Resolution of thanks to the Northern Central Railroad Company.

Whereas, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, did on the 17th day of the present month, accept the invitation of the officers and managers of the Northern Central Railroad Company to go over its road in a special train to Philadelphia, to be present at the celebration of Maryland Centennial Day, October 19th;

And whereas, the said Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, in availing itself of the courtesy extended to it by the said Company, experienced marked kindness and attention on the part of the officers of the said Company, whose efforts during the trip were always directed towards the comfort, convenience and pleasure of the said Mayor and City Council;

And whereas, it is deemed right and proper that there be public recognition thereof by the corporate authorities of the City of Baltimore; therefore;

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the thanks of the corporate authorities of the said City of Baltimore are due, and are hereby tendered to the officers and managers of the Northern Central Railway Company for their kindness and their assiduous attention to the comfort, convenience and pleasure of the members of the Council and officers of the corporation, on their visit to and return from Philadelphia on Maryland Centennial Day, October 19th.

Approved October 28th, 1876.
