No. 32.

An Ordinance to extend the Port Warden's line, and to improve the Harbor of the City of Baltimore.

E. Pratt and W. Callow may change Port Warden's line.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that Enoch Pratt and William Callow, owners of property on the south side of the harbor, be and they are hereby authorized to change the Port Warden's line, so that the line shall begin for the same at the intersection of Cox and Towson avenues at Port Warden's line, and run south-easterly sixty feet; thence north-easterly one hundred and eighty feet, or thereabout; thence southerly three hundred and thirty five feet, or thereabout, to a point of intersection of Cox and Andre avenues, at Port Warden's line; thence continuing the same line southerly four hundred feet, or thereabout, to a point two hundred and sixty-five feet north of the north side of Nicholson avenue, at Port Warden's line; thence westerly two hundred and sixty-five feet, or thereabout, to a point on Andre avenue, at Port Warden's line, eighty-five feet north of the intersection of Andre and Nicholson avenues, at Port Warden's line; all the above named lines and distances to be according to plat filed in the Register's office.

Boundaries designated.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted and ordained, that all ordinances or parts of ordinances, inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved May 15, 1855.

SAMUEL G. SPICER, Ex-officio Mayor.

No. 33.

An Ordinance to open and condemn Fort street, from William street westwardly to the Middle Branch of the Patapsco river.

Preamble.

Whereas, application has been made to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to have Fort street opened from William street westwardly to the waters of the Middle Branch of the Patapsco river, and notice of said application having been given as required by the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, chapter 226, passed at December session, 1838, entitled "an act to vest certain powers in this corporation in relation to streets," and believing that the public convenience requires that the same should be done; therefore,

Fort street to be opened.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that the Commissioners for opening streets in the city of Baltimore, be and they are hereby authorized and directed to open and condemn Fort street, from William street westwardly to the waters of the Middle Branch of the Patapsco, as laid down on the plat of the Extension Commissioners, returned under the act of Assembly of Maryland, passed December session, 1817.

Duties of commissioners.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted and ordained, that the said Commissioners for opening streets shall proceed in all respects in the condemnation and opening of Fort street as aforesaid, agreeably to the provisions of the ordinance entitled an ordinance to provide for exercising certain powers vested in this corporation in relation to streets in the city of Baltimore, approved April 30th, 1850; and the Register and Collector of the city shall also perform such duties as are provided for in said ordinance.

Approved May 19th, 1855.

SAMUEL G. SPICER, Ex-officio Mayor.

No. 34.

Supplement to Ordinance No. 21, of Revised Ordinances, 1850, entitled an Ordinance to preserve the navigation of the Harbor of Baltimore, to appoint a Port Warden, fixing his compensation and prescribing his duties.

Nuisances not to be cast in Jones' falls and certain runs.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, company or corporation, to cast, throw, or cause to flow by any manner of means, any fish, crabs, animal or vegetable matter, gas tar, offal of houses, privies, or filth of any kind whatever, into the waters of Jones' falls, Harford run, Chatsworth run, Schroeder's run, or any of the streams running therein, within the limits of the corporation, under the penalty hereinafter prescribed.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted and ordained, that if any company or corporation, shall violate any of the provisions of the first section of this ordinance, they shall forfeit and pay for the first offence the sum of fifty dollars, and a further sum of twenty dollars for each and every day thereafter, until the nuisance is abated; and if any person or persons, shall violate any of the provisions therein contained, he, she or they, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for the first offence, and five dollars for each and every offence thereafter, the fines to be collected as for violations of other city ordinances; one-half to be paid to the informer, and the remainder to be paid into the city treasury.

Gas Company.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted and ordained, that if the Gas Light Company of Baltimore, or any other company or person, shall discharge or cause any water to flow into Jones'