said, the amount to be applied by said Commissioners towards paying the expenses of said schools.

Approved April 16, 1864.

JOHN LEE CHAPMAN, Mayor.

No. 50.

An ordinance to create a Sinking Fund to redeem the stock issued for the rebuilding the Court house.

One cent tax

Sink'g Fund

Court House Bonds.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That a tax of one cent on every hundred dollars worth of assessable property in the city of Baltimore, and in like proportion for any greater or less amount, be and the same is hereby levied for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-four, as a sinking fund to redeem the stock debt issued for rebuilding the Court House.

Commiss'ers of Finance to invest.

Section 2. And be it enacted and ordained, That the Register shall pay the amount of collections received by him, from the City Collector from said tax to the Commissioners of Finance, who shall invest the same in City Stock, also the interest received from said stock so invested, to be marked "Sinking Fund Court House Stock Debt," and to be used for no other purpose than the liquidation of the Court House Stock Debt.

Approved April 16, 1864.

JOHN LEE CHAPMAN, Mayor.

No. 51.

An ordinance to authorize the Register to use the credit of the city to the amount of uncollected taxes of 1864, not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars.

Register may borrow $200,000.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Register be and he is hereby authorized, with the approbation of the Mayor, to use the credit of the city, by giving notes of the corporation to the amount of uncollected taxes levied for the year 1864, not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars.

Approved April 16, 1864.

JOHN LEE CHAPMAN, Mayor.

No. 52.

An ordinance supplementary to the ordinance entitled "An ordinance relating to vaults, areas and cellars," approved May 31, 1858.

Private sewers.

Permission from City Commiss'er required.

Penalty.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the passage of this ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to construct within the limits of direct taxation a private sewer, under the streets, lanes or alleys that are paved, without having had and obtained the written permission of the City Commissioner approved by the Mayor, under a penalty of twenty dollars, and ten dollars for each and every day the same shall remain, and that every application for such permission to erect such sewer shall be in writing signed by the person or persons making the same, and shall name the length desired.

Pay 20 cents per lineal ft.

Penalty $20.

Section 2. And be it enacted and ordained, That after obtaining permission to construct or make such sewer, and previous to the commencement thereof, the person or persons so applying shall therewith pay to the Register of the city the sum of twenty cents for each lineal foot of ground mentioned as required for such sewer, under a penalty of twenty dollars for each and every commencement of such sewer without the payment of the sum herein required.

Approved April 22, 1864.

JOHN LEE CHAPMAN, Mayor.

No. 53.

An additional supplement to an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to provide for the appointment of a Secretary to the Mayoralty and fix his compensation," approved May 31, 1858.

Salary of Secretary to Mayoralty $1200.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the first day of March 1864, the salary of the Secretary to the Mayoralty shall be twelve hundred dollars per annum, and that all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved April 22, 1864.

JOHN LEE CHAPMAN, Mayor.