No. 73.

An Ordinance providing for the removal of all signs and sign-posts erected on the kerbs and extending over the sidewalks two feet from the building line, and all lettered awning flaps, and to prevent the erection of the same in the city of Baltimore.

For the removal of all signs and sign-posts on the kerbs and extending over the sidewalks.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That any person or persons, or body corporate, in the city of Baltimore, having in front of his, her, their or its premises any sign or sign-post erected on the curb or extending over the sidewalk more than two feet from the building line, or any lettered awning flap, are hereby directed to have the same removed prior to the 1st day of January, 1887, under a penalty of five dollars per day for each and every day the same shall remain after the day named in this section; said fines to be recovered as other city fines are recovered.

Penalty.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, or body corporate, in the city of Baltimore to erect any sign or sign-post on the kerb, or extend any sign over the sidewalk more than two feet from the building line, or to put up any awning flap in front of his, her, their or its premises after the passage of this ordinance, under a penalty of five dollars for each and every offence; said fine to be collected in the manner as provided in Section 1, of this ordinance, for the collection of a like penalty.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted and ordained, That all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same may be inconsistent herewith.

Approved May 17, 1886.

JAMES HODGES, Mayor.

No. 74.

An Ordinance to repeal so much of Section 26, of Article 7, of the Baltimore City Code, as relates to signs, sign-posts, figures, and various devices for advertising therein referred to.

Repeal.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That so much and all that part of Section 26, Article 7, of the Baltimore City Code, as relates to signs, sign-posts, figures, and devices for advertising, and the granting of authority to the Inspector of Public Buildings, by and with the approbation of the Mayor, to allow and permit the same to be used and displayed by any person or persons, corporation or corporations, applying for permission in the premises, as mentioned in said Section 26, be and the same is hereby repealed; provided, however, that the Mayor shall, at all times, have the power and authority to grant and permit canvas signs, or advertisements of public exhibitions, or notices of public assemblages, or meetings, to be suspended in the streets in such manner as he may consider proper; the
