No. 101.

An ordinance to condemn and open Albemarle street, from Plowman street to Baltimore street.

Preamble.

Whereas, application has been made for the opening of Albemarle street, from Plowman street to Baltimore street, and notice of said application having been given as required by the eight hundred and thirty-eighth Section of the fourth Article of the Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, and believing that the public convenience requires the same to be opened; therefore

To condemn and open Albemarle street.

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Commissioners for Opening Streets be, and they are hereby, authorized and required to condemn and open Albemarle street, from Plowman street to Baltimore street, as follows: To begin on the north side of Plowman street, at the division line, between the lots supposed to belong to the estate of John A. Jones and Mr. J. G. Loane, being about ninety-seven feet easterly from the northeast corner of Plowman and Front streets, and running thence northerly, binding on the division line between said lots to Baltimore street, thence easterly on the south side of Baltimore street thirty-nine feet four and one-half inches, more or less, to the line dividing the lots supposed to belong to Mrs. M. A. Bonry and E. W. Eichelberger, thence southerly on said division line thirty-six feet seven inches, more or less, to the angle in said line, thence southerly by a line parallel to the line of Albemarle street, as already public, south of Plowman street, about forty-one feet, to Plowman street, and thence westerly on the north side of Plowman street to the beginning.

SEC. 2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That any person or persons or body corporate that may be dissatisfied with the assessments of benefits or damages which shall be made by the said Commissioners, may appeal to the Baltimore City Court, at the time, in the manner and after like notice by the Register, as provided in Article forty-three of the Baltimore City Code, and the Collector and Register of the City shall also perform such duties in relation to streets as are required of them by the provisions of said Article.

Right of appeal

Approved Nov. 1, 1873.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.

No. 102.

An ordinance to appoint a Commission for the re-division of the Wards of Baltimore City.

Mayor to designate five Commissioners

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That for the purpose of effecting the object herein contemplated, it shall be the duty of the Mayor, within five days next ensuing his approval of this Ordinance, to designate five qualified voters of the City of Baltimore, two of whom shall reside east and three west of Jones' Falls, who shall be styled Commissioners.

Commissioners to correct the divisions of the wards.

To make out two returns.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That the Commissioners so appointed shall as soon as practicable, proceed to correct the divisions of the several wards of the City, in such manner as that eight thereof shall be located east and twelve west of Jones' Falls as now arranged; said correction to be by right lines as nearly as practicable, and to give to each ward as nearly as possible an equal number of voters, and said Commissioners or a majority of them, shall make out two returns under their hands and seals, which shall describe particularly the metes and bounds by streets, lanes and alleys, of each of said wards, and designate the same by numbers from one to twenty inclusive, commencing with the number east of Jones' Falls;
