No. 57.

An ordinance supplementary to the ordinance entitled "An ordinance appointing a Collector of Taxes, and prescribing his duties," approved June 2, 1862.

Whereas additional assessments of taxes, amounting to nearly ten millions of dollars, have recently been made by the new assessors, and the Collector of taxes is unable to enter them upon his books and present the bills to all persons desirous of availing themselves of the discount allowed for payment of taxes on or before the first day of May—therefore,

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the City Collector be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to extend the time for which discounts are allowed for the prompt payment of taxes, until the close of the thirty-first day of May, 1864, and that all persons paying taxes previous to that time be allowed the same rates of discount as though they had been paid on or before the first day of May: provided that the provisions of this ordinance shall not extend beyond the present year.

Time for payment of Taxes extended.

Approved May 2, 1864.
