Relative to books received from the city of Paris.

31. Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the thanks of the city of Baltimore be and they are hereby presented to the city of Paris, for the splendid donation of books which have been presented by the said city to the city of Baltimore. They cordially reciprocate the sentiment, that such testimonials presented by the cities of France to those of the United States have a favorable effect on literature and science, and on the fine arts, and on the sympathy and ancient friendship so happily subsisting between the United States and France.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the books which have been presented to the city of Baltimore by the city of Paris be deposited with the Library Company of Baltimore, under the condition that they are to be subject to any future disposition the Councils may, hereafter, deem proper to make of them; and they are, whilst under the care of the Library Company, to be subject to the examination of any citizen of Baltimore wishing to do so, but they are not on any account to be loaned out to any person.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the following books and maps be presented in the name of the city of Baltimore to the city of Paris, as a testimonial of the sense they entertain of the friendship of said city in presenting sundry valuable books to the city of Baltimore, viz: Sparks' Life of Washington; Dr. McCulloch's Antiquarian Researches; Dr. Hayden's work on Geology; McMahon's history of Maryland; Bozman's history of Maryland; Mr. Brantz Mayer's Mexico; the orations of William G. Read and John C. Le-Grand, Esq'rs. delivered at the commemoration of the landing of the Pilgrims; Mr. Kennedy's reports to congress on the Commerce of the United States; Mr. John Spear Smith's Commercial Regulations; Mr. Kennedy's Report on African Trade and Colonization; a map of the city of Baltimore; a map of the state of Maryland; a map of the United States; and the four last reports of the Alms House and Penitentiary.

And be it Resolved, That the chairman of the committee be authorised, by and with the approbation of the Mayor, to draw on the Register for the sum necessary to carry the foregoing resolutions into effect.
