Comptroller to sell stalls.

That the Comptroller shall proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidders, for cash, all the butcher, permanent and eave stalls in the Canton Market-house recently erected by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore under Ordinance No. 21, of the ordinances of 1885; but the Comptroller may, at his discretion, withdraw any stall or stalls should the bid therefor be less than he may deem the value of the same to be.

Rent of stalls.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the rent per annum of the enumerated in Section 1 shall be as follows: Butcher stalls, ten ($10) dollars; permanent stalls, four ($4.00) dollars; eave stalls, two ($2.00) dollars; exclusive of the license of five ($5.00) dollars provided to be paid by Section 15, Article 35, City Code; said rent and license to commence May 1, 1886, and to be payable in advance, except the butcher stalls, the five ($5.00) dollar license of which shall be payable yearly in advance, and the rental of ten ($10) dollars payable quarterly in advance.

Limits of market.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the limits of the Canton Market shall comprise the whole of the lot belonging to the city, and bounded on the north and south by O'Donnell street, on the east by Potomac street, and on the west by Patuxent street; also the whole width of O'Donnell street from Potomac street to Patuxent street, the whole width of Potomac street and Patuxent street where they bind on said market-house; and that the days for holding said market shall be Monday and Thursday of each week and Saturday evening.

Market days.

Salary of clerk

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the clerk of said market, to be appointed per Section 1, Ordinance of Article 35, Baltimore City Code, shall give bond, as prescribed in Section 4, ordinances of same article, and shall receive for his services the sum of four hundred ($400) dollars per annum.

Government of market.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the Canton Market shall be in all respects governed by the ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

Approved November 14, 1885.

JAMES HODGES, Mayor.

No. 3.

An Ordinance to provide for the grading, paving and kerbing of Parrish alley between Mulberry and Franklin streets.

Parrish alley to grade, pave and kerb.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the City Commissioner be and he is hereby authorized and directed to have all that part of Parrish alley between Mulberry and Franklin streets graded, paved and kerbed, in pursuance of the Act of Assembly, Chapter 218, of 2d April, 1874, and according to the provisions of Article 47, of the Baltimore City Code, title "Streets and City Commissioner," sub-title "Grades, Grading, Paving, &c.," providing for the grading, graveling, shelling, kerbing, paving, repaving, &c., of streets, lanes and alleys in
