No. 15.

AN ORDINANCE relating to the numbering of the houses in the several streets of the city of Baltimore.

Mayor to appoint com. for numbering houses.

Duties prescribed.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Mayor be and he is hereby authorised to appoint some suitable person or persons for the purpose of numbering the several houses and buildings in the city of Baltimore, whose duty it shall be to number the same as herein provided, under the direction of the city commissioners, and that such numbering shall commence on all the streets running east and west, and crossing Jones' falls at the said falls, and be continued regularly east and west on each side of the street alternately, and on all streets running north and south, and crossing Baltimore street at the said last mentioned street, and be continued regularly north and south as aforesaid, and on all other streets which in the judgment of the said commissioners it would be advisable to number, the numbering thereof shall commence at such place and be continued as aforesaid as the said commissioners shall direct, and it shall be the duty of the person or persons so appointed to procure, at his own expense, the proper numbers, painted on tin plates, in yellow letters on a black ground, to be affixed on the several houses and buildings, and such dimensions as the said commissioners may direct, and affix the same over the front door of each house; and for each of which said numbers and affixing the same, he shall be entitled to charge and receive from the owner or occupier of the house or building to which the same is affixed, the sum of ten cents; and each and every person refusing to have a number affixed to his house or building, or preventing or interrupting the affixing the same thereto, or who shall refuse to pay for the same, or shall remove the same after it has been affixed, shall be liable to a penalty of five dollars, to be recovered as penalties of a similar amount imposed by city ordinances are now recoverable—provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any owner of a house from obtaining, at his own expense, a plate of such form and material as he may prefer, having on it the proper number of his house, and affixing the same on his house, nor from removing the number affixed to his house for the purpose of affixing immediately after such removal another plate properly numbered.
