Ends of streets.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted and ordained, that the beds of the several streets, lanes, and alleys, shall have their terminus at the contemplated Port Warden's line.

Water to be kept of proper depth.

SEC. 3. Be it enacted and ordained, that the individuals to whom the privileges of extension are granted by this ordinance, and their successors, shall at all times keep the water in the inlets and docks appertaining to the aforesaid wharves, of equal depth with the water outside of the new Port Warden's line.

Repeal.

SEC. 4. Be it enacted and ordained, that all ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved September 21, 1855.

SAMUEL HINKS, Mayor.

No. 57.

An Ordinance Supplementary to Ordinance No. 40, of Revised Ordinances of 1850, providing for Pumps and Fire-plugs in the City of Baltimore.

Exemption from wells and pump tax.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that all property now or that may hereafter be supplied with hydrant water by the water department, shall be, and the same is hereby exempted from taxation for erecting new wells and pumps.

Repeal.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted and ordained, that all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved September 28, 1855.

SAMUEL HINKS, Mayor.

No. 58.

Supplement to Ordinance No. 30, of Revised Ordinances of 1850, an Ordinance entitled an Ordinance to enforce useful regulations.

Water from gutters not to thrown on pavements.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that from and after the passage of this ordinance, no person or persons shall cast water contained in the gutter or gutters of any street, avenue, lane or alley, upon the bed or paved portion of such street, avenue lane or alley, by means of a scoop, shovel, watering pot, or by any other means or contrivance whatever; and any person or persons who shall violate the provisions of this ordinance, after due notice shall have been given by the Mayor, in three of the daily papers, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars for each and every offence. Penalty.

Privilege to builders.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted and ordained, that no portion of this supplement ordinance shall, in any way, impair the privileges accorded to builders, in the eighth and ninth sections of ordinance No. 30, to which this is a supplement.

Approved September 28, 1855.

SAMUEL HINKS, Mayor.

No. 59.

An Ordinance to condemn Orbit Alley as a public highway.

Preamble.

Whereas, James Hasson and others have petitioned the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that Orbit alley, between Neighbor street and Eager street, as laid down on the plat of Charles Rogers' property, may be opened and declared as a public highway, and the legal notice required by the act of Assembly in such cases provided, having been given, therefore,

Orbit alley to be condemned and opened.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that Orbit alley, between Neighbor street and Eager street, as laid down on the plat of Charles Rogers' property, be and the same is hereby declared and condemned as a public highway, and subject to all the laws and ordinances passed or to be passed, applicable to streets, lanes or alleys in the city of Baltimore; provided that in no event shall the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore be at any cost or charge relating to or connected with the condemnation of said alley.

Approved October 2, 1855.

SAMUEL HINKS, Mayor.

No. 60.

A Supplement to Supplementary Ordinance providing for the appointment and compensation of City Auditor, prescribing his duties, and for other purposes.

Salary of city Auditor.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that the compensation of the City Auditor shall be one half of one per cent. beginning March the first, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, on all monies collected by him, under the ordinance to which this is a supplement.