting the city, (including one thousand, seven hundred and twenty four dollars and fifty cents due Gas Company,) forty-nine thousand dollars.

For deepening and improving the harbor, to be taken out of money arising from the tonnage duties, the collections of the Harbor Masters and the hire of mud machines, the sum of twenty thousand dollars.

For the health department, the sum of four thousand dollars.

For cleaning streets the sum of fifteen thousand dollars.

For removing nuisances, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

For repairing paved streets, (including a balance unpaid on annual appropriation of four thousand, five hundred dollars,) the sum of ten thousand dollars.

For repairing unpaved streets, the sum of five hundred dollars.

For flag and stepping stones, (including a balance due,) six hundred dollars.

For erecting and removing lamps, (including a balance due,) six hundred dollars.

For the repairs of public wharves, to be taken out of the appropriation for deepening and improving the harbor, one thousand dollars.

For repairing bridges within the limits of direct taxation, (including balance due,) twelve hundred dollars.

For repairs of sewers, (including balance due,) a sum not exceeding six hundred dollars.

For cross streets, (including five thousand, three hundred and eighty dollars balance due,) fifteen thousand dollars.

For repairs of pumps and wells, the sum of five thousand dollars.

For the diary of the City Council, (including balance due,) six thousand dollars.