tection of the building, and for the accommodation of those who may enter it on business or for other proper purposes. They shall each receive for their services one thousand dollars per annum.

Salary.

Night Watchmen of the City Hall, duties of.

SEC. 6.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That there shall be annually appointed as other City officers are appointed, two night-watchmen of the City Hall, whose duty it shall be to attend thereto, from 6 o'clock P. M. to 6 o'clock A. M., one of them shall perform duty in the basement story and cellar of the building, and the other on the floors above the basement. Their duty will be to move about the parts of the building assigned respectively to their care and charge, and should they, or either of them sleep, or lie down when on service, he or they shall be immediately discharged from office. As a compensation for their services, they shall each receive an annual salary of one thousand dollars.

Salary.

Engineers and Firemen, duties of.

SEC. 7.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That there shall be annually appointed as other City officers are appointed, two Engineers and four Firemen, whose duty it shall be to attend to the heating department of the building, and shall employ or appropriate such hours in the prosecution of their respective duties as may be designated by the Mayor from time to time as necessity or circumstances may require or suggest. The engineers must be practical machinists, who will be capable of making such repairs to the heating apparatus as may be required. The engineers shall each receive an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars, and the firemen shall each receive an annual salary of nine hundred dollars.

Salary.

Not to absent themselves without permission of the Mayor.

SEC. 8.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That none of the foregoing officers shall absent themselves from duty without the permission of the Mayor. Neither the day or the night watchmen shall place any substitute on duty when sickness or other circumstances may render their absence necessary, unless such substitute shall first be approved by the Mayor.

Substitutes to be approved by the Mayor.

Repeal.

SEC. 9.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That Sections 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, of Article 7 of the Baltimore City Code, sub-title "Ordinances," and Sections 4, 6, 7 and 8, of Article 1 of the Supplement to the Baltimore City Code, sub-title "Ordinances," and Ordinance No. 13, approved February 27, 1871, and all other ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

SEC. 10.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

Approved May 15th, 1875.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.

No. 93.

An ordinance to repeal an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to condemn and open Cooke street (now known as Patterson avenue) from Fulton street to a point three hundred and sixty feet west of the west side of Monroe street.

Repeal of ordinance to condemn and open Cooke street.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the ordinance entitled "An ordinance to condemn and open Cooke street (now known as Patterson avenue) from Fulton avenue to a point three hundred and sixty feet west of the west side of Monroe street," approved November 3d, 1873, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

Approved May 20th, 1875.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.