JEFFERSON.

THE LADIES STORE, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Fairest of all the Autumn Opening!

THE "Ladies Store" is now all aglow with the very newest things (FOR FALL) and you'll find that generous assortments are features in all departments; jewels of "purest ray serene" at prices that mean baraing prices. In fact, taken all in all, the "Ladies Store" presents the "Fairest of all the Autumn Openings."

While all departments are brimming full of the season's best articles, lack of space prevents giving each special mention, and we direct your attention to the thing mostly needed at present, viz.: Dress Goods, Silks, Shoes and Millinery and suggest that you read carefully what we have to say on these lines then journey hither and inspect, and we feel assured that the goodness of these articles will be recognized with a glance.

FALL DRESS GOODS!

Never before in our history has our Dry Goods department ever exhibited such a vast selection and varied line as may be seen this season. Everything that you may desire or could wish for is here in the greatest abundance at prices pleasingly moderate Brown, which is the leading shade FOR FALL, is here in all the dainty checks, neat stripes and fancy plaids.

SILKS. SILKS

If you are thinking of buying a silk waist, silk suit or silk skirt this season don't forget Jefferson's silks have stood the test and you can get anything you want in silk right here, without going to the city—WITH A JEFFERSON GUARANTEE ON IT—Yard wide Black Taffeta's and fancy silks in abundance—just come in and look them over before you buy.

Shoes That Please!

Our Women's Shoes never fail to please the most critical eye

They have a gracefulness and dash of style that all women like to see them.

The shoe is a very important item of a Woman's dress for it enhances or detracts from her entire costume.

Shoes to be handsome, artistic and skillfully made, need not, of necessity, be expensive shoes.

LOOK AT OUR WOMEN'S SHOES AT $2.25, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00.

Prettier or more stylish shoes were never made, and still the prices are not high.

We've every shape and model needed for every foot requirement.

New Fall styles are beauties Remember, please, we guarantee our shoes.

MILLINERY!

Our trimmers have just returned from the second opening of the New York Millinery Houses, where they have been selecting the most fashionable materiels for our Millinery Parlors. We will give our patrons the most up-to-date millinery that is to be had this season and at extremely surprising figures.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held in the M. P. Church on last Friday night. Mrs. Emma Godwin had charge of the programme for the meeting. The meeting opened with Mrs. Shafer in the chair. Miss Lulu Vandyke, organist, accompanied by Mr. Willis with his cornet. They gave several fine selections, among them was "Lead Kindly Light", which was very fine. Mrs. Clara Glenn and Miss Flora Johnson each sang very pretty solos. Miss Woodall gave a fine recitation holding the close attention of the audience throughout, and last but not least, on the program was a forcible address by Mr. Martin Burris, of Middletown, Del. He spoke in no uncertain terms about high license and the temperance work and the double moral standard that is practiced to-day. He says the young men should have as high a moral standard as they expect the ladies to have, and the ladies should expect as much. This is only one of the many good things he said.

On Sunday last the officers for the present year in the M. P. Sunday School were elected. So come out and help the school to be useful to you and every one else.

The C. E. service on Sunday night will be led by Mr. D. T. Nickerson. We are sure he will be pleased to see a large attendance. Service commences at 7 P. M. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M.

While some of our sportsmen are hunting ducks, geese and muskrats, there are others that are equally enjoying themselves fox hunting. We can often hear the thrilling yelp of the hounds, and it is music in the air when we hear a large number of hounds on a hot trail.

Mr. W. B. Cleaver and Mr. Wm. R. Price are spending part of this week in Philadelphia.

Mr. Herbert Allston, who until recently made his home with his uncle, Mr. W. A. Pote, died on Thursday morning last at his aunt's, Mrs. Strong, in Wilmington, Del. He had been a sufferer for several years. CITIZEN.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett and little son, William, have been visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. G. W. Harper, of New York, has been visiting relatives in our town.

Mrs. William Parr spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Urie, of Kennedyville.

The monthly business and social meeting of the Epworth League was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. B. Price, Betterton.

A delightful birthday party was held last Monday evening at Miss Sallie Norris' in honor of her daughters, Miss Mabel and Laura, the days being the sisters' birthdays. Quite a large crowd was present and an enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Mrs. Leonard Price will hold a box social at her home next Thursday evening, Jan. 23rd. Proceeds for the benefit of Sunday School class. A cordial welcome awaits you. Don't fail to be present.

Mr. Ralph Robinson and Miss Gertie Robinson, two young people of our town were quietly married last Thursday evening at the parsonage.

The Epworth League was led Sunday evening by Miss Mary Anderson, subject being "God's revelations and how to get them." A number of the Epworthians took part in the service. Our Pastor's subject for Sunday morning, "A mighty appeal of usefulness." The evening service will be in charge of the Epworth League, Mrs. J. C. Rasin being the leader. Subject, "The secret of power for service."

Our pastor is meeting with great success in his revival services at Betterton. There have been 33 precious souls saved. "Betterton for God," is the keynote of this revival—He invites all to come.

The last Sunday morning in this month the delegate will be elected to attend the annual conference which meets in Wilmington March 18th.

Work on the church is moving along nicely. The contract for the metal ceiling, was given the Penn. Metal Co., of Philadelphia one day this week, and the committee hopes to have it put on next week.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

Revival services, conducted by Rev. Collins, are still in progress, and are resulting in great success. The meetings have been going on for two weeks and every night a large crowd listens to the sermon. Last Sunday afternoon eleven were received into the church on probation.

Fishermen are busy mending and gearing in their nets in preparation for the coming fishing season.

Mrs. Sallie Weist, the oldest inhabitant of Betterton, is very sick at her home on the hill. Mr. John Brice also has been suffering with the grippe, as have been a great many others.

Miss Gertrude Emerson is visiting relatives in Philadelphia and Wilmington.

Miss Lillie Harrison, of Georgetown, is spending the week with Miss Helen Crew.

Mr. Rhoten Crew spent part of last week in New York.

A petition is to be sent to the Legislature by the voters of this town and vicinity to have a precinct at Betterton. Worton at present is the voting place and is entirely too far away..

MOTHER-IN-LAW THIRD WIFE.

Dr. Marvin, Whose Boy Was Reported Kidnapped, Weds.

Dr. Horace Newell Marvin, of Dover, Del., father of the boy who wandered away from a farmhouse near Dover last spring and died from exposure, causing the report that he had been kidnapped, and who last week got a license to wed Mrs. Flora Melinda Swift, was married on Friday night by Rev. Dr. Houghton at the Little Church Around the Corner, in New York. Mrs. Swift was Dr. Marvin's mother-in-law. Dr. Marvin is 62 and his wife 60 years of age.

In his application for a marriage license Dr. Marvin said that by occupation he was a physician and farmer, that he was born in Ohio and that he had been twice married.

Mrs. Swift in her application said that she had had a husband, now dead, and that she lived in Brookline, Mass.

We are moving the Harper Stock as quickly as invoiced and hope to have a large portion of this stock on sale by next week.

The low prices at which we shall sell this stock will make quick sales and be of real interest to our people.
