No. 103.

An ordinance to repeal and re-enact Section 2, of Ordinance No. 73, approved May 17, 1886, entitled "An ordinance providing for the removal of all signs and sign-posts erected on the kerbs and extending over the sidewalks two feet from the building line, and all lettered awning flaps, and to prevent the erection of the same in the city of Baltimore."

Repeal.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That Section 2, of Ordinance No. 73, approved May 17, 1886, prohibiting the erection of signs and awning flaps in the city of Baltimore, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Unlawful to erect signs or sign-posts on the kerb, or extend any sign over the side-walk, or put up any awning flap.

Penalty.

Relating to theatrical bills

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, or body corporate, in the city of Baltimore, to erect any sign or sign-post on the kerb, or extend any sign over the sidewalk more than two feet from the building line, or to put up any awning flap in front of his, her, their, or its premises, after the passage of this ordinance, under a penalty of five dollars for each and every offence; said fine to be collected in the manner as provided in Section 1 of this ordinance for the collection of a like penalty; but this ordinance shall not be so construed as to prevent the placing of theatrical bill posting upon brick piles, or upon the fence in front or around any new building in course of erection, or any old building under repair.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same may be inconsistent herewith; and this ordinance shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

Approved October 10, 1887.
