CONFERENCE TIME.

Many Interesting Rumors as to Pastoral Changes and Supplies.

The sessions of the two leading conferences of Maryland and Delaware, the Methodist Protestant and the Wilmington M. E. Conference are, rapidly approaching, and the nearer the time for assembling the greater the interest becomes in each session. The Wilmington Conference will convene in Smyrna, Del., on March 20th, and while there may be some changes by reason of the five year limit, they will not be so numerous as to cause the presiding bishop and his cabinet any serious trouble in the assignment of the pastors. The greatest interest centers in the appointment of presiding elders, several of whom will have to be appointed because of the expiration of the terms of the present encumbents. So far as the pastorates in Kent county are concerned, we have heard of no changes, and the quarterly conferences of all the changes have asked for the return of their present pastors. Throughout the District there will be several important changes.

Dr. Barrett will leave Dover, and will be succeeded by Dr. Lightbourne, who is now at Middletown. Dr. W. L. S. Murray is being mentioned as a strong possibility for one of the bishops to be appointed by the next General Conference, and Rev. George Bounds, of St. Michaels, has asked for a change of relations. There may be several changes in the Wilmington pastorates, but throughout the entire district there are few indications of changes, and the work of the year has been remarkably successful. Rev. W. L. White has been asked to return to Chestertown for another year, and his congregation does not desire or expect a change. He is popular with his people, as is also his most estimable wife, and he is doing an excellent work here.

So far as the Methodist Protestant Conference is concerned, the most important feature will be the election of president. Next in importance will be the changes reported in contemplation. We state nothing in this sketch as facts; they are simply rumors, and as such may prove interesting to church people. Of course Rev. F. T. Little, whose very successful term as president of the conference expires with the approaching session, will engage in the active work, and he has been mentioned as a probable supply for the following places: Rhode Island Avenue, Washington, D. C.; Alnutt Memorial, Baltimore, and Chestertown.

Rev. D. L. Greenfield, who has been pastor of Chestertown for the past six years, is mentioned as a supply for Westminster. Among those mentioned as Dr. Greenfield's successor are Dr. Little, J. W. Kirk, L. F. Warner and J. M. Holmes. Rev. G. W. Haddaway has been asked to return to Starr Church, Baltimore. Dr. J. D. Kinzer may retire from the active work at Mt. Lebanon, Rev. J. M. Gill may leave Rhode Island avenue, Rev. F. T. Benson may leave St. John's Independent Methodist Church, Baltimore, F. C. Klein may leave Mt. Royal avenue. All these changes have been rumored, but as is the case every year, there may be a great many rumors and very few changes. The number of changes is dependent upon the election of president, for whoever succeeds Dr. Little will create a vacancy, and it is said that "one change makes many." One of the greatest features of the approaching session of conference will be the address on Monday evening by Dr. Munhall, one of the greatest Bible lecturers of the country. A request has been sent to every minister of the conference to be present on this occasion. The usual routine of business will occupy the attention of the conference, and it promises to be one of the most interesting in its history.

Family Steamer Laundry.

The Family Steam Laundry, as stated exclusively in last week's TRANSCRIPT, began operation on Monday morning under the management of Mr. Wm. H. McKee. The plant is equipped with all the latest and most improved laundry machinery, and the building in which it is located, the old school building—is an ideal place for it. The company, of which Col. Wm. J. Vannort is president and Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., is secretary, has finished arranging a schedule of rates which have been printed and which will be sent to every family in the county. The company's rates are very moderate, and are such as to command the patronage of every one. A competent force of five employes is already turning out excellent work, and the company will start delivery wagons very shortly, in order that the public may have every facility for patronizing the new enterprise. It certainly deserves the patronage of the entire community and county and the company being composed of representative business men will exert every effort to secure the trade. The wagons of the company will call for and deliver the laundry of patrons, and will endeavor to give entirely satisfactory work. Everybody work for the new enterprise, while it works for you and relieves a condition which has been strenuous for some years.

BURNED OUT OF HOME

Mr. Hurlock of Queen Anne's Loses Heavily By Fire For Third Time.

Fire Sunday night destroyed the home of Mr. Walter W. Hurlock, about two miles from Centreville. The dwelling, smokehouse, dairy and poultry house were consumed, together with their contents.

The fire originated in the roof of the smoke-house, and when discovered was in flames which soon spread to the house.

The dwelling was nearly consumed when the bucket brigade of the Good Will Fire Company of Centreville reached the scene. Even then they had a hard fight to keep the flames from the barn, stables and other outbuildings, as the poultry house lay within 10 feet of a large implement shed, which adjoined these buildings.

Mr. Hurlock says his loss is far in excess of his insurance, which is about $2,800. The home was splendidly furnished and contained many heirlooms of great value to the family, three pieces of furniture alone—formerly the property of Mrs. Hurlock's mother—being valued at $1,100.

This is the third time Mr. Hurlock has lost his home and its contents by fire. At Snow Hill about 15 years ago his dwelling and store was burned and about 10 years ago his home in Philadelphia met the same fate.

Mr. Hurlock is a brother of Mr. S. R. Hurlock, of near Chester bridge, and an uncle of Mr. Thomas Hurlock, of Church Hill, a director in the Second National Bank, of Chestertown.

Wedding Bells.

BOULDEN—COLEMAN.

A very quiet wedding of a popular young couple, of Still Pond, took place on Thursday evening of last week, when Miss Jennie M. Coleman, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Coleman, became the bride of Mr. John C. Boulden. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. Parsonage by the pastor, Rev. T. S. Holt. The bride wore a becoming costume of blue broadcloth with hat and gloves to match. A sumptuous supper was served at the home of the bride, including turkey, duck, chicken, oysters, salads, etc. Among those present were:—Mrs. Rebecca Boulden, Mr. Spencer Boulden, mother and brother, of the groom; Mrs. Samuel Coleman, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Atwell, and little daughter, Abigail, and Miss Pearl Coleman. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Boulden repaired to their home, which the groom had splendidly furnished, where they will be glad to receive their friends. They were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents.

SHRILEY—GROVES.

Mr. Wm. L. Shriley, son of Mr. Jacob Shriley, of near St. Paul's Church, and Miss Mabel L. Groves, were quietly married at the M. P. Parsonage, Wesleyan Chapel, on the evening of January 30, 1907.

They Got the Pigs.

George J. Elias, his three sons, and Joe Graves, all colored, of near Pomona, were before Justice Calder on Tuesday afternoon upon the charge of stealing two shoats from Mr. Wm. J. Maslin, son of Mr. Thomas Maslin. Mr. Maslin reported the theft to Sheriff Medders, who, with Deputy Charles L. Gill, went to the house of Elias to investigate. The sheriff proceeded to Pomona to look for Elias who was not at home, but when he returned to his house he and Mr. Gill began to investigate. The condition of the dogs led the officers to believe that the pigs were somewhere around and upon going over a stream in the woods, which surrounded the house, they saw footprints upon the snow and ice on the edge of the stream. Something prompted the Sheriff to go fishing in the stream and it was not long before he pulled out a bag containing the two shoats. State's Attorney Beck and Harrison W. Vickers entered a plea of not guilty in the case of two of the Elias boys and Joe Graves, but John D. Urie, Esq., who appeared for the father and one son, Jim, was not so fortunate, the evidence against whom appeared such as to warrant the Justice in holding the father, George J., and his son, Jim, for the action of the grand jury. Mr. Maslin recovered his pigs.

His Suicide Successful.—Crawford Smith, the 22-year-old son of Mr. James Smith, a merchant of Cecilton, who sent two bullets through his lungs, as reported in last week's TRANSCRIPT, died at his parents' home in Cecilton, on Saturday, of his wounds. He was a popular and industrious young man, and no reason is assigned for the rash act.
