General appropriations

For discount on prompt payment of taxes, forty thousand dollars.

For the widening of Holliday street, thirty-five thousand one hundred and eighty-seven dollars and thirty-seven cents.

For amount due State Police seventy-six thousand, three hundred and ninety-five dollars and seventy cents.

For amount due Public Schools, forty-six thousand sixteen dollars and twelve cents.

For amount due Criminal Court, nine thousand three hundred and eighty-one dollars and sixty-four cents.

For amount due certain expenses, six thousand eight hundred and thirty dollars and fifty-cents.

For amount due internal improvements, one hundred and forty-nine thousand seven hundred and sixty-four dollars.

For amount due City Poor, seventeen thousand two hundred and seventy-five dollars and fourteen cents.

For amount due on war bounty, twelve thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars and forty-one cents.

For amount due highways and bridges, seven thousand seven hundred and seven dollars.

For amount due floating debt, four thousand and eighty-four dollars.

For amount due defence loan, three thousand eight hundred and fifty-five dollars.

For amount due defence loan No. 2, three hundred and seventy dollars.

For amount due Court House, eight hundred and ninety-four dollars.

For amount due Water Bonds, four hundred and fifty dollars.

For amount due Water Bonds No. 2, two thousand and fifty seven dollars.

For amount due Light Division Maryland Volunteers, twenty-three thousand four hundred and fifty-four dollars.

For amount due Jail Bonds, five thousand nine hundred and fifty-one dollars.

For building Hollins street Market, twenty-three thousand dollars.

For change of grade at Bond street and Canton avenue, two hundred dollars.

General appropriations

For paving footways around Jackson square, twelve hundred dollars.

For plans for new City Hall, four hundred dollars.

For National Flag at Battle Monument, forty dollars.

For payment bill of Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, seventy-one dollars and fifty-eight cents.

For tin valleys at Fell's Point Market, five hundred dollars.

For expenses of the City Council to the dedication of National Cemetery at Gettysburg, one hundred and eighty-four dollars and forty-eight cents.

For altering the bed of Centre street, three hundred dollars.

For repairs to Lexington Market, four hundred dollars.

For payment to Gilbert H. Bryson, City Surveyor, two thousand dollars.

For repairs of Union square, three hundred dollars.

For erection of a new Market-house at Cross street, eight thousand dollars.

For one year's interest on floating debt, eight thousand seven hundred dollars.

For one one year's interest on Bounty Bonds, twenty-two thousand eight hundred dollars.

For one year's interest on Defence Bonds No. 2, twenty-four thousand dollars.

For one year's interest on Water Bonds for construction of new reservoir, eighteen thousand dollars.

For one year's interest on Defence Bonds No. 3, twenty-seven thousand dollars.

For one year's interest on $4,113,215.30$\frac{1}{100}$ f six per cent., and $850,000 of five per cent. bonds, two hundred and eighty-nine thousand two hundred and ninety-two dollars and thirty-two cents.

For one year's interest on $1,000,000 loan to Pittsburg and Connelsville Railroad Company, sixty thousand dollars.

For one year's interest on $1,500,000 bonds guaranteed to Northwestern Virginia Railroad Company, ninety thousand dollars.

For one year's pay of police force, two hundred