No. 98.

An ordinance to condemn and open Eager street, between Park avenue and Cathedral street.

To condemn and open Eager st., between Park avenue and Cathedral street.

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Commissioners for Opening Streets be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to condemn and open Eager street, between Park avenue and Cathedral street, fifty-five feet wide, as follows: The north side of said street to begin on the west side of Cathedral street, at the south-east corner of the lot of ground belonging to L. F. Roberts, and to run thence westerly, binding on the south side of said lot one hundred and twenty feet to Fulton alley; thence still westerly by a straight line to the east side of Park avenue at a point distant seventy-four feet northerly from the north-west of John Eschbach's new three story brick house, being about one hundred and seventy-three feet northerly from the intersection of the east side of Park avenue, and the north east side of Richmond street; the south side of said street to be southerly fifty-five feet from the north side thereof, and to run parallel therewith.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted and ordained, That any person or persons, or body corporate, who may be dissatisfied with the assessment of damages or benefits which may be made by the said Commissioners, may appeal therefrom to the Baltimore City Court, at the time, in the manner, and after like notice by the Register of the City, as provided for by Article 43, of the Baltimore City Code; and the Collector and Register of the City shall also perform such duties in relation to streets as are required of them by the provisions of said article.

This ordinance not having been returned to the Council with my objections thereto within four days is a law by limitation.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.

No. 99.

An ordinance to provide for grading, kerbing and paving Frederick avenue, between Gilmor street and the Western City limits.

Preamble.

Whereas, the Baltimore and Fredericktown Turnpike Company, have ceded to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, all that part of the bed of Frederick avenue lying within the limits of the City of Baltimore; and, whereas, the public convenience requires that all that part of the bed of Frederick avenue, between Gilmor street and the Western City limits, should be graded, kerbed and paved; therefore,

Frederick avenue to be graded, paved and kerbed.

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the City Commissioner be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to have all that part of Frederick avenue between Gilmor street and the Western City limits, graded, kerbed and paved, in pursuance of the Act of Assembly, Chapter 218, of 2d of
