No. 149.

Resolution granting permission to John F. Miller to extend the steps in front of his houses on Bruce alley.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That permission be and the same is hereby granted to John F. Miller to extend the steps in front of three houses, owned by him, situated on the west side of Bruce alley between Harlem avenue and Lanvale street, a distance of six inches, so that said steps may project two feet from the building line in front of said houses.

Approved October 21, 1887.

JAMES HODGES, Mayor.

No. 150.

Resolution to give permission to James E. Emmerich to extend steps on Parrish alley.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That permission be and the same is hereby granted to James E. Emmerich to extend four sets of wooden steps eight inches further than now allowed by law, at the entrance of four houses, owned by him, on the west side of Parrish alley, being the first, second, and third houses south of Franklin street, and side entrance of house southwest corner Franklin street and Parrish alley; said extension to be under the supervision of the Inspector of Buildings.

Approved October 21, 1887.

JAMES HODGES, Mayor.

INDEX

TO THE

ORDINANCES

OF THE

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE,

1886-'7.