A SPLENDID SUCCESS.

36th Anniversary of the Juvenile Home Missionary Society of Christ M. P. Church Raised $450.42 for the Year.

The 36th anniversary of the Juvenile Home Missionary Society of Christ M. P. Church was held last Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock. A vast audience filled the auditorium and Sunday School room, and was profited and instructed by the splendid programme arranged by a committee composed of Mr. Fred G. Usilton, Mrs. L. J. Smyth, Mrs. Stewart Matthews, Mrs. Wm. C. Sutton, and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson. The chancel and pulpit recess were beautifully decorated with potted plants, and in the centre of the pulpit were the symbols, the lighthouse and the ship. A beautiful symbolic exercise entitled "Saved at Sea," a service of story and song, was described by Misses Addie Hurlock, Mary Elliott, Anna Smith, Louise Russell and Ida Smith. The president's address was delivered by Mr. Webster Hague, who has made an efficient president during the year. He said:—

"As we meet this evening to celebrate the anniversary of our Juvenile Home Missionary Society, we recall with pleasure the many memorable occasions of the past and look to the future for even greater things. We trust that this evening's exercises may impress upon our minds the great work of missions, and especially of the HOME Missionary Society.

"While you as a school are to be congratulated for the excellent work in the past such as kind words and deeds, contributing money, etc., yet we should push forward toward the mark of the high calling which is in Christ Jesus. As an incentive to this we have brought to your attention this evening a 'Story of the Sea', to which we ask your careful consideration.

"As we catch the truth it teaches, may we profit thereby and build our hope upon the SOLID ROCK.

"In Revelations 21st chapter and first verse, we find these words: 'And there shall be no more sea.' In the olden times and in these days the seas has numerous terrors even with light houses upon the rocks circling the coasts at night with beacons of fire. As the place, therefore, of fierce winds and treacherous waves, the sea is an appropriate symbol of the disappointments and adversities and sorrows and bereavements that often rush upon the child of God, seeking to wreck his faith in the goodness and wisdom of Providence. But, thanks be to the Lord, we are voyaging to a happier shore! How comforting are God's pictures of yonder world where no divisions occur! That world shall afford one unbroken re-union of sundered hearts; and there shall be no spectre of distance or of the grave to cast around its baleful gloom. Triumphant expression—'and there shall be no more sea'! May each of us so build that our house shall stand in the time of storm and our souls find a safe haven in the harbor of eternity."

One of the features of the evening was the collection, which amounted to the splendid sum of $268.54, one of the largest collections for the night in the history of the society. The three highest classes for the night were

1.	W. W. Hubbard	$75.50
2.	Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort	41.25
3.	Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley	35.25

Mr. Hubbard's class was presented the banner in a most appropriate address by Prof. J. S. W. Jones, of the college faculty. The total amount of the collections during the year was $450.42, the second highest ever contributed in any one year by the school. The four highest classes for the year were:

1.	W. W. Hubbard	$91.85
2.	F. G. Usilton	55.40
3.	Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort	50.66
4.	Wm. A. Wheatley	40.40

The prizes which were four beautiful and istructive books were presented in a very pleasing speech by Mr. J. Waters Russell. We cannot refrain from giving honorable mention to the Infant class, whose collection amounted for the night to $13.75 and for the year more than $25. This is a remarkable collection for the little tots, who saved their pennies and brought them to the church. An orchestra composed of Messrs. L. Bates Russell, cornet; Warren C. Hurlock, and T. Kemp Bordley, violins; Houston Toulson, viol; Foster Cannan, trombone, and Miss Clara Usilton, accompaniest, furnished splendid music for the occasion and the singing by the school was up to its usual high standard.

Town Election.

Notice is given in another column of an election for town commissioner to succeed Mr. Wm. S. Carroll, on Monday, April 27th. Three things will be voted for at this election:

1. One Town Commissioner.
2. For or against paying Town Commissioners a small salary.
3. For or against the purchase of the Water Works by the town.

The TRANSCRIPT is heartily in favor of the re-election of Mr. Wm. S. Carroll, who has made a most efficient officer, and we urge all our friends to vote for him. We also favor a salary for the commissioners and the purchase of the water works by the town, and we especially urge all the tax-payers and friends of the TRANSCRIPT to come out and vote for Mr. Carroll and the other propositions. Read the law in another column.

Ready For Work.

About eight weeks ago the large planing mill and lumber factory of Messrs. W. S. & A. M. Culp was destroyed by fire, causing a loss of some $10,000. Today the firm, with that energy and push for which it is noted, has finished a new factory and mill, and have nearly completed a brick engine and boiler room with concrete flooring. New machinery has been installed, and the firm is better equipped, in larger quarters and owns a better plant than ever before. They are booking numerous orders, have plenty of work, and are ready to attend to all business that comes their way. They deserve the patronage of the public and we are sure will receive a large share of patronage.

Wedding Bells.

ROLPH—PETERSON.

Mr. John W. Rolph and Miss Mary F. Peterson, of Chestertown, were quietly married at the M. E. parsonage on Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. W. L. White.
