Mr. Samuel C. Welch, son of the late Simon and Elizabeth Welch, of Chestertown, died at his home in Baltimore on Monday, March 11th. The deceased was a veteran of the Civil war having fought under Farragut in the Gulf of Mexico. For many years he was an official in the Baltimore Postoffice and until his last illness was a clerk in the Superior Court. He was a staunch Republician, being secretary of the Young Men's Republican club, a member of the G. A. R. and also of the Union League. A widow and two daughters survive him—Mrs. George B. Mitchell, of Baltimore; and Mrs. Wm. E. Moody, of Chestertown. Funeral was held Wednesday, interment private in Greenmount cemetery.

MRS. SARAH A. QUIMBY.

Mrs. Sarah A. Quimby, widow of the late John Thomas Quimby, of Kent county, died on Tuesday at the home of her son, T. R. Quimby, No. 2134 Hollins street, Baltimore. The deceased was wellknown in Kent county and in Chestertown, where she lived for a number of years. She was a sister of Mrs. Lydia Lusby and Mrs. George S. Biddle, of this county.

MRS. SARAH SENEY.

Mrs. Sarah Seney, wife of Mr. H. E. Seney, died at her home in Kennedyville on Wednesday evening at five o'clock, of apoplexy, aged 66 years. She is survived by two sons and two daughters. Funeral services will be held this Saturday afternoon at two o'clock from her late residence in Kennedyville. Interment will be made in the M. P. cemetery. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARY S. REDMILE.

Mr. James H. Covey, a retired merchant of St. Michaels, Talbout county, died on Monday, aged 76 years. A widow and three daughters survive. He was a relative of Rev. A. H. Covey, of near Pomona.

A Splendid Success.

The celebration of the 10th anniversary of Chestertown Council No. 177 Junior Order United American Mechanics, in Fraternal Hall, last Wednesday evening was a splendid success in every respect, and reflected much credit upon the committee which had the entertainment in charge. The lodge room was artistically decorated with the stars and stripes and bunting, and more than one hundred guests, including members of the Odd Fellows, Masonic Order, P. O. S. of A., D. of A. and Juniors, were present. Mr. W. F. Malin presented Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., as master of ceremonies. Mr. Vickers presided with his usual dignity, and welcomed the guests on behalf of the Council, of which he is a member, in a few well-chosen remarks. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. W. L. White, after which the entire audience joined in singing "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." Patriotic addresses were made by Prof. J. L. Smyth, J. Frank Wheatley, Fred G. Usilton and Thomas D. Bowers, to all of which the audience gave the most respectful attention. Splendid refreshments, consisting of ices, cakes, fruits, etc., in charge of caterer Loud, were served, and all present, especially the large number of ladies, enjoyed the occasion very much. Council No. 177 is making raping progress, both in numbers and influence. There are on roll 128 members, and the meetings of the Council are always well attended. Some of our most substantial citizens are among its members.

Resumed Trips.—The steamer Leland Mills, of the Chester Freighting Company, resumed her bi-weekly schedule from Crumpton to Baltimore on Monday. The schedule adsvertised in this paper will give full particulars.

People's Column.

☞ The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT's columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

FIRST DISTRICT, March 12, '07.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I saw in the TRANSCRIPT of last week a political cry from Chestertown saying it could not be remembered when there was a Democratic State Senator from Chestertown. We think such a cry is in bad taste from a Republican district. We know that the late George Vickers was State Senator at one time. But we do remember that in 1884 Chestertown, or Fourth district, gave a Republican majority of 145, electing Burchinal, Republican, by a majority of 6 over the Democratic districts of the county. Again in 1888 Chestertown gave a majority of 169, electing Burchinal, Republican, overbalancing all the Democratic districts in the county by 17 majority. Again in 1892 Fourth district (Chestertown) gave Baker, Republican, a majority of 139 over Hepbron, but all the other districts of the county had increased Democratic majorities, and Chestertown with its 139 Republican majority was not able to overcome, and the county elected the old war horse of Democracy by a handsome majority.

Again in 1896 Chestertown gave a majority of 136, overcoming all the Democratic districts by a majority of 3 for Westcott over Pearce. Again in 1900 Chestertown (with Pomona which was always counted as one district) gave a majority of 142 electing Baker, Republican, by a majority of 127. Again in 1904 Chestertown gave Foxwell, Democrat, majority of 37, but if Pomona is considered with Chestertown as one district, as it has always been considered, so it changes it into a Relican majority of 63.

With all this staring them in the face, we would like to know why Chestertown would have the rashness to claim that she is entitled to get the Democratic nomination of State Senator. The concensus of opinion here is that Senator Foxwell is the logical candidate for the Democratic nomination for Senator, as he would reconcile the different factions in the party and without such reconcilation and a united party, no Democrat can be elected in this year of grace, 1907, no matter who the candidates are.

FIRST DISTRICT DEMOCRAT.

DEAR SIRS:—In last Saturday's TRANSCRIPT I see a letter endorsing Mr. Crane for State Senator. Does Chestertown want the earth? It now has the county clerk, Mr. Dixon, the clerk to the county commissioners, Mr. Dodd. Mr. Crane, a member of the Legislature, Mr. Copper and Dr. Hines, members of the school board, Judge Simpers, of the Orphans' Court, and Mr. Beck, State's Attorney, and nearly all the other good things this side of Jordan! Is it not time for some of the other districts to have something? We have heard a great deal around here about Mr. Alday Clements for State Senator. May we not ask your correspondent of Chestertown to support our noble citizen, Mr. Clements, for Senator from this district? Nominate him and we will make Rome howl.

SECOND DISTRICT.

Base Ball Notes.

The baseball season at Washington College will begin on April 2d with a game with the strong Syracuse University team. The athletic field at the college is being put in thorough condition by Mr. J. Romie Byron, who has the contract for leveling, sewing in grass, etc., and when the season opens the college will have a most up-to-date and convenient athlectic field. One of the most interesting games for the season has been arranged for commencemence week with University of Pennsylvania team. This game was secured through the efforts of Mr. George Perkins, of Philadelphia, an alumnus of the college, and who takes great interest in the sports at old Washington. Mr. W. W. Price, manager of the team has arranged a splendid schedule, and the public is likely to see some of the finest games in the history of the college. Coach Mahony is busy selecting the squad, and just as soon as the weather permits he will have the boys out on the field getting the "kinks" out of their arms and legs. Higle, Hogle, Hagle! Rah! Rah! Rah! Scrimble, Scramble, Washington, Ya! Ya! Ya!

Do not forget the athletic exhibition to be given in the college gym, under the direction of Prof. Mahony, on March 22d and 23rd. The exhibition on the 23rd, will be for the public.

CHURCH NOTES.

The St. James' sewing meeting, held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gale, near Hanesville, was one of the most largely attended this season. A splendid supper was served and more than $30 was realized for church purposes.

Sunday last was a most inclement day, and the church services were very much interrupted. Prof. Douglass, of Westminster Theological Seminary, filled the pulpit in Christ M. P. Church in the morning, and about forty braved the storm to hear him. The storm had increased to such proportions at night that there was no service in any of the churches.

At the evening service tomorrow (Sunday) in Christ M. P. Church, Dr. Jas. W. Cain, president of Washington College, will deliver a lecture upon "Christ in Literature." Special music will be rendered by a full choir under the direction of Miss Eva Hurlock.

Rev. and Mrs. Thos. H. Lewis have returned from their long southern trip to Westminster. Dr. Lewis is improved in health.

Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield was much pleased with his trip to Westminster last Sunday. He preached to large congregations and he says the singing by the college choir was simply delightful.

Chirst Methodist Protestant Church.—Dr. James W. Cain, will address the congregation and the student body of Washington College at 7.30 P. M., on "The Sacred Scriptures as Literature." Mr. Blakeney will meet his class at 9.30 A. M. The pastor will preach at 10.30 A. M. on "The Alabaster Box." Sunday School at 2.30 P. M. Christian Workers' Song Hour at 9.45 P. M. You will be welcome.

Rev. Henry B. Martin, D. D., will preach a special sermon to the Masonic fraternity in Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, on Good Friday evening, March 29th.

The usual services will be held in the Chestertown M. E. Church, tomorrow (Sunday). Preaching at 10.30, A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday school at 2.15 P. M. and Epworth League at 6.45 P. M.

Death of H. L. Patterson.

Henry L. Patterson, a member of the Philadelphia bar, and a son of the late Henry C. Patterson, who was one of the largest lumber dealers in Philadelphia, died suddenly late Saturday afternoon having taken his life as the result of long continued ill health. For the past year Mr. Patterson's health had been poor and at times he became very melancholy. His condition had been a source of anxiety to his family for sometime. As late as Saturday morning he had gone to market for his wife and laid in a supply of food for the next three or four days. He talked to his wife a minute before the fatal shot was fired, and was in unusually good spirits. His sole enjoyment since loosing his health had been in assisting his wife and children, to whom he was extremely devoted. The deceased was born in Philadelphia 45 years ago. He was well educated, having been a graduate of Friend's Central school, Philadelphia, Swarthmore, and the University of Pennsylvania Law school. He spent his summers at Rehoboth, Del., with his family, and a more devoted father and husband never lived. His father left a large fortune and the one son and his mother were the sole heirs. Though wealthy, Mr. Patterson lived without ostentation, and was always unassuming both in appearance and tastes. He is survived by a widow, two interesting daughters and one son, to whom he is said to have been extremely devoted.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS.

We are still looking for spring, but last Sunday winter was here in earnest, and on Monday the sleighbells sounded as well as they do in January, but since that time the traveling is very bad indeed.

Our farmers are getting up their wood for the summer, yet they are kept back on account of bad weather. Ground hog or no ground hog we have had very little weather that it was fit to work.

Mr. W. M. Hurlock, who was housed last week from having some teeth extracted has regained his old time form again and is out with us again.

Mr. W. A. Pote is suffering with a bad cold and the grip.

Mrs. Harry Redmile quietly passed away Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Webster Hague is suffering from the grip and its effects.

Mrs. T. A. Godwin is visiting relatives in Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Joe Shriver is visiting in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. Wm. R. Price and Mr. Eli Hastings made a business trip to Philadelphia, Pa., this week.

Our pastor held an interesting service last Sunday morning, on account of the stormy weather there was no services last Sunday night.

Mr. W. H. Kelley, of Locust Grove, will have charge of the C. E. meeting on Sunday night, March 17th, at 7 o'clock. Let everybody come and enjoy the service.

CITIZEN.
