of the said streets, viz: Hollins, Carey or Lombard streets; this being a special case, and accruing on the same property, but on the above named streets, with the express understanding that this ordinance is not to serve as a precedent where the property is on different streets and separated by different owners.

No. 29.

An Ordinance providing for the extension of Dover street from Sharp street to Hanover street.

Manner of extension.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the commissioners for opening streets be and they are hereby authorized and directed to extend Dover street from the eastern side of Sharp street to the western side of Hanover street, in the following manner, to wit: the northern side of Dover street, so extended, shall commence on Sharp street, at the north west corner of James Brundige's brick house, standing on the eastern side of Sharp street, leaving the division wall; and shall run thence easterly and paralell with Pratt street, until it strikes a line which would be the western side of Camden lane, if it were extended in a northern direction; and said northern side of said Dover street, so extended, shall commence on Hanover street, at the north east corner of Mrs. Margaret Moore's brick house, standing on the west side of Hanover street; and shall run thence westerly and paralell with Pratt street, until it strikes a line which would be the western side of Camden lane, if it were extended in a northern direction; and the south side of said Dover street, so extended, shall commence on Sharp street, at the south western corner of the brick house known as Captain Hubbel's house, leaving the division wall, (and now owned by Joseph Lynch,) standing on the eastern side of Sharp street; and shall run thence easterly and paralell with Pratt street, until it strikes the western side of Camden lane; and said south side of said Dover street, so extended, commencing on the western side of Hanover street, and running westerly to the eastern side of Camden lane, shall be the same as the southern side of the alley which lies immediately north of and binding on the northern side of the Hanover market—provided, that the city shall be assessed in proportion for benefits for the opening of that portion of said Dover street which lies between the east side of Cypress alley and the west side of Hanover street.

Duties of commissioners.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted and ordained, That said board of commissioners for opening streets shall proceed in all respects in the opening of said Dover street, agreeably to the provisions of the ordinance providing for exercising certain powers vested in this corporation in relation to streets, approved May 15, 1846, and shall receive the compensation therein provided,—and the city collector shall perform such duties as are therein provided,—and the city Register shall also perform the duties imposed on him, and receive the compensation as provided for in the aforesaid ordinance.

Duties of Register.

Corporation not responsible.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted and ordained, That in no event shall the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore be responsible for any expense, cost or charge, or for any part or parts thereof relating to or connected with said extension of said Dover street, from the east side of Sharp street to the east side of Cypress alley.

Approved April 15, 1847.

JACOB G. DAVIES, Mayor.

No. 30.

A further Supplement to an Ordinance to regulate the Riding and Driving of Horses and Carriages, and to regulate Boats and Scows in the City of Baltimore, and for other purposes.

License numbers for the year for which they are given only to be used.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the twentieth day of May next it shall not be lawful for the owner or owners of any carriage, wagon, cart, dray, package cart, furniture wagon, boat or scow, to retain or suffer to be placed on any such vehicle, any other number than the ones corresponding with the license for the same; and any person or persons found violating the provisions of this ordinance, shall be subject to a fine of three dollars; to be recovered as other fines are recoverable.

Approved April 15, 1847.

JACOB G. DAVIES, Mayor.

No. 31.

A further Supplement to the Ordinance for the appointment of a High Constable, City Bailiffs, and for other purposes.

Salary of general police officer, 600 dollars.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the general police officer shall receive a salary of six hundred dollars, to be computed from the first