Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the passage of this ordinance, no agent, owner or lessee of any house of public amusement, or any agent, owner or lessee of any show, circus or public exhibition of any kind whatsoever, shall suffer or permit any person whomsoever to do or perform those acts in which feats of strength and skill are exhibited by the performer from apparatus suspended at an extraordinary elevation above the stage, without first providing a network of such character and material as in the event of any miscalculation on the part of the performer will be the means of saving him, her or them from accident or injury.

To provide a net work.

Sec. 2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That any agent, owner or lessee of any house of public amusement, or any agent, owner or lessee of any show, circus or public exhibition of any kind whatsoever, offending against the provisions of the first section of this ordinance, shall forfeit and pay a fine of fifty dollars for every time such offence may be committed in his, her or their house or place of public amusement, to be recovered as other fines are recoverable.

Penalty.

Sec. 3.—And be it enacted and ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

Approved March 21, 1873.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.

No. 105.

An ordinance to provide for the cleaning of sinks or privy vaults in the City of Baltimore.

Section 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Board of Health be, and it is hereby, authorized and empowered, in its discretion, to permit any person or persons who shall at his or their own cost be supplied with suitable conveniences, to clean sinks and privy vaults in the City of Baltimore during the day time, provided that no annoyance to sight or smell shall arise therefrom.

To permit the cleaning of sinks during day time.

Sec. 2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That the said Board of Health shall, before giving a permit to any person or persons f r the cleaning of vaults or privies as provided for in the first section of this ordinance, demand and receive from such person or persons a good and sufficient bond for the proper performance of the work to be done without annoyance to sight or smell to the citizens of Baltimore.

To demand and receive a bond.

Sec. 3.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Approved Nov. 1, 1873.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.

No. 106.

An ordinance amendatory to an ordinance condemning and opening Franklin street, between North and Holliday streets.

Section 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Commissioners for Opening Streets in their action in regard to the condemnation and opening of Franklin street, from North to Holliday street, be directed not to remove any obstruction now existing unless they project twelve inches or more over the lines of said street, and that they act in their assessments as if said obstruction had no existence.

Commissioners for Opening Streets.

Approved Nov. 5, 1873.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.