General appropriation.

Park Place Square, one thousand dollars; building police stations, three hundred and seventy-nine dollars; Superior Court, rebinding records, &c., (resolution 113 of 1877,) seven hundred and twenty-five dollars; George Kuhn, (resolution 310 of 1876,) three dollars and nineteen cents; Louisa E. Littig, (resolution 311 of 1876,) nine dollars and sixty-six cents; John W. Bechtel, (resolution 333 of 1876,) ten dollars; Charles Rogers, (resolution 371 of 1876,) two thousand three hundred and forty-seven dollars and sixty-three cents; A. S. Abell & Co., (resolution 121 of 1877,) seventeen dollars and ten cents; wharf foot of Charles street, (resolution 122 of 1877,) four thousand dollars; Water Board, (resolution 123 of 1877,) seven hundred dollars; Hermange & Brewer, (resolution 124 of 1877,) thirty-three dollars and fifteen cents; Broadway Squares, two thousand five hundred dollars; Calvert Street Spring, one hundred and twenty-five dollars; ringing mechanics' bells on Federal Hill, one hundred dollars; ringing mechanics' bell foot of Caroline street, one hundred dollars; fountain, West Falls avenue, (resolution 146 of 1877,) one hundred and twenty dollars; S. J. Martenet, (resolution 147 of 1877,) seventy-five dollars; hose for La Fayette Market, (resolution 148 of 1877,) seventy-five dollars; Dr. E. R. Walker, (resolution 149 of 1877,) twenty-five dollars; B. F. Bennett, (resolution 183 of 1877,) one thousand dollars and eighty-one cents; John Cox, (resolution 152 of 1877,) one hundred and five dollars and fifty cents; John W. Boult, (resolution 154 of 1877,) eighty dollars and seventy-five cents; G. S. Griffith & Co., (resolution 155 of 1877,) six hundred dollars; fountain on Central avenue, (resolution 157 of 1877,) one hundred and twenty dollars; Cross Street Market, (resolution 158 of 1877,) one hundred dollars; Hollins Market, (resolution 162 of 1877,) fifty dollars; paving Divison street, (resolution 163 of 1877,) two hundred and thirty-nine dollars and eighty-two cents; registration, (resolution 168 of 1877,) nine hundred dollars; Fell's Point Market, (resolution 169 of 1877,) seventy-five dollars; fountain, Philpot street, one hundred and twenty-five dollars; tunneling Harford Run, (ordinance 35 of 1877,) twenty-five thousand dollars; U. S. Supreme Court Reports, five hundred dollars; fish at Druid Hill Park, one thousand dollars; Inspector of Gas, (ordinance 7 of 1875,) fifty dollars; W. J. Cousins, (resolution 176 of 1877,) fifteen dollars and fifty-five cents; shed at Bowly's wharf, (resolution 175 of 1877,) three hundred dollars; drinking fountain, Ridgeley and Hamburg streets, (resolution 174 of 1877,) one hundred and twenty dollars; Park Board, twenty thousand dollars; ordinances and resolutions, one hundred thousand dollars.

General appropriation.

Miscellaneous Stocks.

One year's interest on the following stocks:

General appropriation.

Court House 5 per cent., 1860, four thousand six hundred and twenty dollars; Consolidated 6 per cent., 1890, four hundred and thirty-eight thousand three hundred and ninety-two dollars and seventy-six cents; Consolidated 5 per cent., 1885, forty-six thousand eight hundred and thirty-three dollars and five cents; Permanent Water 5 per cent., 1894, sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars; Permanent Water 6 per cent., 1894, fifteen thousand seven hundred and eighty dollars; Water 6 per cent., 1875, three hundred thousand dollars; Public Park 6 per cent., 1890, thirty-three thousand three hundred and thirty-three dollars and ninety-six cents; Exempt 6 per cent., 1893, twenty-four thousand six hundred and twenty-one dollars and twenty-four cents; Funding 6 per cent., 1894, one hundred and twenty thousand dollars; Funding 6 per cent., 1900, forty-eight thousand