rights and comforts which are the barest concomitants of civilization; and be it further

Resolved, That the Hon. James Hodges, Mayor of Baltimore, transmit to the Hon. William E. Gladstone, and to the Hon. Charles Stewart Parnell, individual transcripts of these resolutions.

Approved April 11, 1887.

JAMES HODGES, Mayor.

No. 90.

Resolution granting permission to R. S. Dodson to erect a frame building.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That permission be and the same is hereby granted to R. S. Dodson to erect on his property on the north side of York street and west side of Dock street (foot of Johnson street) a frame building 30x60 feet, and two stories high; the work to be done at his own expense and under the supervision of the Inspector of Buildings.

Approved April 12, 1887.

JAMES HODGES, Mayor.

No. 91.

Resolution granting permission to John Shelly & Brother to erect and conduct a livery, sale, and exchange stable and carriage house on Pennsylvania avenue between Presstman and Fremont streets.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That permission be and the same is hereby granted to John Shelly & Brother to erect and conduct a public livery, sale, and exchange stable and carriage house in the brick house and premises known as No. 566 Pennsylvania avenue, running back to Fremont street between Presstman and Fremont streets; the pits in connection therewith to be so constructed as to receive all offal and fluids, and no fluids except those used for washing carriages to flow from the premises.

Approved April 12, 1887.

JAMES HODGES, Mayor.

No. 92.

Resolution granting permission to Anthony Kreiger to erect a two-story addition to his hiring and livery stable.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That permission be and the same is hereby granted to Anthony Kreiger to erect a two (2) story brick addition to his hiring and livery stable, situated on the south side of Biddle street between Somerset street and Central avenue.

Approved April 12, 1887.

JAMES HODGES, Mayor.

No. 93.

Resolution for a trap to sewer.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the City Commissioner be and he is hereby authorized and directed to have a trap placed at the