KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS.

Well we have survived another St. Patricks and he behaved himself very well.

Some of our people took advantage of the good weather we have had, and planted their early garden. Mr. John R. Bennett, the old reliable gardener, is keeping right up with his early garden and plants. He generally is equal to the occasion, but sometimes the demand exceeds the supply, but only for a short time as he always has more growing.

Our farmers are sowing their clover alsyke. Some are spraying their fruit trees and some are hauling out their corn, and they are getting good prices, considering the condition corn is in, and our community is getting down to work as spring comes.

Our pastor got busy too on Tuesday last at 1 o'clock P. M. Mr. Harry Lipscomb and Miss Della Bramble appeared before him at the parsonage to be joined together in holy wedlock. They left on the 3 P.M. train on their wedding tour. They will reside in the J. A. Stauffer house in our village. On their return we extend congratulations. The preacher is through with that couple. Who will be the next?

We understand the Jr. C. E. Society is going to hold a sock social on March the 27th, at Weer's Hall. They want everybody to come whether they wear socks or not.

Mr. H. E. Seney, who has lived here many years and conducted a boot and shoe business, is closing up his business preparatory to going to Phila., where his children live and he expects to make his home. Now this will make an opportunity for a good shoemaker. This we believe is an excellent stand, and somebody will miss it unless they are the first to make use of it. Who will it be?

Some of our farmers are already fixed for the year 1909. Mr. John Redmile will vacate the Mrs. Rachel Hill farm to move on the Rev. C. R. Blades farm, which he has purchased, and Mr. Geo. R. Rasin has rented Mrs. Hill's farm for next year.

The regular church services on Sunday. The C. E. meeting will be led by Mrs. Shafer commencing at 7 P. M. We should all try to come. CITIZEN.
