SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1907.

MAHOOL, Numsen and Hooper—that's a good ticket, and if nominated, we predict its election by a big majority.

IT IS REPORTED that a delegation from the Second Election District waited upon Mr. Edward W. Hepbron the other day to urge him to become a candidate for the State Senate. It is also reported that Mr. Hepbron declined the honor. It is also reported that the name of Mr. Tilghman Shafer, of Kennedyville, has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for county treasurer.

EX-GOVERNOR BROWN has succeeded in getting a candidate for mayor of Baltimore city who will have the support of the regular organization. He is Mr. Barry Mahool, president of the First Branch of the City Council. Mr. Mahool has made a good record in the City Council, is a clean man, and while allied with the organization, is a man of independent thought and action. He is regarded as a strong candidate by many of the leading party men. The fight in the primaries will likely be among Linthicum, Brown, and Mahool. It looks like Mahool will win, as the independent votes will be divided among Linthicum and Brown and Mr. Mahool's running mates are strong men, who will win many votes for the head of the ticket. Messrs. Numsen and Hooper are well-known in public life, the one having been City Register and the other holding that position at present.

THE BALTIMORE SUN'S editorial last Sunday in reference to District Attorney Jerome's merciless cross-examination of Mrs. Thaw, was a scathering yet merited rebuke to the man who, in order to gain notoriety for himself, subjected a naturally upright girl to the most shameful series of questions. Jerome's action in the case is all the more to be condemned when it is remembered that an ungrateful mother, who sold the virtue and chastity of her daughter for a weekly stipend from the pocket of one of the worst libertines this country has ever known, furnished the information which owned the basis for the cross-examation which is so demoralizing and degrading to the world. It is to be hoped that Mr. Delmas will succeed in getting Mrs. Thaw's mother upon the witness stand in order to show to the world how utterly devoid of every motherly instinct the woman is, and how low a price she has set upon the purity and chastity of a naturally chaste daughter. The trial is one of the horrors of the year, for whatever may be its outcome to the principals, its published details are as morally degrading and loathsome as humanity can conceive.

MR. I. FREEMAN RASIN, a native of Kent county, and leader of the Democratic organization in Baltimore city, was striken with sudden illness on Saturday evening. Mr. Rasin has had a long and eventful career. He has been a powerful factor in Democratic politics in both city and State for years, and during the period of the Gorman-Rasin regime, that power was almost absolute. Like every other man in public life, Mr. Rasin has been made the target for many attacks by his enemies, but the Democratic party will suffer a serious loss in leadership, when the "Old Man," as he is familiarly called, drops the reins. Mr. Rasin will be 74 years old this month, and has been in politics since early in the sixties. Some one has remarked that his success in politics is due to the fact that he plays the game 365 days in the year, and he enjoys the confidence and respect of his followers to such a degree that his word is law with them. It is not likely that Mr. Rasin will be able to engage actively in politics again, in which event the leadership of the party in Baltimore will be entrusted to ex-Gov. Brown, who has succeeded in bringing order out of chaos in the mayoralty situation.

Case of Smallpox.

Mr. R. Thompson, one of the town's most prominent butchers, developed a case of smallpox last Sunday, diagnosed by his attending physician, Dr. Charles W. Whaland, and his store and dwelling, situated on High street, has been flagged by the health authorities. Mr. Thompson is reported to have contracted the disease from some furs which he purchased in the county. Dr. Frank B. Hines has been placed in charge of the case, and Capt. James Hyland has been employed by the town commissioners to patrol the premises. The High School has been closed during the week, and the building has been thoroughly fumigated. The authorities are exerting every effort to prevent a spread of the disease.

EX-GOVERNOR BROWN is a hustler. He goes in to win all the time, and if he is to become the city leader in Mr. Rasin's stead, he'll make Collector Stone hustle to win the mayoralty fight.

THE nice little things Congressman Wachter is saying about Mayor Timanus and Collector Stone in the Republican scramble for the mayoralty nomination is pie for the Democrats, who should have no trouble in winning the city election with anything like good men for the various offices. Wachter's got blood in his eye, and if he gets licked in the nomination Timanus will be beaten in the election and vice versa. The Democrats with a hustling campaign need have no fear of defeat.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The Men's Improvement Association entertained very pleasantly the Ladies Improvement Association on Monday evening at the Chesapeake House. After the business was transacted, which involved several important questions as to the improvement of our town, the guests were treated to an excellent musical and literary programme, under the direction of Mr. W. Reese Young. The presidents of both societies, Mrs. James Sutton and Mr. Howard Turner, as also other members, made short and interesting speeches. Much enthusiasm was manifested during the evening, and at nearly midnight the meeting closed, both societies feeling that they had been strengthened by the joint meeting and that their work since the organization, a year ago, has been beneficial to all. Those present were: Mr. Howard Turner, James Sutton and wife, William Crew and wife, Thos. Moore and wife, A. P. Emmerson and wife, Geo. E. Owens and wife, Clarence Crew and wife, John S. Owens and wife, Samuel Brice and wife, Alex. Mair and wife, Mr. John Smith, Mrs. Octave Bowman, Al. Bownan and wife, Messrs. Bayard Crew and Archie Crew, Messrs. W. R. Young, Auther Brice, Harry Owens, Walter Crew, Harry Willis, John H. Crew, William Bowman, George Bronwell, Joseph Warram, R. C. Crew, Alfred Jester. Rev. R. Row. Misses Florence Jewell, Lolia Crew, Kattie Crew, Hannah Gooding, and many others.

The heavy snow storm on Sunday made us all think that the ground hog had seen his shadow and that winter is not over yet.

Work is progressing on the new granery of Turner & Son and when completed will be an up-to-date building.

Mr. and Mrs. John Faulkner have returned home after spending sometime with friends and relatives in the cities.

Miss Annie Somers is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Supplee are the guests of relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Florence Jewell has gone to Baltimore where she will spend sometime.

Several of our young folks attended the musical at Still Pond on Tuesday evening.

We are very sorry to state that Capt. Chas. Fowler is very sick at Owens Cottage

Mr. Charles Jess a highly respected citizen of this town, died at his home on Ericssion ave., on Monday afternoon after an illness of some months. He is survived by a widow and four children, two daughters, Mrs. Tull and Mrs. Chas. Trott, and two sons, Messrs. Samuel and George Jess. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Robert Roe. The remains were taken to Cape Charles, Va., for burial.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

J. R. Willson was called to Baltimore last week by the death of a relative.

Miss Helen Rasin with Mrs. Bedford Hackett and Miss Nettie Hackett, of Newport News, Va., are at the Hotel Bailey.

F. C. Numbers, and F. C. Jr., spent Saturday and Sunday with friends near Kennedyville.

Thos. Phillips for the past nine years employed at the Union Cotton Mills has moved to New Castle, Del.

Owing to the storm last Sunday Presiding Elder Koons was unable to fill his engagement at the Methodist Church.

Services will be conducted by Rev. Albert Ware, at Holy Cross Chapel on Sunday afternoon.

The lumber firm of Ahern & Tonkin which has been conducting a successful business since 1901 was reorganized March first. Owing to ill health Mr. Tonkin retires from general partnership and retains an interest of $10.000 as special partner. The business which has grown to considerable proportions will be continued under the firm name of J. P. Ahern & Co.

Millington will have a bakery within the next few days.

Postmaster Walls has returned somewhat improved in health.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral of Mr. Wm. H. Ford last Saturday were Dr. E. G. Clark, of Middletown, Mr. and Mrs. John Price, of Warwick, and Mrs. Emma Jarman, of Smyrna.

Town election will be held in two weeks. At this election, the first to be held under the new charter, the three commissioners to be elected are to be divided into three classes to serve for one, two and three years respectively. There are no active candidates at present.

The annual missionary service will be held at Asbury M. E. Church on Sunday evening. An interesting program has been prepared.

Miss Grace Sylvester was a visitor at the public school last Monday.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Mrs. Venie Harper gave her Sunday School class of young men a taffy pull at her home last Wednesday evening, until nine o'clock. The evening was spent in games when all indulged in taffy pulling. After that music and recitations were enjoyed by all. About 11 o'clock the guests were invited to the table where refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in abundance. About twelve o'clock the company departed. All expressed themselves as having had a delightful time at the taffy pull.

Those present were:—Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Parrott, Miss Arsula Moffett, Misses. Mary J. Anderson, Bessie Wheatley, Edna Wroth, Daisy Severson, Alice Hackett, Ella Falkner, Lucille Barr, Mable Norris, Marion Hackett, Laura Norris, Lillian Walter, Lydia Hackett, Mary Turner, Florence Harper. Messrs. Carl Norris, Penn Toulson, William Ford, Harry Richards, Mayland Taylor, Ed. Neugent, Baynard Harper, Thomas Mann, Walter Harris, Howard Harper,

Mr. Willis K. Hackett, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Elwood Whaley, of Chestertown.

Miss Lillian Walter has been visiting her friend, Miss Edna Bonwill.

Miss Anna Smith, of Chestertown, has been the guest of her relatives in Still Pond.

Mr. Claude Hackett, of Wilmington, Del., is on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Miss Jennie Bowers, of Chestertown, spent Saturday and Sunday, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowers.

Miss Avis Dodd, of Chestertown, spent Saturday and Sunday with her aunt, Miss Katie Howard.

Mrs. Mammie Dodd and daughter, Miss Marghuerita, of Chestertown, are visiting relatives in our town.

We are sorry to state our school teacher, Miss Mary J. Anderson has been sick at her home in Cecilton, where she went to attend the funeral of one of her school friends, Mr. Crawford Smith.

Miss Jennie Coleman and Mr. John Boulden, who were married at the St. Paul M. E. Parsonage by Rev. T. S. Holt Thursday evening, were given a serenade Friday evening by many of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis have moved to Galena, where John is to help with his father's large farm.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS.

Our farmers are planning to get busy: As the first of March is here, the question of labor is on in earnest, and we hope the farmers will treat each other right. When Mr. A hires a man Mr. B should not go to that man and offer to give him more wages when he knows Mr. A. has hired him. This does not improve labor nor does it make it more plentiful.

But while some are busy here and there, our sportsman, E. B. Pennington, Jr., slips away from the boys and brings home two fine wild geese. He has done this several times this winter, and he will have to tell you about the ducks he has killed. He counts them by the dozen, sometimes the boys want to know how he does it, he just gives a broad smile and says ha! ha! and that is all.

The Ladies Aid Society held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Redmile. An interesting programme was rendered under the direction of Mrs. S. E. Barwick, president, after which a very pleasant evening was spent.

Next Sunday, March 3rd, the M. P. Sunday School has a missionary service for 1 hour, beginning at 9.30 A. M.

The election of a delegate to the annual conference also takes place after the preaching service.

One of our young enterprising farmers has over a hundred young chicks and more on the way. I wonder if he is going into the trust business.

One of our esteemed citizens has formed a combination but we do not know what he calls it. He holds the enviable position of magistrate, he is the community's barber. When you want your life insured he does it, as he is the agent for a reliable company. He also attends to his corn sheller and threshing machine, and we all wish him success, as we all know we have to do many things these times to make any progress at all.

Mr. Jack Duyer who has been Mr. Pote's efficient clerk for the past year has gone with his father on the farm in Worton. We will miss you, Jack, so do not forget to come and see us. Mr. John Clayton takes Mr. Duyer's place in Mr. Pote's store. CITIZEN.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Att'y.

ABOUT 20,000 PEACH TREES

TO BE DISPOSED OF.

The buds were selected from the best strains of each variety, which were sent out from the Nicholson nurseries 25 to 30 years ago, and many of these orchards were more healthy and vigorous the past season than quite a few orchards 5 and 6 years old. These trees have been inspected by authority from the State Entomologist, Prof. Symons, and found entirely free from any root disease, San Jose Scale, or other insects. Orders will be promptly attended to.
