day of March 1847; and that all ordinances inconsistent herewith, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved April 15, 1847.

JACOB G. DAVIES, Mayor.

No. 32.

A Supplement to an Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance for the appointment of a High Constable, City Bailiffs," &c., approved May 23, 1838.

Ruins of buildings after a fire.

Duties of high constable.

Duties of city commissioners

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the passage of this ordinance, it shall be the duty of the high constable to place one of the police officers or city bailiffs, or more if necessary, on duty near the ruins of a building or buildings after a fire, whose duty it shall be to cause the pulling down, under the direction of the city commissioners, of those walls left standing, and considered dangerous by the said city commissioners; the expense for so removing these walls to be paid for by the owner or owners of said property; to be recovered as fines and penalties are now recoverable—provided, nevertheless, the owner or owners shall have the privilege to remove such wall if he, she or they will do so within twelve hours after being notified by the high constable, police officer or city bailiff.

May receive donations for services.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted and ordained, That the high constable and police officers shall be entitled to and receive all donations that may be made to them by individuals or bodies corporate, for all services rendered by virtue of the first section of this ordinance,—any thing in any ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Approved April 15, 1847.

JACOB G. DAVIES, Mayor.

No. 33.

An Ordinance in relation to the Guns belonging to the First Brigade of Artillery, attached to the Third Division.

Guns to be dismounted.

Carriages to be sold.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the guns belonging to the first brigade of artillery, attached to the third division, now in the shed near the penitentiary, be dismounted, and that the carriages be sold, and that the guns be painted and placed on proper frames or supports; and that the building in which they are now placed, shall be put in good order and secured from all intrusion by badly disposed persons; and if a sufficient sum to carry out this ordinance be not obtained from the sale of the carriages aforesaid, that the sum of one hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be expended under the direction of the city commissioners, with the approbation of the Mayor, be and the same is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to aid in paying the said expenses.

Guns to be painted.

100 dollars appropriated.

Approved May 4, 1847.

JACOB G. DAVIES, Mayor.

No. 34.

An Ordinance to open Chew street from Stirling street to Harford Avenue.

Extent of opening.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the commissioners for opening streets be and they are hereby authorized and required to extend Chew street from the west side of Stirling street, in the following manner, to wit: in its present direction of the width of sixty six feet, until it intersects the eastermost side of Ensor street; and that the south side of said street from the westermost side of Ensor street, commence at the north-eastermost corner of Mr. Richards' two story brick house, and to run northwesterly to the north-east corner of the two story brick house, standing at the south-westermost intersection of Harford avenue and Neighbour street; and that the north line of said street, from the west side of Ensor street, commence at the south east corner of Charles Webb's two story brick dwelling house, and to run north-westerly, paralell with the south line, as now described, until it intersects the eastermost side of Harford avenue.

Duties of commissioners.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted and ordained, That the said commissioners shall proceed in all respects in the opening of said Chew street, agreeably to the provisions of the ordinance providing for exercising certain powers vested in this corporation in relation to streets, approved May 15, 1846, and shall receive the compensation therein provided; and the city collector shall perform such duties as are therein provided; and the city Register shall also perform the duties imposed on him, and receive the compensation as provided for in the aforesaid ordinance.

Duties of Register.